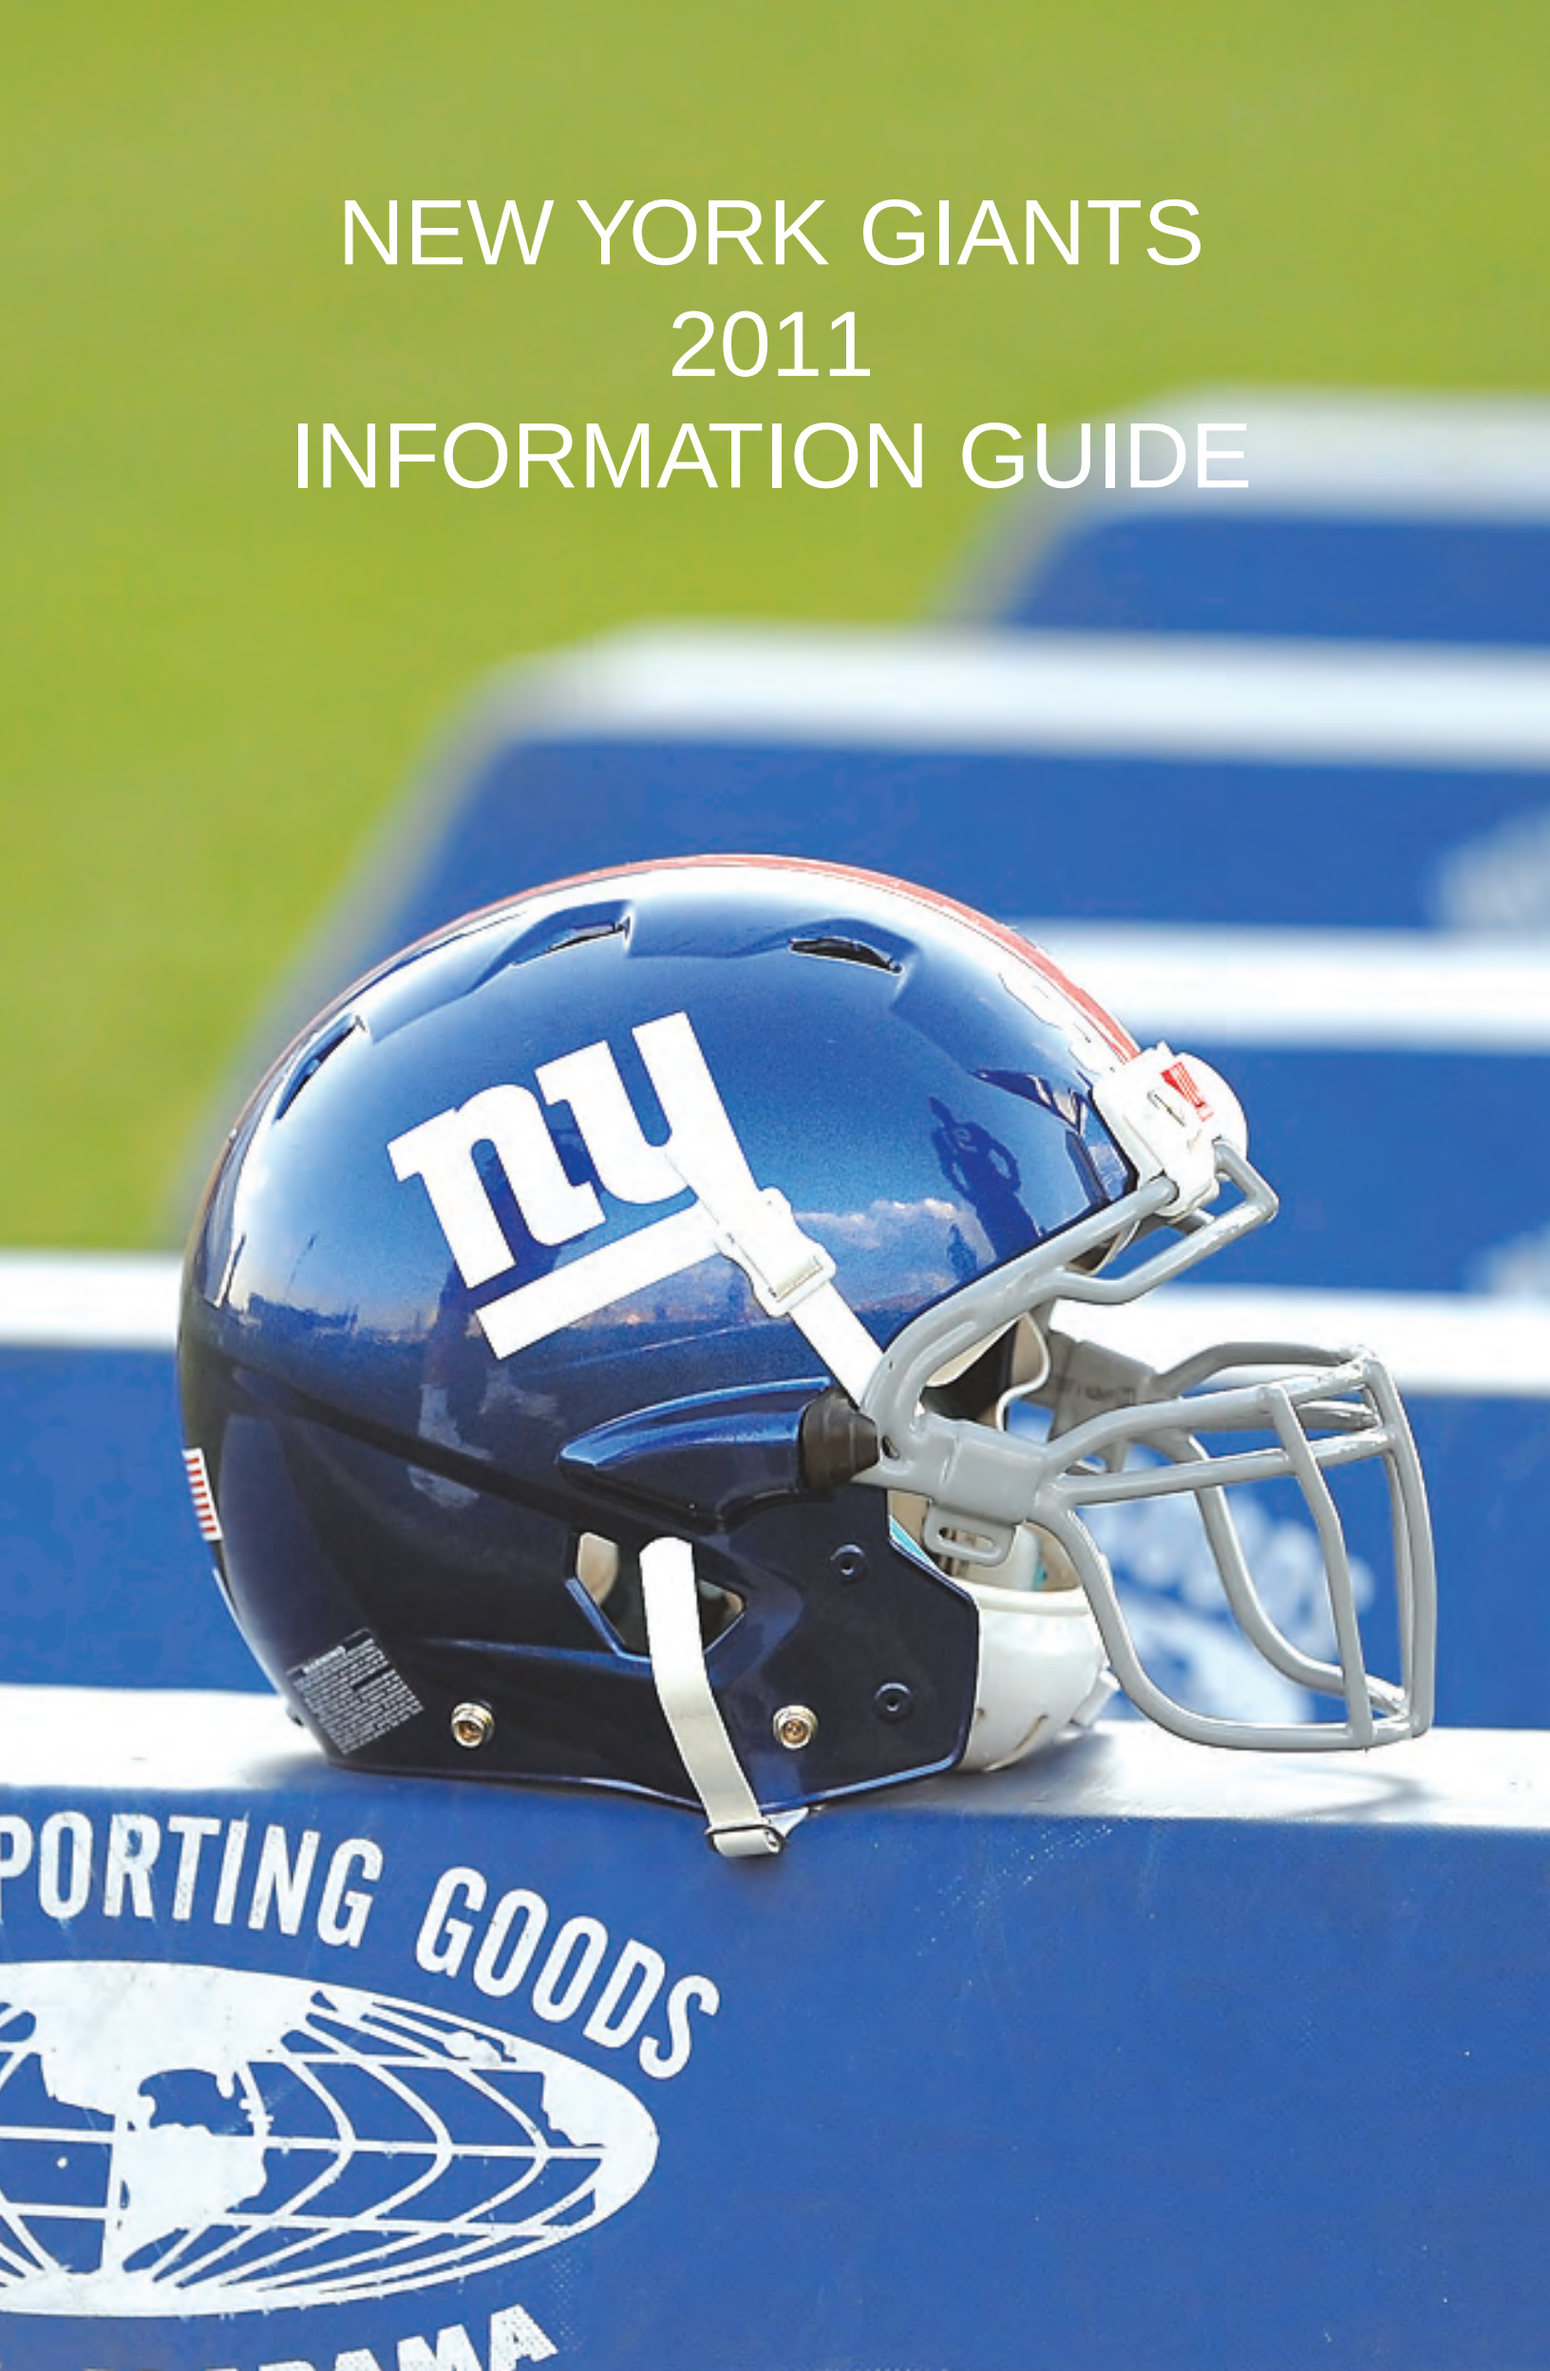
NEW YORK GIANTS
2011
INFORMATION GUIDE



JOHN K. MARA

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

John K. Mara is in his 21st season with the Giants. The franchise's President and Chief Executive Officer, he assumed the team presidency upon the passing of his father, Wellington Mara, in 2005. John Mara is the oldest of Wellington Mara's 11 children. He had been the team's Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. In his present position, Mara, who joined the Giants in 1991, is responsible for all administrative, legal and financial aspects of the organization.

With team Chairman Steve Tisch, he was at the forefront of the planning and negotiations for New Meadowlands Stadium, where the Giants began playing their home games in 2010 after 34 seasons in Giants Stadium. In addition, Mara, Steve Tisch and Jonathan Tisch, as well as Jets owner Woody Johnson, headlined the bid committee that helped convince the NFL owners to award Super Bowl XLVIII to the new stadium in February 2014.

Mara is a member of the NFL management council's executive committee and played an important role in negotiating a new collective bargaining agreement with the NFLPA. He also serves on the influential NFL Competition Committee, which studies all aspects of the game and recommends rules and policy changes to NFL clubs, as well as the league's Management Council Executive Committee and the Committee on Workplace Diversity.

Mara has been affiliated with the Giants his entire life. The franchise was founded in 1925 by his grandfather, Tim Mara. Wellington Mara was one of the most influential, respected and beloved executives in NFL history. Since John Mara joined the organization in an official capacity, the Giants have reached the playoffs eight times, won four NFC East titles and played in two Super Bowls, winning one.

Born in New York City on Dec. 1, 1954, Mara grew up in Westchester County in White Plains and graduated from Iona Prep High School in New Rochelle. He attended Boston College where he received a B.S. degree in marketing, graduating with Cum Laude honors in 1976. Mara earned his law degree from Fordham University in 1979 and then began his career as an attorney with the New York law firm of Vedder, Price, Kaufman, Kammholz and Day, specializing in labor and employment law and litigation. Two years later he moved to the Manhattan firm of Shea & Gould, where he practiced until joining the Giants.

Mara serves on the Board of Directors of Saint Vincent's Hospital in Harrison, N.Y. and Boys Hope Girls Hope of New York.

John and his wife, the former Denise Walter, are the parents of five children: Lauren, Courtney, John Jr., Christine and Erin. They also have two grandchildren, Christopher and Hailey. The Mara family resides in Harrison, N.Y.

STEVE TISCH

CHAIRMAN AND EXECUTIVE VICE PRESIDENT

Steve Tisch has the distinction of being the only person on the planet with both an Academy Award and a Super Bowl ring. He won the former as one of the producers of "Forrest Gump," which was awarded the Oscar for Best Picture of 1994, and the latter as Chairman of the Giants, who defeated the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII.

Tisch joined the Giants organization as Executive Vice President in July 2005, but he has been intimately involved with the team since his father, Preston Robert Tisch, purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991. With the passing of his father in 2005, Steve Tisch assumed the additional title of Chairman. Steve worked closely with John Mara on the planning and construction for the New Meadowlands Stadium, the beautiful new venue that is the Giants' new home. The new stadium is a joint venture with the New York Jets.

In addition, Steve joined Mara, his brother Jonathan (the Giants' treasurer) and Jets owner Woody Johnson in leading the teams' successful bid to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to the new stadium in February 2014. NFL owners voted in May 2010 to bring the Super Bowl and all of its accompanying events to New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. It will be the first Super Bowl played in an open-air stadium in a cold weather region.

Tisch is one of the most successful producers in the motion picture industry. He is a partner in Escape Artists, an independently financed film production company based at Sony Pictures Entertainment. His television and feature film projects have consistently focused on the lives of everyday people and the vital impact they have in society.

One of Tisch's most noteworthy professional achievements was the production of "Forrest Gump," which was named Best Picture at both the Academy Awards and the Golden Globes. "Forrest Gump," which was nominated for 13 Academy Awards and won nine, remains one of the 25 highest domestic box office grossing films in history.

Another Tisch film, "The Pursuit of Happyness," starring Will Smith, was released by Columbia Pictures in December 2006 and became one of the biggest hits of the year. Tisch's other credits with Escape Artists include "The Weather Man", "Seven Pounds", "Knowing", "The Taking of Pelham 123" and "The Back-Up Plan". Escape Artists latest film titled "Great Hope Springs", starring Meryl Streep and Tommy Lee Jones, begins principal photography in August.

Tisch began his career in entertainment when he was a student at Tufts University. His summer jobs included booking films in the family's movie theater chain, working for director John Avildsen and serving an apprenticeship under Otto Preminger. Upon his graduation, Tisch worked as Peter Guber's assistant at Columbia Pictures. At age 22, he became an Executive at the studio, and during his four-year tenure he worked on such films as "The Lords of Flatbush," "Tommy" and "The Last Detail."

In 1976, Tisch left Columbia to produce his first motion picture, "Outlaw Blues." Tisch met Jon Avnet during the shoot and the pair soon formed Tisch/Avnet Productions. The company's success's included the runaway 1983 hit, "Risky Business." Tisch/Avnet also produced many acclaimed television films, including "The Burning Bed," which received 11 Emmy nominations and numerous other awards, and was credited with providing many women with the courage to seek help from physical abuse.

Tisch/Avnet's other television film credits include "Silence of the Heart," "Something so Right," "Prime Suspect," "No Other Love," "Call to Glory" and "Homeward Bound" (winner of a Christopher Award).

In 1986, Tisch formed his own production company, the Steve Tisch Company, which has produced many films, including "The Postman," "Wild America," "The Long Kiss Goodbye," "Corrina, Corrina," "Big Business," and "Bad Influence". Tisch also served as Executive Producer on "American History X," "Lock, Stock & Two Smoking Barrels," and "Snatch."

Tisch has long been a leader in philanthropic ventures. In April 1991, he was elected to the AIDS Project Los Angeles' Board of Directors. During his tenure, Tisch served as both Board Chair and Chair of the Development Committee.

Tisch has also generously contributed his time and resources to such organizations as The H.E.L.P. Group and the ERAS Center. He is also a member of the Board of Advisors at the Tisch School of the Arts at New York University and is on the Board of Trustees of The Geffen Theatre in Los Angeles, The Sundance Institute, The Los Angeles County Museum of Art and The Preston Robert Tisch Brain Cancer Center at Duke University.

CHRIS MARA

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER EVALUATION

Chris Mara joined the Giants as Vice President of Player Evaluation on July 29, 2003.

This is Mara's second tour of duty with the franchise. He joined the Giants staff prior to the 1979 season and over the next 14 years he was a member of the club's player personnel department. Mara was a scout during the franchise's first two Super Bowl Championship seasons in 1986 and 1990.

Following his first stint with the Giants, Mara spent eight years (1994-2001) operating ProRate, Inc., an independent football scouting service contracted by as many as 15 NFL franchises. The service provided an evaluation of the free agent market in the NFL.

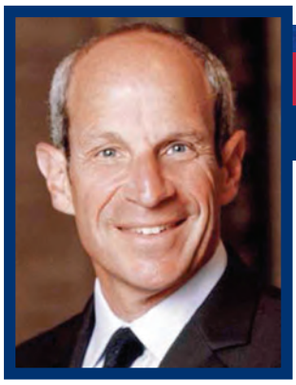
Mara spent 2001-02 as the President/General Manager of the New Jersey Gladiators of the Arena Football League. Mara oversaw a myriad of responsibilities including ticket sales, operations, and the arena lease. His primary focus was on player personnel and player contracts. Mara brought his extensive knowledge of professional football to the team and revived the struggling franchise in just one season.

After a difficult first season, the Gladiators posted a 9-5 record in 2002 and a first place finish in the Eastern Division of the National Conference. Posting the biggest turnaround in AFL history, the Gladiators finished the 2002 regular season with seven more victories than the previous year and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in franchise history.

Mara graduated from Iona Prep in New Rochelle, N.Y. where he was a standout defensive back for three seasons, winning All-Catholic High School Athletic Association recognition after his senior year.

He began his collegiate career at Springfield College, where he was a defensive back on the freshman team and lettered on the varsity golf team. He then transferred to Boston College, where he earned a B.A. in the Arts and Sciences. During his scholastic and collegiate days, Mara spent many summers working at Giants training camps. During the regular season, he worked with broadcast teams from both CBS-TV and NBC-TV, as well as with visiting and home radio broadcast groups.

Mara was born in New York City. He is married to the former Kathleen Rooney and the couple has four children- Daniel, Kate, Patricia, and Conor – and two grandchildren, Judith Kailee and Wellington Rooney (Daniel's children).



JONATHAN M. TISCH
TREASURER

Jonathan M. Tisch is a Co-Owner and the Treasurer of the New York Giants and also serves on the Giants Board of Directors. Tisch is Co-Chairman of the Board and a member of the Office of the President of Loews Corporation, one of the largest diversified financial holding companies in the United States, and is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of its subsidiary, Loews Hotels.

During his tenure, Tisch has engineered Loews Hotels' expansion and emergence as a leading luxury hotel brand by infusing the properties with a widely praised corporate culture that places a high value on partnerships that empower employees, satisfy customers, contribute to communities, and improve the bottom line. Believing you can do well and do good at the same time, Tisch is a champion of corporate responsibility and has devoted a lifetime to active citizenship—an idea that uses the power of partnerships and grassroots participation to solve seemingly intractable problems.

Tisch is the author of three best-selling books that explore his leadership philosophy, the role of the customer experience and civic engagement: The Power of We: Succeeding Through Partnerships; Chocolates on the Pillow Aren't Enough: Reinventing the Customer Experience; and Citizen You: Doing Your Part to Change the World.

He is also the host of the Emmy-nominated television series, "Beyond the Boardroom with Jonathan Tisch," where he speaks with some of America's preeminent CEOs and business luminaries in one-on-one interviews. Viewers discover that business is about more than just numbers, rather, it's the successful combination of people, hard work, guts, and imagination. The show airs on Plum TV.

Tisch is widely recognized as a passionate advocate on behalf of the multi-billion dollar travel and tourism industry and works tirelessly to educate elected officials and the public at large about the industry's significant economic, social, and diplomatic contributions. Tisch serves as Chairman Emeritus of the United States Travel Association, the national non-profit association representing all segments of the travel industry.

He is also committed to a vibrant tourism industry in New York City, where for nearly six years he served as Chairman of NYC & Company, the city's official tourism marketing agency and convention and visitors bureau. Concurrent with his national efforts to help stimulate travel and tourism in the aftermath of September 11th, Tisch served as Chairman of New York Rising, a task force committed to reviving tourism and the economy in New York City. In recognition for his leadership and civic involvement, Crain's New York Business named Tisch one of the "Top Ten Most Influential Business Leaders" and he was named "CEO of the Year" by the Executive Council of New York in 2006.

Tisch served as the Vice-Chairman of The Welfare to Work Partnership, and currently serves on the Board of Trustees for Tufts University, where he is also the naming benefactor of the Jonathan M. Tisch College of Citizenship and Public Service. He is also on the Board of the Tribeca Film Institute.

His passion for the metropolitan area and love of football prompted Tisch to join Jets owner Woody Johnson as co-chairs of the bid committee established to bring Super Bowl XLVIII to the region. The bid was summarized by the tagline "Make Some History." In an unprecedented decision by NFL team owners, the New York/New Jersey region was awarded the 2014 Super Bowl. The game will be played at New Meadowlands Stadium, the first open-air stadium in a cold-weather region to host a Super Bowl. Tisch and Johnson are co-chairs of the Host Committee.

JERRY REESE

SR. VICE PRESIDENT AND GENERAL MANAGER

Jerry Reese is in his fifth season as the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager. Reese is one of the most successful general managers in the NFL. His first four seasons as head of the franchise's football operations included a 40-24 regular season record, a 4-1 postseason mark and a victory in Super Bowl XLII, an NFC East championship and no seasons in which the Giants finished under .500.

Reese was named the Giants' Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 16, 2007. He succeeded Ernie Accorsi, who had held the positions for nine years before retiring. Reese, who will be 48 when the 2011 season begins, has been a member of the Giants organization since 1994. Prior to becoming the G.M., he spent four seasons as the team's Director of Player Personnel. Reese coordinated the Giants' college scouting, was in charge of the team's draft preparation and ran the draft room as the players were selected. When Accorsi retired, the team's ownership selected Reese as the team's third general manager since 1979, when the late George Young assumed the position. Young held it until 1997, when Accorsi took over. Accorsi, who had helped convince Reese to leave college scouting and join the pro personnel department of the Giants, promoted him and championed his cause.

The selection of Reese was historic, as he was the third African-American general manager in NFL history, joining Baltimore's Ozzie Newsome and Houston's Rick Smith. It was particularly poignant for Reese to learn of his appointment on Martin Luther King, Jr. Day.

"I thought about that a lot and it was absolutely perfect timing for this to happen," Reese said. "I don't mean to sound cliché, but I really feel it's my time to carry the torch. There are many people who went before me who really suffered through this process, and now it's my time. I'm going to be successful – I have to be successful on a lot of levels."

Doug Williams, the first black quarterback to win a Super Bowl, with Washington in January 1988, carried the Lombardi Trophy to the stage set up on the field following the Giants' victory in Super Bowl XLII.

"After the Super Bowl, Doug called me about three different times, emailed me, texted me, and he just said, 'You made me so proud,'" Reese said. "Those are the kind of calls that mean so much, because Doug really kind of paved the way for African-Americans, saying, 'You know what, there can be an African-American quarterback to win the Super Bowl, there can be an African-American general manager who can lead his team to the Super Bowl.'"

Reese helped put the Giants on the road to a championship soon after becoming general manager. He re-signed center Shaun O'Hara, which kept the offensive line intact, and added linebacker Kawika Mitchell via free agency and running back Reuben Droughns and kicker Lawrence Tynes in trades. He drafted eight players – Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Jay Alford, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Adam Koets, Michael Johnson and Ahmad Bradshaw – who all played in the 2007 postseason. During the season, the Giants added important players like fullback Madison Hedgecock and wide receiver/kickoff returner Domenik Hixon.

Many of those players have improved significantly and remain among the team's most important contributors. Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions in 2009. Bradshaw rushed for 1,235 yards in 2010, the ninth-highest total in the NFL and the seventh-highest total in Giants history. Boss is a steady and reliable starting tight end who is capable of the big play. DeOssie is a two-time Pro Bowl long snapper.

In 2008, Reese's ability to acquire important players was again evident. Linebacker Danny Clark was signed in March and was the Giants' starting strongside linebacker for two years. David Carr was a solid backup quarterback. When Tynes was injured in the preseason, Reese signed 21-year veteran John Carney, whose 143 points were the second-most in Giants history. The Giants also drafted Kenny Phillips, Terrell Thomas and Mario Manningham, all of whom should contribute significantly to the team for many years. Thomas has led the Giants in tackles and interceptions each of the last two seasons.

The next year's draft class was headlined by wide receiver Hakeem Nicks, who emerged in 2010 with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns in only 13 games. In 2009, Nicks caught 47 passes for 790 yards, both the third-highest total among rookies in Giants history – despite missing two games. Nicks' 790 yards tied for first among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin. Offensive lineman Will Beatty has been a valuable contributor as a reserve (including at tight end) and spot starter. In 2009, Reese also added veterans Michael Boley, Chris Canty and Rocky Bernard on defense. Boley was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week after recording nine tackles, including a sack and two stops for losses, in a Nov. 22 victory over Atlanta.

Reese continued to acquire key players in 2010. He shored up a position where the Giants were short-staffed by importing safeties Antrel Rolle and Deon Grant. Those two safeties teamed with Phillips to give the Giants much-improved play at that vital position. Rolle was selected to the NFL Pro Bowl team. Another veteran acquisition, linebacker Keith Bulluck, added experience and depth to defense.

The 2010 first-round draft choice was defensive end Jason Pierre-Paul, whose 4.5 sacks were the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games.

While serving as the Giants' Director of Player Personnel, Reese oversaw all aspects of the team's college scouting. During his tenure as personnel director, the Giants drafted Eli Manning, Osi Umenyiora, David Diehl, David Tyree, Chris Snee, Gibril Wilson, Justin Tuck, Brandon Jacobs, Mathias Kiwanuka, Corey Webster and Barry Cofield, all of whom played big roles in the championship season and beyond.

Reese originally joined the Giants' scouting department on Dec. 15, 1994. In the spring of 1999, he became Dave Gettleman's assistant in the pro personnel department. In that position, he scouted the Giants' upcoming opponents and evaluated NFL players. Reese was promoted to Director of Player Personnel on May 1, 2002.

Reese came to the Giants after a successful playing and coaching career at the University of Tennessee at Martin. During his college playing career (1981-1984), Reese was honored as a two-time All-Gulf South Conference pick. He is among the leaders on UT-Martin's all-time career list in interceptions. Reese led the team with seven interceptions in 1982 and was UT-Martin's leading tackler in 1984 with 99. Reese was GSC Defensive Player of the Week three times during his career and was named team MVP following his senior season.

Following his playing career, Reese served as a student assistant and as a graduate assistant before becoming a full-time coach of the secondary from 1988 through 1993. He moved to coaching the receivers and assumed the assistant head coach title in January of 1993.

In 2008, Reese was inducted into the Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame.

Reese has his bachelor's degree in health and physical education and earned his master's degree in education administration and supervision. In the fall of 1995, Reese was inducted into the U-T Martin Hall of Fame.

Reese, a native of Tiptonville, Tenn. is married to the former Gwen Moore. They have two children, Jasmyne Danielle and Jerry II.

TOM COUGHLIN
HEAD COACH

Long regarded as one of the NFL's premier head coaches, Tom Coughlin is one of the most successful coaches in the 87-year history of the Giants.

He ascended to the pinnacle of his profession in the 2007 season when he led the Giants to a victory in Super Bowl XLII. The Giants, heavy underdogs entering the game, scored two fourth-quarter touchdowns to defeat the previously-undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14.

The 2011 season will be Coughlin's eighth as the Giants' head coach. Only three other men in the long history of the Giants have been the team's head coach for at least eight years. Hall of Famer Steve Owen coached for 23 seasons (1931-53). Allie Sherman (1961-68) and Bill Parcells (1983-90) each coached the Giants for eight seasons.

Coughlin's 65 regular season victories are the third-highest total among head coaches in Giants history, behind only Owen (153) and Parcells (77). His four postseason victories trail only Parcells, who had eight.

Coughlin's 100th regular season game with the Giants was a 17-3 victory over NFC finalist Chicago on Oct. 3 of last season. He is the fifth coach in franchise history to reach the century mark. With a 57-43 record, Coughlin had the second-highest victory total among Giants coaches at the 100-game mark:

RECORDS THROUGH 100 GAMES WITH GIANTS

Steve Owen	59-34-7
Tom Coughlin	57-43
Bill Parcells	56-43-1
Jim Fassel	56-43-1
Allie Sherman	52-44-4

The Giants finished the 2010 season with a 10-6 record, following marks of 8-8, 12-4, 10-6, 8-8 and 11-5 the previous five seasons. Their six-year streak without a losing record is the Giants' longest since they had 10 in a row from 1954-63. The Giants have won at least 10 games in four of Coughlin's first seven seasons as head coach.

Coughlin is 133-107 (.554), including 65-47 with the Giants. He is 8-7 in postseason games (4-3 with the Giants) for an overall record of 141-114 (.553). His 133 regular season victories place him third among current NFL head coaches, behind New England's Bill Belichick and Washington's Mike Shanahan. Coughlin is the only one of those three coaches to have coached an expansion team. The 133 victories leave him in 21st place on the NFL's all-time regular season list, six behind Tony Dungy. Coughlin's 141 total victories also place him 21st (six behind former Tennessee coach Jeff Fisher). A victory over the Jets on Oct. 7, 2007 was the 100th of Coughlin's career, including postseason games. Coughlin won his 100th regular season game at Detroit on Nov. 18, 2007.

Coughlin is one of just six active coaches to lead a team to a Super Bowl victory. The others are Belichick, Shanahan, Mike Tomlin, Sean Payton and Mike McCarthy. When the Giants won Super Bowl XLII, Coughlin became the 26th different head coach to win a Super Bowl, and the second to win one with the Giants (Parcells won two). At 1-0, Coughlin is one of 19 coaches with an unblemished Super Bowl record. Coughlin was 61 years and 156 days old when the Giants defeated the Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. He is the third-oldest coach to win a Super Bowl. Only Dick Vermeil and Weeb Ewbank were older.

The 2007 championship season, two division titles, four postseason berths, the double-digit victory seasons and the streak of six non-losing seasons are successes in a Giants revival that began when Coughlin was named the 16th head coach in franchise history on Jan. 6, 2004. The Giants won only four games in the season before his arrival. A longtime successful head coach in the NFL and on the collegiate level, Coughlin was the wide receivers coach of the Giants when they won Super Bowl XXV in 1990. When he returned to the team as head coach, Coughlin quickly put the team back on a path that would ultimately lead to another Super Bowl victory.

The Giants improved from four to six to 11 victories and the NFC East title in Coughlin's first two seasons with the team. In 2006, they went 8-8 and earned an NFC Wild Card playoff berth. The following season, the Giants were 10-6 in the regular season and again reached postseason play as a Wild Card, which served as a springboard to the team's Super Bowl victory. In 2008, they were again one of the NFL's very best teams and reached the playoffs for the first time following a Super Bowl appearance. Last season, the Giants were only the sixth double-digit victory team to fall short of postseason play since the NFL's realignment in 2002.

Coughlin has won four division titles and led his teams to the playoffs eight times in his 15 seasons as an NFL head coach. He twice led the Jacksonville Jaguars to the AFC Championship Game prior to leading the Giants to victory in the NFC Championship Game. Coughlin is one of just six coaches to lead teams to a championship game in each conference since the 1970 merger. The others are Parcells and Dan Reeves (both former Giants coaches), as well as Chuck Knox, Jon Gruden and Dungy.

The 2007 Giants set several milestone achievements on their way to the NFL championship. The Giants became the fifth Wild Card team to win the Super Bowl, the second in three years (the Pittsburgh Steelers in Super Bowl XL), and the first from the NFC (the Green Bay Packers joined the list in 2010). They were the second team to win the Super Bowl after winning three postseason games on the road to get there (again joining the 2005 Steelers and again followed three years later by the Packers). The No. 5 Giants were then the lowest-seeded NFC team to win the Super Bowl since the NFL began seeding teams in 1990 (Green Bay was seeded sixth in 2010). Prior to the Giants' victory, a second seed was the previous low NFC team to win a Super Bowl. The Giants were just the third team to win the Super Bowl after starting the season 0-2. The others were the 1993 Dallas Cowboys and the 2001 Patriots.

Perhaps the most impressive characteristic of the 2007 Giants was their ability to win on the road. The Giants won 10 consecutive games as visitors (seven regular season, three postseason), an NFL single-season record. They were the visiting team in the Super Bowl, which was their 11th consecutive triumph away from Giants Stadium. The Giants won their first 2008 road game, at St. Louis, to extend their road winning streak to 11 games, which tied them with three other teams for the second-longest such streak in NFL history. They achieved much of that success with 11 rookies on their 2007 active roster, a record for a Super Bowl winner.

After their 0-2 start in 2007, the Giants won six consecutive games to become just the fifth team in history and the second since 1947 to follow two opening losses with six straight triumphs. The last of those victories was over the Miami Dolphins in London's Wembley Stadium, which made the Giants the first team to win a regular season game outside of North America.

In 2008, Coughlin led the Giants to the NFC East championship with a 12-4 record. Their 12 victories were their highest total since the 2000 NFC champions won 12 games. The division title was the Giants' seventh since the 1970 merger. It was the eighth time in franchise history and the sixth time since the 1970 merger that the Giants finished a season with at least 12 victories. The Giants advanced to postseason play for the fourth consecutive season, the first time they accomplished that feat in their history.

Coughlin also led the Jaguars to four consecutive postseason berths (1996-99) and is one of only three coaches in NFL history to accomplish that feat with two different teams. The others are Marty Schottenheimer (Cleveland, 1985-88 and Kansas City, 1990-95 and Mike Holmgren (Green Bay, 1993-98 and Seattle, 2003-07).

Under Coughlin, the Giants routinely establish franchise statistical milestones. In 2010, they finished in the top 10 in the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. The Giants were fifth on offense with an average of 380.3 yards a game and seventh in defense, allowing an average of 310.8 yards per game. They gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns, which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. Their 331 first downs were the third-highest total in franchise history. The team's 339 pass completions – all by Eli Manning – were the second-most in Giants history and the Giants' 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5).

Defensively, the 2010 Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up the previous season. The Giants finished the season with 46 sacks, their highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-best 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208).

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 in 2008, the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. The Giants set a team record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history.

From Sept. 20 to Oct. 4, 2009, the Giants won consecutive road games in Dallas, Tampa Bay and Kansas City. They are one of just nine teams of the 113 (8.0 percent) that have played at least three consecutive road games since 1990 to win every game. Both the Giants and Coughlin are on the list twice. The Giants swept a three-game trip in 1994, when they traveled to Houston, Washington and Cleveland on successive weeks. Coughlin's 2001 Jacksonville Jaguars also won three road games in three weeks. Of course, Coughlin's 2007 Giants won three straight road playoff games on the way to Super Bowl XLII.

The 2008 Giants established several milestones and records. The Giants had two more victories than they finished with the previous year to become the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the Lombardi Trophy (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season). The Giants were the first defending Super Bowl champion in 10 years – and only the fourth overall – to earn a top seed in the postseason a year after winning the championship game (since seeding began in 1990).

Coughlin has always stressed the importance of limiting turnovers and the Giants set what was then an NFL record (tied by the Miami Dolphins) by coughing up the ball only 13 times in 16 games in 2008 (New England established a new mark with 10 turnovers in 2010). The Giants and Dolphins were the seventh and eighth teams to average less than one turnover a game over a 16-game season. Coughlin has coached two of the teams, the 2002 Jaguars and those Giants.

In addition, the 2008 Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants' run offense finished seventh or better in the league every season from 2005-2008, the first time since 1990-93 that they were in the NFL's top 10 four years in a row. The Giants finished the season with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They scored 448 points in 1963 and had 356 first downs in 1985.

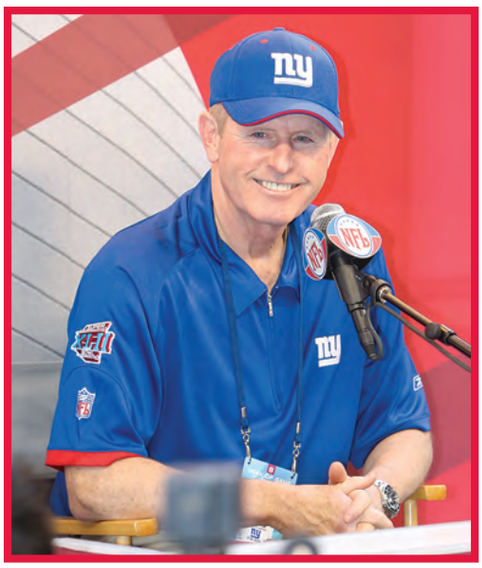
Under Coughlin, the Giants are 49-10 when leading at halftime, 51-5 when leading after the third quarter, 51-24 when they rush for at least 100 yards, 41-10 when holding the opposition to less than 100 yards on the ground and 39-8 when the turnover differential is to their advantage.

Coughlin's Giants squads have averaged 382.3 points per season and had three of the franchise's four 400-point seasons in his first seven years. The Giants averaged 285.6 points a year in the three seasons prior to Coughlin's arrival.

The Giants scored more than 30 points six times in both 2010 and 2009, seven times in 2008 – including four in a row from Nov. 2-23 - and six times in 2007, their highest totals of 30-point games since 1963, when they had 10.

The Giants' offense has been ranked seventh, eighth and fifth in the NFL, respectively, in the last three seasons, the first time they've been in the Top 10 in three consecutive seasons since 1970-72. In 2008, the Giants and Philadelphia Eagles were the only two NFL teams to be ranked in the top nine in both offense and defense. Last season, the Giants, San Diego, Green Bay and New Orleans were the only teams to be ranked that high in both offense and defense.



In 2010, the Giants scored 48 touchdowns, their highest total since the 1985 team scored 48. Hakeem Nicks caught 11 touchdown passes and Mario Manningham added nine as they became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine. In addition, Brandon Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Ahmad Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season.

The Giants scored 46 touchdowns in 2009 when Steve Smith (7), Nicks (6), Manningham (5) and Kevin Boss (5) all had at least five touchdown receptions. It was the first time the Giants have had four different receivers with at least five touchdown catches apiece since 1963, when five players reached that total: Del Shofner (9), Frank Gifford (7), Joe Morison (7), Joe Walton (6) and Phil King (5). The Giants scored 45 touchdowns in both 2005 and 2008. In the first of those seasons, they were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants' 5,787 total yards that season were then the third-most in team history and their offense ranked fourth in the NFL with an average of 361.7 yards a game. It was the team's highest ranking since 1972, when the offense also ranked fourth with an average of 320.2 yards a game

Defensively, the Giants have ranked in the top seven in three of the last four seasons (seventh in 2007, fifth in 2008 and seventh in 2010). When they allowed 292.0 yards a game and were ranked fifth in total defense in 2008, it was their highest ranking since 2000, when they were also fifth. The 292 yards per game were the fewest allowed by the Giants since 2000, when they gave up 284.1.

The Giants have also had several special teams standouts under Coughlin. In 2010, Lawrence Tynes' 43 extra points without a miss were the third-highest single-season total in Giants history. Pat Summerall made all 46 of his PATs in 1961 and Tynes hit 45 in 2009. Tynes has made 115 consecutive extra points since missing one vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007. Long-snapper Zak DeOssie was selected to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons.

In 2009, Tynes was fifth in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points, the fourth-highest total by a kicker in Giants history. The previous season, three Giants special teams players played in the Pro Bowl – punter Jeff Feagles, kicker John Carney and DeOssie. Feagles, who was 42 in 2008, finished the season with a gross average of 44.0 yards and a net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. The net average was a career high. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and is just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. He averaged 44.0 yards the following year. Carney scored a career-high 143 points, the second-highest figure in Giants history and just five less than Jay Feely's record of 148 in 2005. Carney kicked 35 field goals in 38 attempts, a .921 percentage that was the best in Giants history. Two of his three misses were blocked.

The year before Coughlin arrived, the Giants averaged only 19.9 yards a kickoff return. In 2004, they led the NFL in kickoff return yardage for the first time since 1953 with an average return of 25.1 yards. In 2005, their average kickoff return dropped by less than a yard, to 24.3 yards, which was good for fourth in the NFL. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards the entire 2008 season, when opposing teams averaged 5.8 yards on punt returns, the third-best figure in the NFL.

Many Giants players have enjoyed outstanding seasons in the Coughlin era. In 2010, Manning set franchise single-season records with 339 completions and a 62.9 completion percentage. His 31 touchdown passes were the third-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962. Manning threw for 4,002 yards after passing for 4,021 in 2009 to become the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons.

Manning, who threw two fourth-quarter touchdown passes in Super Bowl XLII, is the first Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in six consecutive seasons and the first to throw at least 20 touchdown passes six years in a row. Manning's 103 consecutive regular season starts was the second-longest active streak among NFL quarterbacks at the end of the 2010 season.

In 2009, Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 receptions and was the first Giants wide receiver to play in the Pro Bowl since Homer Jones in 1968 (not including David Tyree's selection as a special teams player in 2005). Last season, Bradshaw rushed for 1,235 yards, the seventh-highest total in Giants history. Guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, safety Antrel Rolle and DeOssie all played in the Pro Bowl. Center Shaun O'Hara was selected for the third time, but was unable to play because of injury. In 2009, Snee, O'Hara and David Diehl all played in the Pro Bowl, the first time the Giants had three players from the same position group selected to the game since 1962. The previous year, seven Giants played in the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to the game.

With Jacobs (1,089 yards) and Derrick Ward (1,025), the 2008 Giants were just the fourth team in history with two running backs rushing for at least 1,000 yards apiece in the same season. Jacobs was the fourth running back in Giants history to run for at least 1,000 yards in at least two consecutive seasons. He ran for 15 touchdowns in 2008 and was just the second player in Giants history to run for that many scores in a single season.

Prior to joining the Giants, Coughlin coached the Jacksonville Jaguars, taking charge of the expansion franchise more than 18 months prior to its first game and guiding the team for its first eight seasons. Under Coughlin, the Jaguars were the most successful expansion team in NFL history. Coughlin compiled a 68-60 regular season record (.531), plus a 4-4 mark in the playoffs, and twice took Jacksonville to the AFC Championship Game. The Jaguars made the playoffs every year from 1996-99, the only expansion team in history to earn four postseason berths in its first five seasons.

Under Coughlin, the Jaguars compiled several impressive statistical records. Jacksonville was 55-12 in games in which it owned a lead entering the fourth period. The Jaguars were 40-28 in games against division opponents, 21-3 in games in which they scored a touchdown on their initial offensive possession and 51-30 in games in which they rushed for at least 100 yards.

Coughlin was out of football in 2003 but has been in the coaching profession for more than 40 years. He has always emphasized ball security and his teams have often been among the best in the NFL at taking care of the football. His career turnover differential is plus-40 in the regular season and plus-two in the postseason. Only eight teams in history have had fewer turnovers than games played. Coughlin was the head coach of two of them – the 2002 Jaguars and 2008 Giants – and an assistant on another (the 1990 Giants).

The Jaguars' turnover differential during Coughlin's eight-year tenure was plus-34. In seven seasons under Coughlin, the Giants are plus-six, including an NFC-best plus-nine in 2008, when the Giants lost only three fumbles all year.

Coughlin was named the first head coach of the expansion Jaguars on Feb. 21, 1994, 559 days before the franchise played its first regular season game. In 1995, Jacksonville won four games, more than any previous expansion team in NFL history. The following year, Coughlin was named NFL Coach of the Year by United Press International as the Jaguars made the playoffs in just their second season and advanced all the way to the AFC Championship Game, where they lost to the New England Patriots.

That began a streak of four consecutive playoff seasons for the Jaguars. In both 1997 and '98 Jacksonville won 11 games, winning their first division title in 1998. The following season, the Jaguars had an NFL-best record of 14-2 and again advanced to the conference title game.

Coughlin earned a reputation as one of the NFL's finest offensive coaches. During his tenure, the Jaguars led the NFL in both passing yards (4,367 in 1996) and rushing yards (2,091 in 1999). In addition to having the most rushing yards in the NFL in 1999, Jacksonville boasted the league's leading receiver in Jimmy Smith (116 receptions). The only other team in history to accomplish that double was the 1954 San Francisco 49ers.

Coughlin arrived in Jacksonville following three years as the head coach at Boston College, where he turned a struggling program into a Top 20 team. He was 21-13-1 in three seasons (1991-93) with the Eagles, including 9-3 in 1993, when Boston College won eight consecutive games, defeated top-ranked Notre Dame, 41-39, and beat Virginia in the Carquest Bowl. Coughlin's last Boston College team was ranked 12th in the USA Today/CNN Coaches Poll and 13th by the Associated Press, despite starting the season 0-2. The Eagles were 8-2-1 in 1992 and 4-7 in his first season in 1991.

Coughlin, Tony Sparano of the Miami Dolphins, Pete Carroll of the Seattle Seahawks, Chan Gailey of the Buffalo Bills and Jim Harbaugh of the San Francisco 49ers are the only current NFL head coaches with experience as college head coaches.

Coughlin was the Giants wide receivers coach under Parcells from 1988-90. Under his tutelage, receivers such as Mark Ingram, Lionel Manuel, Odessa Turner and Stephen Baker all improved and helped the Giants win their second Super Bowl.

Coughlin began his coaching career in 1969 as a graduate assistant at Syracuse, his alma mater. He was the head coach at the Rochester Institute of Technology from 1970-73, compiling a record of 16-15-2. Coughlin returned to Syracuse in 1974, first serving as quarterbacks and offensive backfield coach for three seasons before being promoted to offensive coordinator for four years. He directed an offense that led the Orangemen to victory in the 1979 Independence Bowl, their first postseason triumph in 13 years.

In 1981, Coughlin went to Boston College for the first time, as quarterbacks coach under Jack Bicknell. He helped the Eagles win their first bowl game and coached Doug Flutie, who would win the Heisman Trophy in 1984, one season after Coughlin's departure. In 1983, Boston College won the Lambert-Meadowlands Trophy as Eastern Champion, its first in 42 years.

Coughlin entered the NFL as the Philadelphia Eagles' wide receivers coach in 1984 and '85. He held the same position with the Green Bay Packers in 1986 and '87 before moving to the Giants for a three-year stint.

Coughlin was a standout scholastic star at Waterloo (N.Y.) Central High School, where the football stadium now bears his name. He was a three-year letterman at Syracuse for legendary coach Ben Schwartzwalder from 1965-67. A wingback, Coughlin played in a backfield with All-America backs and Pro Football Hall of Famers Larry Csonka and Floyd Little. As a senior in 1967, Coughlin broke Syracuse's single-season pass receiving record. That year, he won Syracuse's Orange Key Award as the university's outstanding scholar-athlete. He graduated in 1968 with a bachelor's degree in education and received a master's degree in education the following year.

Thomas Richard Coughlin was born on Aug. 31, 1946 in Waterloo. He is the oldest of seven children. Coughlin and his wife Judy have two daughters, Keli and Kate; two sons-in-law named Chris; two sons, Brian and Tim; two daughters-in-law, Andrea (Tim's wife) and Susie (Brian's wife); and 10 grandchildren: Emma Rose, Dylan, Shea, Cooper, Caroline, Marin, Wesley, Brennon, Clara and Walker.

THE TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION

The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation was created in honor of Jay McGillis. Jay was a very special young man who was a member of Coughlin's team at Boston College and developed leukemia. The courage, compassion and faith he demonstrated during the course of his illness were an inspiration to many people.

The mission of the Tom Coughlin Jay Fund Foundation is to assist children with leukemia and other cancers and their families by providing emotional and financial support to help reduce the stress associated with treatment and improve their quality of life.

TOM COUGHLIN JAY FUND FOUNDATION
GRANT DISTRIBUTION GUIDELINES:

1. Support is provided in the following ways:
   a. Providing direct financial assistance for household expenses and illness related expenses that families incur during the course of treatment for childhood cancer.
   b. Providing opportunities to improve the quality of life and long term outlook of these patients and their families through support of special projects and programming
   c. Providing assistance with funding for umbilical cord blood transplants

2. The target population is children and young adults, ages 0-22 years old, which are currently undergoing treatment.

3. The Tom Coughlin Jay Fund's financial assistance is provided on a temporary basis for families who find themselves in financial trouble as a result of their child's cancer. All financial assistance is determined on a case-by-case basis based on the needs of the child and family.

John and Pat McGillis with Judy and Tom Coughlin

4. The child must be a permanent resident of one of the following:
   a. North Florida – Alachua, Baker, Bradford, Clay, Columbia, Duval, Flagler, Nassau, Putnam St. Johns, or Union Counties
   b. South Georgia – Camden, Charlton, Clinch, Glynn or Ware Counties
   c. The five boroughs of New York City (Bronx, Brooklyn, Manhattan, Queens & Staten Island)
   d. New Jersey - Bergen, Essex, Hudson, Passiac, or Union Counties

Since its inception in Jacksonville in 1996, the Jay Fund Foundation has donated more than $3 million in support to help children and their families. Upon joining the Giants organization in 2004, Coughlin expanded the Jay Fund to the New York/New Jersey metropolitan area. The foundation hosts several annual fundraising events, including a Wine Tasting Gala and Celebrity Golf Classic Tournament in Jacksonville and Champions for Children Gala in Manhattan. Coach Coughlin and the Jay Fund also regularly host special parties and events for pediatric oncology patients and other ill children in partnership with other non-profit organizations.

KEVIN GILBRIDE
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Kevin Gilbride is in his fifth full season as the Giants' offensive coordinator after serving the previous three years as the team's quarterbacks coach. Gilbride assumed play-calling duties from former coordinator John Hufnagel prior to the 2006 regular season finale in Washington.

The 2011 season is Gilbride's 37th in coaching and 22nd in the National Football League.

With Gilbride devising game plans and calling plays, the Giants' offense has consistently been among the most productive in the NFL. The unit was ranked seventh, eighth and fifth in the league, respectively, in the last three seasons, the first time it placed in the Top 10 in three consecutive seasons since 1970 (fifth), 1971 (10th) and 1972 (fourth).

In 2010, the Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The previous record was 5,884 yards in 1985. The Giants scored 48 touchdowns – every one of them by the offense - which was tied for the third-highest total in team history. They scored 57 touchdowns in 1963, 49 in 1962 and '67 and 48 in 1985.

The Giants' 331 first downs were the third-highest total in franchise history and they led the league by averaging 6.57 yards on first down. Their 339 pass completions – all by Eli Manning – were the second-most the Giants have ever had, behind only the 350 completions in 1999. The team's 62.9 completion percentage was a team record, besting the 62.4 percentage set in 2009. The Giants' 3,885 net passing yards were the third-highest total in team history.

The Giants had 80 scrimmage plays of 20 or more yards (58 passes, 22 runs), tying them with the Philadelphia Eagles for the highest total in the NFL. Their 14 touchdown passes of 20-plus yards led the league.

Gilbride's unit was also productive on the ground, where the Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). The only other team to have two 800-yard rushers was Kansas City, with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones.

In 2009, the Giants scored 402 points after scoring 425 in 2008, marking the first time in franchise history they scored at least 400 points in consecutive seasons. The Giants gained 5,856 yards, then the second-highest total in franchise history. In addition, they set a franchise record with 4,019 net passing yards, the first 4,000-yard season in team history. The old record of 3,951 was set in 2002. The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards, which left them tied for fifth in the NFL.

Under Gilbride, the offense posted many impressive numbers in 2008, when it ranked seventh in the NFL with an average of 355.9 yards a game. The Giants' 427 points and 338 first downs were both the second-highest totals in franchise history. They rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. The Giants rushed for 301 yards in an overtime victory over Carolina on Dec. 21, the fifth-highest total in team history and their highest total in 49 years.

That season, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward ran for 1,025 to become the fourth pair of running backs from the same team – and the fifth set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.

Gilbride has worked closely with Manning throughout the quarterback's career. Manning finished the 2010 season with 339 completions on 539 attempts (62.9 percent) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were both franchise single-season records. Manning's 539 passes were the second-highest total of his career and the fourth-highest total in Giants history. His 31 touchdown passes placed him fourth in the NFL, were the third-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962. Manning's 4,002 yards were the fifth-highest total in the NFL. He was one of a record 22 quarterbacks to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 2010. Manning is the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons.

Manning is the only quarterback in Giants history with six consecutive 3,000-yard seasons and six consecutive seasons with 20 touchdown passes. Manning is one of three quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards every season from 2005-10. The others are Peyton Manning and Drew Brees. He is one of three quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in each of the last six seasons, joining Brees and Peyton Manning.

Gilbride designed the attack and called the plays when the Giants won four games, including Super Bowl XLII, in the 2007 postseason.

Gilbride joined the Giants as the team's quarterbacks coach on Jan. 26, 2004. He was reunited with Tom Coughlin, for whom he worked as the Jacksonville Jaguars' first offensive coordinator in 1995 and 96. Gilbride has also coordinated offenses for the Houston Oilers, Pittsburgh Steelers and Buffalo Bills.

As quarterbacks coach, Gilbride was at the forefront of the development of Manning, the No. 1 selection in the 2004 NFL Draft. In 2005, under Gilbride's guidance, Manning led the Giants to the NFC East title while throwing 557 passes, the third-highest total in the league and the second-highest total in team history. Manning's 294 completions tied for ninth in the NFL and was then fourth on the Giants' single-season list. His 3,762 yards were fifth in the NFL. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant since Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

In 2006, Gilbride's last season as quarterbacks coach, Manning completed 301 passes to become just the second quarterback in franchise history to top 300 completions in a season. Manning threw 24 touchdown passes, matching his 2005 total and leaving him tied for fourth in the NFL. Manning became the first Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Phil Simms did it three years in a row from 1984-86.

Manning's development under Gilbride became evident in the latter part of the quarterback's rookie season. In the final three games of the year, Manning completed 53 of 87 passes (61 percent) for 527 yards, five touchdowns and three interceptions. In the season-ending victory over Dallas, Manning threw three touchdown passes and led a 66-yard drive in the final two minutes for the winning score.

Prior to joining the Giants, Gilbride spent two years as the Bills' offensive coordinator. In his first season in Buffalo, the Bills set seven offensive team records, including most net passing yards (3,995). Quarterback Drew Bledsoe set 10 team records. That year, Buffalo had the fifth-best passing offense in the NFL and was 11th overall while averaging 23.7 points, 22.2 first downs, and 349.4 yards per game. That offense featured the franchise's first 4,000-yard passer in Bledsoe, two 1,200-yard receivers (Eric Moulds and Peerless Price) and a 1,400-yard rusher (Travis Henry).

Gilbride entered the NFL as the quarterbacks coach of the Oilers in 1989. He was promoted to offensive coordinator from 1990-93 and then to assistant head coach/offense in 1994. Houston ranked first in the NFL in passing yards every season from 1990-93. The Oilers also topped the league in total offense in 1990 and were second in 1991, third in 1992 and second in 1993.

Gilbride's first stint with Coughlin began in 1995, when Gilbride took over as the offensive coordinator of the expansion Jacksonville Jaguars. The following year, the Jaguars led the NFL with 259.7 passing yards per game and were second in total offense with 360.2 yards per contest, a performance that helped Jacksonville advance to the AFC Championship Game in just its second year of existence.

After two years in Jacksonville, Gilbride was named the 10th head coach in San Diego Chargers history on Jan. 19, 1997 and posted a 6-16 record over the course of the 1997-98 seasons. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as offensive coordinator with the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2001, Gilbride was an analyst with ESPN.

Prior to joining the NFL, Gilbride spent two seasons (1985-86) in the Canadian Football League as an assistant with the Ottawa Rough Riders.

Gilbride began his career as the linebackers coach at Idaho State in 1974-75. He held the same position at Tufts University in 1976-77. Gilbride was the defensive coordinator at American International and the head coach at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State University, from 1980-84. He compiled a 35-14-2 record, a .706 winning percentage that is the best in school history.

Gilbride was born in New Haven, Conn., and earned a degree in physical education from Southern Connecticut State, where he also played quarterback and tight end. He received his master's in athletic administration from Idaho State. He and his wife, Deborah, have three children - daughters Kelly and Kristen and son, Kevin. Kelly is a 1998 graduate of Harvard University, Kristen graduated from the University of Connecticut in 1999 and Kevin graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 and is currently the Giants' offensive quality control coach.

PERRY FEWELL
DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Tom Coughlin reached into his past for a coach on Jan. 14, 2010, when he hired as the Giants' defensive coordinator Perry Fewell, who once spent five seasons as Coughlin's secondary coach in Jacksonville. Fewell's first year with the Giants was marked by significant improvement in many statistical categories.

The Giants allowed 347 points, 80 fewer than they gave up in 2009. Their opponents averaged 310.8 total yards per game, a 14-yard reduction that enabled the Giants to move from a tie for 13th to seventh in the NFL's defensive rankings. The Giants improved from 17th to eighth in run defense (110.8 to 101.3) and 15th to ninth against the pass (214.1 to 209.5).

With Fewell's defense leading the way, the Giants were first in the NFL with 39 takeaways. The Giants held their opponents to an NFL-low 31.7 success rate on third down conversion attempts (66 of 208). They allowed 263 first downs, the second-lowest total in the league (San Diego, 247). The Giants held their opponents to fewer than 100 rushing yards in nine of 16 games. They were 9-0 in those games. The Giants' 46 sacks was the team's highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the NFL with 53.

Fewell is a 26-year coaching veteran who is in his 14th season as an NFL coach.

Prior to joining the Giants, Fewell spent four seasons as the Buffalo Bills' defensive coordinator and was the team's interim head coach for the final seven games of the 2009 season. The Bills were 3-4 under his direction. Fewell was brought to Buffalo by Dick Jauron, who was Coughlin's defensive coordinator in Jacksonville for four seasons. Fewell and Jauron spent the 1998 season together with the Jaguars.

Buffalo's defense under Fewell allowed only 14 touchdown passes in each of his last two seasons with the team. In 2009, that tied for the second-best total in the NFL and was eight below the league average. The Bills were tied for fifth in the NFL with 33 takeaways. Their 28 interceptions were exceeded only by Green Bay's 30. Buffalo's turnover differential improved from minus-eight in 2008 to plus-three in 2009. Bills rookie safety Jairus Byrd tied for the NFL lead with nine interceptions in only 14 games. The nine interceptions were five more than any other rookie had. Byrd was placed on injured reserve with a groin injury and missed the final two games but became the first Bills rookie to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Greg Bell in 1984.

In 2008, the Bills were fourth in the NFL in red zone defense, allowing a touchdown on only 41.8 percent of the opposition possessions inside the 20-yard line (23 of 55). They were second in the AFC in negative yardage plays and held their opponents to less than 100 rushing yards seven times.

Fewell coached Chicago defensive backs in 2005, when the Bears led the NFC with 24 interceptions and cornerback Nathan Vasher and safety Mike Brown were selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2003 and 2004, Fewell was the secondary coach of the St. Louis Rams.

Fewell entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach for Coughlin and the Jaguars in 1998, a position he held through the 2002 season. Jacksonville's pass defense ranked third in the NFL in 1999 and two years later the Jaguars gave up only 13 touchdown passes.

"We brought Perry into the league in Jacksonville," said Coughlin, "and I was impressed with his thoroughness, his ability to work with the players and his absolute intent on learning all he could about his profession. He was hired as the secondary coach and he has had great experiences in St. Louis and Chicago with Lovie Smith and that system and in Buffalo with Dick Jauron, who was my original defensive coordinator in Jacksonville."

Fewell was a collegiate coach for 13 years prior to entering the NFL. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina in 1985 and '86. Fewell was the defensive backs coach at Army in 1987. The following year, he began a four-year stint as the wide receivers coach at Kent State. In 1992, he returned to West Point, where he spent three seasons as the defensive line coach. Fewell's final college job was at Vanderbilt, where he coached the secondary from 1995-97 and was also assistant head coach in his final season there.

Fewell was born in Gastonia, N.C. He was on the football and track teams at South Point High School in Belmont, N.C. and was inducted into the Belmont Sports Hall of Fame in 2001. Fewell lettered as a defensive back for four years at Lenoir-Rhyne College and was named the team's most improved player in 1983. He graduated with a degree in business administration in 1985.

Fewell and his wife, Kathleen, have two sons.

TOM QUINN
SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

Tom Quinn is in his sixth season with the Giants and his fifth as the team's special teams coordinator. His first year with the team was spent as an assistant to Mike Sweatman, who retired following the 2006 season. Head coach Tom Coughlin quickly named Quinn to replace Sweatman.

Quinn's special teams underwent significant change in 2010, when Jeff Feagles, the most prolific punter in NFL history, retired and was replaced by rookie Matt Dodge and Domenik Hixon, the Giants' leading kickoff and punt returner, missed the entire season with a knee injury suffered in a minicamp practice.

Dodge finished ninth in the NFL with a 44.8-yard gross average on 72 punts. Zak DeOssie, the snapper on both punts and placekicks, was selected to his second Pro Bowl in three seasons. The Giants' kickoff coverage unit was ranked fourth in the NFL, allowing an average return of only 19.7 yards. A stalwart again on the coverage teams was Chase Blackburn, who missed three games because of injuries, but still led the Giants in special teams tackles for the sixth season in a row with 17 (13 solo). Dave Tollefson and Deon Grant tied for second with 13 (each had nine solo tackles).

Kicker Lawrence Tynes again gave the Giants consistent production. He led the Giants with 100 points, his second 100-point season in a row and third in his four years with the Giants. Tynes succeeded on 19 of 23 field goal attempts and all 43 of his extra point tries.

Tynes' 43 extra points without a miss were the third-highest single-season total in Giants history. Pat Summerall made all 46 of his PATs in 1961 and Tynes hit 45 in 2009. Tynes has made 115 consecutive extra points since missing one vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007. The team record of 133 in a row was set by Pete Gogolak from 1967-72.

The 100 points increased Tynes' Giants total to 341, which places him seventh on the franchise's career list, one ahead of Raul Allegre and just seven points behind Amani Toomer.

Tynes' 53-yard field goal at Dallas on Oct. 25 tied his career long, set on Oct. 22, 2006, when he played for Kansas City against San Diego.

The Giants benefitted from outstanding play by Quinn's special teams in 2009. Tynes led the Giants and was fifth in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points, the fourth-highest total by a kicker in team history. With Hixon doing the bulk of the work, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with a 10.9-yard punt return average. Hixon also set Giants single-season records with 57 kickoff returns for 1,291 yards. On Oct. 18 at New Orleans, Hixon had 303 total yards, shattering Joe Scott's 61-year-old franchise record by 24 yards. The total included 230 kickoff return and 51 punt return yards. Opposing teams averaged only 21.0 yards per kickoff return, the NFL's eighth-best figure.

In 2008, three of the Giants' special teams players – kicker John Carney, Feagles and DeOssie – played for the NFC Pro Bowl team. Blackburn was named a Pro Bowl alternate as a cover specialist.

Carney was signed just prior to the season because Tynes was sidelined with an injury. Quinn quickly integrated Carney into the kicking unit and the veteran had the best season a Giants kicker has ever had, succeeding on 35 of 38 field goals attempts for a franchise-record .921 percentage. Carney's 35 field goals tied the team single-season record, which he shares with Ali Haji-Sheikh (1983) and Jay Feely (2005).

That season, Feagles had a gross average of 44.0 yards and a career-high net average of 40.2 yards on 64 punts. His previous best net average was 38.2 yards in 1995, his first Pro Bowl season. Feagles' gross average tied for the second-highest of his career and was just three-tenths of a yard less than the career best of 44.3 yards he set with Arizona in 1997. Feagles holds the NFL records for punts (1,713), punting yards (71,211) and punts downed inside the 20-yard line (554).

In addition to the Pro Bowlers' exploits, Quinn's coverage teams played extremely well that season. The Giants' special teams were ranked fourth in the NFL according to a comprehensive survey by the Dallas Morning News. The Giants allowed only 140 punt return yards all season and were ranked third in the NFL in punt coverage, giving up an average of only 5.85 yards a return. The team's field goal percentage of 92.3 was ranked third. The Giants blocked three field goals and opposing teams converted 73 percent of their attempts, the fourth-lowest figure in the NFL. The 40.2-yard net punting average was a Giants record and placed them fourth in the league. Their opponents averaged 5.8 yards a return, the NFL's third-best figure. Hixon averaged a team-record 60.0 yards on three kickoff returns at Arizona.

The special teams overcame adversity and performed well in the Giants' 2007 championship season. Long-snapper Ryan Kuehl suffered a season-ending injury in training camp, and the Giants used rookie snappers Jay Alford (on placekicks) and DeOssie (for punts) the entire year. Tynes made 23 of 27 field goal attempts (85.2 percent), the same numbers posted the previous season by Feely. Tynes also made the biggest kick of the postseason, a game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay.

Quinn employed three kickoff returners – Ahmad Bradshaw, Reuben Droughns and Hixon – and the Giants finished seventh in the NFL with a 23.9-yard average. The coverage teams were also strong; Giants opponents averaged only 6.2 yards on 28 punt returns.

Quinn, 43, coached in the collegiate ranks for 15 years. Before joining the Giants, he spent four years on the coaching staff at Stanford University. Quinn coached the special teams in each of those seasons, plus the tight ends in 2002 and 2003, and the outside linebackers in 2004 and 2005.

Quinn began his career coaching linebackers at Davidson in 1991. From 1992-94, he was the special teams coach and recruiting coordinator at James Madison. In 1995, he was the defensive coordinator at Boston University and from 1996-98 Quinn was the defensive coordinator at Holy Cross.

Quinn moved back to the West Coast in 1999 at San Jose State, where in three years he worked with the linebackers, tight ends and with the special teams. He joined the staff at Stanford in 2002.

Quinn grew up in Southern California, where he played at Foothill High School. From 1986-90, Quinn was a linebacker at the University of Arizona, where he played on three bowl teams. He earned a bachelor's degree in interdisciplinary studies in 1990 and a master's in education the following year.

Quinn and his wife, Alison, have a son, Shane, and two daughters, Logan and Riley.

JACK BICKNELL, JR.

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

Jack Bicknell, Jr. is in his third season as the Giants' assistant offensive line coach. He works with Pat Flaherty in leading the continued development of the offensive line.

In 2010, the Giants' line played at a high level and helped the Giants finish with the NFL's fifth-ranked offense despite a series of injuries that forced the team to start six different offensive line combinations. The Giants started three left tackles (David Diehl, Shawn Andrews and Will Beatty), three left guards (Rich Seubert, Diehl and Kevin Boothe) and three centers (Shaun O'Hara, Adam Koets and Seubert).

Right guard Chris Snee and O'Hara were each selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team for the third consecutive year.

In Bicknell's first season with the Giants, three members of the line played in the Pro Bowl – O'Hara, Snee and Diehl. It was the first time since 1962 that three Giants from the same position group were selected to the Pro Bowl together. In addition, Beatty started four games and showed off the skill that prompted the Giants to select him in the second round of the draft.

Bicknell joined the Giants after two seasons as the assistant head coach/offensive line coach at Boston College. In 2008, the line coached by Bicknell helped Boston College finish fifth in the ACC in both scoring (24.7 points a game) and in rushing (143.3 yards per game) and third in sacks allowed (21 in 14 games).

In 2007, Bicknell helped mold a young offensive line that protected ACC Player of the Year Matt Ryan – now the Atlanta Falcons' quarterback - and helped the Eagles generate nearly 6,000 yards of total offense. The Eagles allowed only 22 sacks in 14 games. Bicknell helped develop Gosder Cherilus, whom the Detroit Lions selected with the 17th overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft. BC finished the season ranked 10th in the nation, the team's best final poll finish since 1984, when Bicknell was the Eagles' center.

Prior to his two-year stay at BC, Bicknell spent eight seasons as the head coach at Louisiana Tech, where his 43 victories are the third-most in school history.

During Bicknell's stint, Louisiana Tech routinely played one of the nation's toughest schedules. The Bulldogs faced Florida State, Penn State, Miami, Tennessee, Nebraska, Texas A&M, Clemson and Auburn. Under his leadership, Tech defeated national powers Alabama, Michigan State and Oklahoma State and 22 of his players were either drafted by NFL teams or signed free agent contracts with them.

Bicknell, who was one of the youngest Division I-A head coaches when he started, led the 1999 Bulldogs to an 8-3 record, the school's first AP Top 25 ranking and a 29-28 upset win over eventual SEC champion Alabama. In 2001, Louisiana Tech won the Western Athletic Conference championship during its first year of membership, earning Bicknell conference Coach of the Year honors. Louisiana Tech went on to play Clemson in the Crucial.com Humanitarian Bowl, the program's first postseason appearance since 1990.

Bicknell began his coaching career at Boston College in 1985 as a graduate assistant. In 1987, he went to the University of New Hampshire as the defensive line coach and took over the offensive line in 1993. During his time at UNH, the Wildcats won the Yankee Conference in 1991 and 1994 and were the New England Division champions in 1996. He was the offensive line coach at Louisiana Tech in 1997-98 before becoming the head coach. After leaving Louisiana Tech in 2007, Bicknell accepted the offensive line job at Texas Tech, but later opted to return to his alma mater.

Bicknell's father, Jack, served as the head coach of the Barcelona Dragons of NFL Europe and was the head coach at BC from 1981-90, finishing with a record of 59-55-1.

Bicknell played at Boston College from 1981-85, which coincided with Tom Coughlin's tenure there as an assistant coach (1981-83). He played in the Cotton and Tangerine Bowls and in 1984 started one of the most famous plays in college football history when he snapped the ball to Doug Flutie, who threw the Hail Mary pass to Gerard Phelan that defeated Miami in the Orange Bowl. As a senior at BC, he received the Scanlon Award, the highest honor bestowed upon a BC football player, the Scarminach Award for athletic and academic excellence and the Dean's Award in the school of education. Bicknell received both his bachelor's (1985) and master's (1987) degrees from Boston College. He and his wife Helen have three children: John, Katelyn and Alyse.

PAT FLAHERTY

OFFENSIVE LINE

Pat Flaherty, who has more than 30 years of coaching experience, is in his 12th season as an NFL coach and eighth as the Giants' offensive line coach.

The Giants have consistently had one of the NFL's best and most dependable offensive lines during Flaherty's tenure. The team's offense has been ranked among the top eight in the NFL in each of the last three years and the Giants have had at least two linemen selected to the Pro Bowl in each of those seasons. Five players - center Shaun O'Hara, guards Chris Snee and Rich Seubert, and tackles David Diehl and Kareem McKenzie – have been mainstays on the line the last four seasons. The group started 38 consecutive regular season games from 2007-09, then the largest such streak by five linemen since the 1970 NFL merger.

In 2010, Snee and O'Hara were each selected to the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive year (O'Hara was unable to play in the game because of injury). O'Hara and Snee are the first Giants offensive linemen selected to three Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, '91 and '93 and the first chosen in three consecutive years since Hall of Famer tackle Rosie Brown was selected to six in a row from 1955-60.

With the line playing at a high level, the Giants were fifth in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. They gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history. The Giants were one of only two teams with a pair of backs who rushed for more than 800 yards apiece in Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235 yards) and Brandon Jacobs (823). And the Giants tied the Indianapolis Colts by allowing an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010. That was easily the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record five consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in seven games overall.

The line registered these accomplishments despite a spate of injuries that forced Flaherty to start six different offensive line combinations. The Giants started three left tackles (Diehl, Shawn Andrews and Will Beatty), three left guards (Seubert, Diehl and Kevin Boothe) and three centers (O'Hara, Adam Koets and Seubert).

Snee, the right guard, and right tackle Kareem McKenzie started all 16 games at the same position. Seubert also started 16 games – nine at left guard and seven at center, though he suffered a knee injury in the season finale at Washington that forced Boothe to play center.

In 2009, O'Hara, Snee and Diehl all played in the Pro Bowl, the first time the Giants had three players from the same position group play in the game since 1962.

The previous year, Snee and O'Hara were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Snee, who was a starter, was the first Giants guard to play in the Pro Bowl since Stone in 2001 and O'Hara the first Giants center to go to the game since Bart Oates in 1993. In addition, Diehl was selected as a third alternate.

With the line leading the way, the Giants that season rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. It was the first time since 1993 that the Giants led the NFL in rushing.

In 2007, the line was a important factor as the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yardage with 134.3 yards a game. The Giants were also fourth in the league with a 4.6-yards-per-carry average. In 2006, the Giants were seventh in the NFL with an average of 134.8 rushing yards a game and sixth with an average of 4.7 yards per carry. The Giants' 138.1-yard rushing average in 2005 placed them sixth in the league. In 2004, the Giants averaged 119.0 yards a game and 4.5 yards a carry, which were far superior to the 97.4 and 4.0 averages the Giants posted in 2003, the year before Tom Coughlin and Flaherty arrived.

The Giants had a 1,000-yard rusher in six of the first seven seasons in which Flaherty coached the line. In 2008, Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became just the fourth set of running back teammates in NFL history with more than 1,000 rushing yards in the same season. In 2007, Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards, despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Tiki Barber made the only three Pro Bowls of his career while rushing for 1,518, 1,860 and 1,662 yards in the three years he ran behind a Flaherty-coached line.

Prior to joining the Giants, Flaherty was the Chicago Bears' tight ends coach for three seasons. Under Flaherty, the group was instrumental in helping Anthony Thomas twice rush for more than 1,000 yards, including 1,024 yards in 2003. In addition, Chicago's tight ends played a bigger role in the team's passing attack under Flaherty. In 2003, Desmond Clark caught 44 passes, the third-highest total on the Bears.

In 2000, Flaherty coached the Washington Redskins' tight ends and helped Stephen Alexander earn an invitation to the Pro Bowl. Alexander was third on the Redskins that season with 47 catches.

Flaherty began his coaching career at his alma mater, DeLone Catholic High School in McSherrytown, Penn., from 1978-80.

Flaherty coached in the collegiate ranks from 1980-99. He began with a two-year stint coaching the offensive line at East Stroudsburg University, his alma mater. Flaherty joined the staff at Penn State in 1982, a season in which the Nittany Lions defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl to win the national championship. After two seasons at Penn State, Flaherty moved to Rutgers, where he coached the offensive line for eight years.

Flaherty spent the 1992 season coaching the defensive line at East Carolina. From 1993-98 he was on the staff at Wake Forest, where he coached the offensive line, tight ends and special teams. In 1999, he coached tight ends and special teams and was in charge of recruiting at the University of Iowa.

Flaherty was an All-America center at East Stroudsburg. He was inducted into the school's Hall of Fame in October 2004. He and his wife, Lynne, have two children, Shawn and Colleen.

KEVIN GILBRIDE, JR.

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Kevin Gilbride is in his second season on the Giants' coaching staff and first with the title of Offensive Assistant. Last year, he was the team's offensive quality control coach. Gilbride succeeded Sean Ryan, who is now the team's wide receivers coach.

Gilbride is the son of Giants offensive coordinator Kevin Gilbride. Prior to joining the Giants, he spent three seasons as the wide receivers coach at Temple University. In 2009, Gilbride was a member of the Temple coaching staff that led the Owls to a 9-4 record - their first winning record since 1990 - and their first bowl game since 1979, the EagleBank Bowl in Washington. The previous season, Gilbride coached Bruce Francis, who earned the Owls' offensive most valuable player award. Francis, who was an All-MAC selection, became Temple's Division I-A career leader in receiving touchdowns (23). The Owls' leading receiver with 687 yards on 45 catches for a Division I-A school record 13 touchdowns, Francis finished his collegiate career with a reception in a school record 38 consecutive games.

Before his stint at Temple, Gilbride coached the slot receivers and tight ends at Georgetown in 2006. He also headed the kickoff coverage unit and assisted on punt, kickoff return and punt block. He recruited in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Florida and Delaware for the Hoyas.

Gilbride was an offensive graduate assistant coach at Syracuse for two seasons (2004-05), working closely with the tight ends in 2005. The Orange captured a share of the Big East title in 2004 and earned a berth in the Champs Sports Bowl. Gilbride first joined the SU staff as a graduate assistant for video in 2003 before then head coach Paul Pasqualoni moved him into a coaching role.

Gilbride, 31, graduated from the University of Hawaii in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in speech communications. He was a backup quarterback and played on special teams for the Warriors in 2000 after sitting out the 1999 season following his transfer from Brigham Young. He also earned four letters as a baseball player at Hawaii, playing outfield, first base and designated hitter. As a senior, he batted .308, had a .413 on base percentage and did not commit an error.

PETER GIUNTA

SECONDARY COACH/CORNERBACKS

Peter Giunta is in his sixth season as the Giants' secondary coach/cornerbacks. He joined the team on Jan. 18, 2006. Giunta has been coaching football for 30 years, including 20 in the NFL. He was the defensive coordinator for the 1999 Super Bowl champion St. Louis Rams.

With the Giants, Giunta has been at the forefront in the development of cornerbacks Terrell Thomas, Corey Webster, Aaron Ross and Bruce Johnson. In 2010, Thomas started all 16 games at right cornerback and led the team in tackles (101) and interceptions (five) for the second consecutive season, as well as passes defensed (15). Webster started 15 games on the left side and had four interceptions and eight passes defensed. Strong play by the cornerbacks helped the Giants finish ninth in the NFL in pass defense.

Ross bounced back from an injury-plagued 2009 season to play in 15 games. Johnson, who played in every game and started four as an undrafted rookie in 2009 – when he returned an interception for a touchdown at Dallas – was limited to six games last year because of knee surgery.

In 2008, Webster, Ross and safety James Butler tied for the team lead with three interceptions apiece. Ross, the team's 2007 first-round draft choice, scored a touchdown on an interception return in each of his first two seasons. Webster, a second-round choice in 2005, re-joined the starting lineup in the 2007 postseason and has since been a fixture in the lineup. His interception of a Brett Favre pass set up the Giants' game-winning field goal in overtime in the 2007 NFC Championship Game in Green Bay. Thomas became an important member of the secondary in the second half of his rookie season.

Prior to joining the Giants, Giunta (pronounced GEN-ta) was the Kansas City Chiefs' defensive backs coach for five seasons. In 2003, safety Jerome Woods earned his initial Pro Bowl berth under Giunta's guidance, an impressive feat considering the fact that he missed the entire 2002 campaign with a broken right leg. The Chiefs registered 25 interceptions to rank third in the NFL that season, as safety Greg Wesley and cornerback Dexter McCleon paced the team with six picks apiece.

Giunta joined the Chiefs after spending four seasons (1997-2000) with St. Louis, including the last three as that club's defensive coordinator. Giunta served as the Rams' assistant head coach under Dick Vermeil in 1998-99 after originally joining the Rams staff as defensive backs coach in 1997.

As Rams defensive coordinator, Giunta was responsible for the resurgence in the St. Louis defense which helped spark the club's unexpected run to a world championship in 1999. Those efforts culminated with a 13-3 regular season record and a 23-16 victory over Tennessee in Super Bowl XXXIV. Giunta's unit led the league in rush defense in '99, allowing just 74.3 yards per game, while ranking fourth in scoring defense (15.1 points per game) and sixth in total defense (293.6 yards per game).

The Rams' 1999 defense led the NFC and was second in the NFL with 29 interceptions. Cornerback Todd Lyght led the way, tying for the league lead with six interceptions, earning his initial Pro Bowl berth in the process. St. Louis was also opportunistic, returning nine takeaways (seven interception and two fumbles) for touchdowns in '99. Those turnovers were due in large part to a Rams pass rush which racked up 57.0 sacks, a figure which tied Tom Coughlin's Jacksonville Jaguars for the league lead. That charge was headlined by Pro Bowl DE Kevin Carter, who led the NFL with 17.0 sacks.

Giunta has long had a reputation for getting the most out of the defensive backs he coaches. In 2000, McCleon intercepted eight passes for St. Louis, a total which was surpassed only by Green Bay safety Darren Sharper, who had nine. In Giunta's first season as defensive coordinator in 1998, St. Louis ranked third in the NFL in passing defense, allowing 176.9 yards per game. With Giunta serving as defensive backs coach in 1997 the Rams were second in the league with 25 interceptions, including an NFL-high nine by Ryan McNeil.

Prior to his stint with the Rams, Giunta spent two seasons as the defensive backs coach for the Jets. In 1995, the Jets led the league in pass defense (171.3 yards per game). Giunta was also instrumental in the development of cornerback Aaron Glenn, who played in the Pro Bowl following the 1997 and '98 seasons.

Giunta entered the NFL as the defensive backs coach in Philadelphia from 1991-94. During the '91 season, the Eagles defense ranked first in the league in passing defense (150.8 yards per game), rushing defense (71.0 yards per game) and total defense (221.8 yards per game). That marked just the fifth time in NFL history and the first time since 1975 that a single team led the league in all three of those defensive categories. No team has equaled that feat since the 1991 Eagles.

Giunta's 10 seasons in the collegiate ranks began at Penn State (1981-83). Giunta was a defensive assistant his first year on Joe Paterno's staff before coaching the tight ends in his final two seasons. While he was at Penn State, the Nittany Lions won the 1982 National Championship with a 27-23 victory over Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. Penn State won three bowl games during Giunta's tenure ('82 Fiesta, '83 Sugar and '83 Aloha).

Following Penn State, Giunta moved to Brown (1984-87), where he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers before becoming the offensive coordinator (1986-87). Giunta then joined the staff at Lehigh (1988-90), where he was responsible for the tight ends and wide receivers.

After a four-year playing career as a defensive back and running back at Northeastern (1974-77), Giunta began his coaching career in Massachusetts where he was an assistant coach at Swampscott High School from 1978-80.

Giunta is a native of Salem, Massachusetts and a graduate of Northeastern University. He and his wife, Cindy, have three children: Christina, John and D.J.

JIM HERRMANN
LINEBACKERS

Jim Herrmann is in his third season as the Giants linebackers coach and sixth year in the NFL. Herrmann joined the Giants coaching staff on Jan. 22, 2009 following three seasons as the linebackers coach for the Jets. Prior to entering the NFL, Herrmann was on the coaching staff at the University of Michigan, his alma mater, for 20 years, including a nine-year stint as defensive coordinator.

Herrmann oversaw a unit that underwent significant change in 2010. Jonathan Goff, a reserve for most of his first two seasons, started all 16 games as a productive and dependable middle linebacker. Keith Bulluck joined the Giants after 10 seasons with the Tennessee Titans and started eight of the 12 games in which he played strongside linebacker. On the weak side, Michael Boley started every game but the season opener and finished fifth on the team with 74 tackles. Steady play from the linebackers helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense (310.8 yards a game) and eighth against the run (101.3). Herrmann has also been instrumental in the development of young linebackers Clint Sintim and Phillip Dillard.

In 2009, injuries forced Herrmann to juggle his linebackers throughout the season. Four different players – Antonio Pierce, Chase Blackburn, Bryan Kehl and Goff – started at middle linebacker. Boley and Blackburn were starters on the weak side.

In 2008, Herrmann helped coach a Jets defense that finished seventh in the NFL against the run (94.9 yards a game) and 16th overall (329.4). Two of the linebackers Herrmann coached, Eric Barton and Calvin Pace, were the team's top two tacklers.

The previous year, one of Herrmann's former Michigan players, David Harris, joined the Jets. As a rookie, Harris led the team with 117 tackles and tied for the team lead with five sacks.

Prior to joining the Jets, Herrmann was on the Michigan coaching staff for two decades. In 1997, Herrmann's first year as defensive coordinator, the Wolverines won the national championship while leading the country in three important defensive statistical categories: total, scoring and pass efficiency. Herrmann was the recipient of the Broyles Award as the National Assistant Coach of the Year.

During Herrmann's nine years as coordinator, Michigan won five Big Ten championships and the defense held 47 opponents to less than 100 rushing yards. His defense led the Big Ten in sacks in 1997, 2001 and 2002, including a school-record 50 sacks in 2001. Herrmann coached six All-Americas at Michigan, including Marlin Jackson, Ernest Shazor, Leon Hall, LaMarr Woodley, Larry Foote and Charles Woodson, who won the 1997 Heisman Trophy and was named the national Defensive Player of the Year as a senior.

Herrmann was a three-year letter-winner at linebacker for Michigan and was a member of Schembechler's first Rose Bowl-winning team in 1980. A Michigan native, Herrmann was a three-sport athlete and standout linebacker at Dearborn Divine High School.

Herrmann has three children, Jessica, Cory and Timothy.

AL HOLCOMB

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANT

Al Holcomb is in his third season on the Giants' coaching staff. This is his first year as a defensive assistant after spending the previous two seasons as the defensive quality control coach.

Prior to joining the Giants, Holcomb spent three seasons as the defensive line coach at Lafayette. In 2008, the Leopards led the Patriot League in both total defense (303.2 yards a game) and scoring defense (17.5 points a game). Lafayette also allowed the fewest first downs in the league (176), the best defensive third-down conversion percentage (33.6) and had the lowest passing efficiency by opposing quarterbacks (116.0). Defensive lineman Jason Mills was named to the All-Patriot League first team.

In 2007, Holcomb mentored All-Patriot League First-Team tackle Kyle Sprenkle and second-team defensive end Keith Bloom. Lafayette allowed an NCAA-best 260.1 yards per game and ranked fourth in the country in rushing defense (85.7 yards a game) and eighth in scoring defense (16.9 points per game).

In his first season at Lafayette, Holcomb coached defensive end Marvin Snipes and tackles Dan Liseno and Kyle Sprenkle to All-Patriot League honors.

In the summer of 2007, Holcomb participated in the NFL's minority coaching internship with the Jets. He spent mini-camp and training camp working the team's defense. Holcomb coached at Division II Kutztown University, where he was the defensive coordinator and defensive backs coach in 2004 and 2005 and served as acting head coach in the winter of 2005. Holcomb was the linebackers coach and special teams coordinator at Bloomsburg for six seasons from 1998-2003. Bloomsburg played for the Division II national championship in 2000.

Holcomb was linebackers coach, assistant track coach and a physical education instructor at Division III Colby College in Maine in 1997. He was a graduate assistant working with linebackers at Temple in 1995 and 1996.

A 1993 graduate of West Virginia University with a bachelor's degree in sport management, Holcomb earned his master's degree in athletic coaching education from WVU in 1996. He began his coaching career as linebackers coach at Morgantown High School in the fall of 1994, and served as a volunteer administrative assistant with the Mountaineers while pursuing his graduate degree.

Holcomb and his wife, Toni, are the parents of a son, Alex.

JERALD INGRAM

RUNNING BACKS

Jerald Ingram is in his eighth season as the Giants' running backs coach. During his tenure with the team, he has had a back rush for at least 1,000 yards in a season seven times. Ingram, who joined the Giants on Jan. 13, 2004, has 27 years of coaching experience, including 20 as an assistant to Tom Coughlin.

In 2010, Ingram's running backs were again among the most productive in the NFL. The Giants finished sixth in the NFL in rushing with an average of 137.5 yards a game. In Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823), the Giants were one of just two teams in 2010 with two 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). Since 2006, four different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards – Tiki Barber, Jacobs, Derrick Ward and Bradshaw. No other team has more than three 1,000-yard rushers in those five seasons.

Bradshaw's 1,235 rushing yards were the seventh-highest single-season total in Giants history and placed him fourth in the NFC and ninth in the NFL. He was 12th in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,549.

The Giants rushed for 213 yards in a victory at Minnesota, their highest total since they ran for 220 yards vs. Oakland on Oct. 11, 2009. Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the second time in history the Giants had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. It last happened at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007, when the runners were Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts).

Jacobs' increased his career total to 4,278 yards, which is the fifth-highest figure in Giants history.

Jacobs rushed for nine touchdowns and Bradshaw eight, the first time the Giants had two backs run for at least eight scores in the same season. When Jacobs and Bradshaw each rushed for a pair of touchdowns against Washington on Dec. 5, it was only the fourth time in their history the Giants had two players run for at least two scores in the same game.

In 2009, Ingram coached a group of backs that was productive despite debilitating injuries. Jacobs played all but one game with a knee injury that required postseason surgery and led the team with 835 yards. Bradshaw was limited to one practice day most weeks because of ankle and foot injuries, yet led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. He ran for 778 yards that season. The reserve backs didn't escape injury.

Under Ingram's tutelage, the Giants had the NFL's most productive running attack in 2008. The Giants rushed for NFL-leading and franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry. The previous records were 2,451 yards in 1985 and 4.7 yards an attempt in 2005 and 2006. From 2004-08, the Giants finished no worse than 11th in the NFL in rushing. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,089 rushing yards and Ward was close behind with 1,025. They became just the fourth pair of running backs from the same backfield – and only the fifth set of teammates – to each rush for more than 1,000 yards in the same season.

In addition, Bradshaw – the team's leading rusher in the 2007 postseason – ran for 355 yards and fullback Madison Hedgecock was voted a first alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.

Such excellence has been a part of the backfield since Ingram's arrival. Jacobs led the Giants with 1,009 yards in 2007, the season the Giants won Super Bowl XLII. In Ingram's first three seasons with the Giants, Barber emerged as one of the very best running backs in the NFL and one of the finest players in franchise history. Barber, who retired following the 2006 season, had never played in the Pro Bowl prior to Ingram's arrival. But he was voted to the NFC team each of his final three years. In those seasons, he rushed, in order, for 1,518 yards in 2004, a team-record 1,860 yards in 2005 and 1,662 yards in 2006. Barber, who rushed for 5,409 yards in his first seven Giants seasons, ran for 5,040 in just three years under Ingram to finish with a franchise-record 10,449 yards. Barber set the Giants record with 234 rushing yards at Washington in his final regular season game, breaking the mark of 220 yards he had set the previous season.

Ingram also helped make Jacobs one of the NFL's best short-yardage and goal-line backs in limited playing time his first two seasons. In 2004, Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943. The following season, Jacobs rushed for 423 yards and nine scores to establish himself as Barber's successor.

Prior to joining the Giants, Ingram was the running backs coach under Coughlin at Boston College and in Jacksonville. The Jaguars were the only NFL team to rush for more than 2,000 yards in each season from 1998-2000, including an NFL-high 2,091 yards in 1999. Under Ingram's direction, Fred Taylor rushed for more than 1,200 yards three times, including a team-record 1,399 yards in 2000, when he missed 3½ games. Taylor had nine consecutive 100-yard games, tied for the third-longest streak in NFL history. In 1998, the Jaguars rushed for a team-record 2,102 yards. Ingram is also known for turning his running backs into fine blockers and receivers; when he left Jacksonville, running backs had two of the three longest touchdown receptions in team history.

Ingram joined the Jaguars on March 3, 1994, 18 months before the franchise played its first regular season game, and stayed in Jacksonville until Coughlin left following the 2002 season. He was one of four assistant coaches who were with Coughlin during his entire tenure with the Jaguars.

Prior to his time in Jacksonville, Ingram spent three seasons as the running backs coach at Boston College. He began his coaching career in 1984, as a graduate assistant at the University of Michigan, his alma mater. The following year, he joined the staff at Ball State, first as tight ends coach, then as the running backs coach for five seasons. In 1991, he joined Coughlin at Boston College.

A fullback at Michigan, Ingram earned three letters and played on two Wolverines teams that won the Big Ten championship and advanced to the Rose Bowl. He graduated in 1984 with a degree in general studies.

Ingram was born in Dayton, Ohio. He grew up in Beaver, Pa. He and his wife, Kathleen, have a son, Julian.

LARRY IZZO
ASSISTANT SPECIAL TEAMS

Larry Izzo, one of the most acclaimed special teams players in NFL history, is in his first season as the Giants' assistant special teams coach. Izzo will assist special teams coordinator Tom Quinn.

In a 14-year NFL career (1996-2009), Izzo played for three teams and was both a three-time Super Bowl champion with New England and a three-time Pro Bowler. He was credited with 275 special teams tackles in 200 regular season games and 23 more in 21 postseason games. Izzo never played on a team with a losing record and his teams participated in the playoffs nine times, reached five AFC Championship Games and four Super Bowls. His teammates selected him as a special teams captain nine times, including eight with the Patriots.

Izzo began his career in 1996 as an undrafted free agent with the Miami Dolphins. He made such a rapid and positive impact that in preseason, Coach Jimmy Johnson said only two players were guaranteed to make the team – future Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino and Izzo. In his second NFL games, he blocked a Jeff Feagles punt. As a rookie, Izzo played in all 16 games and finished second on the team with 10 special teams tackles. He was voted the special teams alternate for the AFC Pro Bowl team and was an all-rookie selection by Pro Football Weekly..

Izzo spent the 1997 season on injured reserve after tearing an Achilles tendon in training camp. He returned the following year to play 13 games, register 21 special teams tackle and be Miami's recipient of the teams' Ed Block Courage Award. Izzo played in all 16 games – plus his first two postseason games – in 1999, when he led team with a career-high 33 special teams tackles. He was elected the Dolphins' special teams captain. In 2000, his final season in Miami, Izzo earned his first Pro Bowl selection after finishing with a team-high 31 special teams tackles.

Prior to the 2001 season, Izzo joined New England. In his first season with the Patriots, Izzo was voted special teams captain for the first of eight consecutive seasons, led the unit with 22 tackles and helped New England defeat St. Louis in Super Bowl XXXVI. The following year, Izzo was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second time after leading the Patriots with 20 special teams tackles. He was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after collecting six tackles in a game vs. Kansas City.

In 2003 and 2004, Izzo led New England with 31 and then 28 special teams tackles to help the Patriots win two more Super Bowls. He was a member of the AFC Pro Bowl team in 2004, when he was also an All-Pro. Izzo missed only one game from 2000-08 and was chosen for the Patriots' All-2000's team.

Izzo joined the Jets prior to the 2009 season. He was credited with 18 special teams tackles before going on injured reserve with a back injury on Dec. 10.

Izzo was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at Rice University, where he played linebacker and finished fourth in school history with 301 tackles, including a record 46 for losses. As a senior, he had 121 tackles and a team captain and consensus first-team All-Southwest Conference selection. In 2002, Izzo graduated from Rice with a degree in business.

At McCullough High School in Houston, Izzo played safety and running back. The Houston Chronicle named him its two-way Player of the Year as a senior after he tallied 131 tackles, two interceptions and on defense and contributed 1,081 yards rushing, 14 receptions for 109 yards and 10 kickoff returns for 224 yards.

In 2005, Izzo and Warrick Dunn participated in an NFL-sponsored USO tour to visit troops stationed overseas. They began their trip at Bagram Air Base in Afghanistan, where they helped open the Pat Tillman USO Center, then spent time with troops in Baghdad, Kuwait and Qatar. Izzo also visited injured military personnel at Walter Reed Army Medical Center outside Washington in 2004 and 2005.

Izzo and his wife, Mara, have a son, Boston.

DAVID MERRITT, SR.

SECONDARY COACH/SAFETIES

David Merritt is in his eighth season on the Giants' coaching staff and his sixth as the team's secondary coach/safeties.

The safeties were the most improved unit on the team in 2010. Newcomers Antrel Rolle and Deon Grant teamed with Kenny Phillips – who missed most of the previous season after undergoing knee surgery – to form a versatile and productive trio. The three safeties were often on the field at the same time. Rolle started all 16 games, was the Giants' second-leading tackler with 100 and was voted to the NFC Pro Bowl team. Phillips started 15 games and had 88 tackles. Grant had eight starts and, like Rolle, was often deployed close to the line of scrimmage. He had 68 tackles. The Giants were ranked seventh in the NFL in total defense and ninth in pass defense last season.

In 2009, Merritt molded a functioning safety unit after his best player, Phillips, was lost for the season following the second game because of the knee surgery. Five different players started at safety for the Giants that year, including converted cornerback Aaron Ross. Despite the shuffling, the Giants were ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense.

Merritt has demonstrated a knack for developing players who were not highly-touted entering the NFL. When the Giants won the NFC East title in 2008, the starting safeties were Michael Johnson, a seventh-round draft choice, and James Butler, who originally joined the team as an undrafted free agent. That season, Johnson and Butler tied for second on the team with 76 tackles apiece. They also combined for five interceptions.

In the Giants' 2007 Super Bowl season, one of the team's best defensive players was free safety Gibril Wilson, who arrived as a fifth-round draft choice. Wilson led the club with 33 postseason tackles, was second with 96 regular season tackles and was one of the top free agent safeties in 2008.

Merritt assumed his current position prior to the 2006 season. In 2005, he was the Giants' defensive assistant coach. The previous year, he had the additional title of quality control coach. Merritt was hired by Tom Coughlin on Jan. 26, 2004 after spending three seasons with the Jets as a defensive assistant/linebackers coach.

Before joining the Jets, Merritt coached at the collegiate level for four seasons. In 1997, he was the outside linebackers coach at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. The following year, Merritt moved to the Virginia Military Institute, where he coached the defensive ends and outside linebackers for one season and the defensive line for two.

A linebacker, Merritt was drafted by the Miami Dolphins in 1993. He played for the Arizona Cardinals from 1993-96 and for the Rhein Fire in NFL Europe in 1997. Merritt was an All-ACC linebacker at North Carolina State in 1992, when he led the conference in tackles. He earned a bachelor's degree in political science from N.C. State.

Merritt and his wife Yolonda have three sons, David Jr., Devin and Dawson and a daughter, Drayah. He also has an older daughter, Kiki, who attends college in Atlanta.

ROBERT NUNN

DEFENSIVE LINE

Robert Nunn is in his 24th season as a football coach, his 12th in the NFL and his second coaching the Giants' defensive line.

Under Nunn's direction, the defensive line played at a high level throughout the 2010 season and helped the Giants finish seventh in the NFL in total defense and eighth against the run. The Giants were second in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 46 sacks, their highest total since the 2007 Super Bowl champions led the league with 53. They also led the league with 39 takeaways and the line was responsible for 21 of the team's 29 forced fumbles.

Defensive ends Osi Umenyiora and 2010 Pro Bowler Justin Tuck tied for fourth in the NFC and seventh in the NFL – and the team lead – with 11.5 sacks each, the first time the Giants had two players with at least that many sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Michael Strahan finished with 11.5.

Umenyiora and Tuck each had three sacks on Oct. 3, when the Giants totaled 10 in a 17-3 victory over Chicago. It was Umenyiora's highest total in one game since he set a team record with six sacks against the Eagles when the team had 12 on Sept. 30, 2007. Tuck set a career high with his three sacks.

Umenyiora led the Giants and tied an NFL record with 10 forced fumbles, tying Jason Taylor's record set in 2006 with Miami. The stat has been kept since 1994. Tuck was first in the league with five recoveries of opponent fumbles.

Defensive tackle Barry Cofield had 68 tackles (36 solo, six for losses) and a career-high 4.0 sacks.

First-round draft choice Jason Pierre-Paul finished the season with 4.5 sacks, the most by a Giants rookie since Cornelius Griffin had 5.0 in 2000. Pierre-Paul had two sacks vs. Jacksonville on Nov. 28 and two against Washington the following week to become the first rookie in Giants history with at least two sacks in consecutive games.

Nunn spent the 2009 season as the Tampa Bay Buccaneers' defensive line coach. Prior to this season with the Bucs, Nunn spent four years (2005-2008) coaching the defensive tackles for the Green Bay Packers. In 2008, Nunn oversaw a deep and talented rotation on the interior of the Packers defensive line. Two of Nunn's players, Johnny Jolly and Ryan Pickett, ranked in the top five in tackles among Green Bay defenders that season. Jolly set a new career high with 82 stops. Pickett, who joined the Packers as a free agent acquisition in 2006, thrived under Nunn as he tallied 236 tackles, 2.5 sacks and 13 passes defensed the past three seasons. Nunn's guidance also contributed to the emergence of Corey Williams in 2006, when the then third-year pro turned in his best season with 47 tackles and seven sacks.

In 2005, Nunn helped elevate the Packers' defense from 25th in the NFL before his arrival to seventh in the league. Under Nunn's direction, Grady Jackson started all 16 games for only the second time as a pro and responded with career bests in tackles (72) and passes defensed (four).

Nunn entered the NFL as a defensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2000. The following year, he was promoted to assistant defensive line/quality control coach. He held that role for two years (2001-2002), during which time he worked with Pro Bowler Jason Taylor.

In 2003, Nunn coached the Washington Redskins' defensive line. One of his players was Bruce Smith, who broke the late Reggie White's NFL career sacks record. Nunn also tutored veteran standouts Renaldo Wynn and Regan Upshaw.

Nunn returned to Miami in 2004 as a special assistant. He began the year working on off-the-field projects and then assisted with the linebackers after Coach Dave Wannstedt resigned with seven games left in the season.

Nunn's 12-year college coaching experience was highlighted by nine years at Georgia Military College in Milledgeville, Georgia. After one season as defensive coordinator, the school promoted him to head coach and athletic director in 1992. In his eight seasons holding that position, Nunn posted an outstanding 66-19 record.

He launched his coaching career at Northeastern Oklahoma in 1988, heading up the defensive line. He then tutored defensive ends at the University of Tennessee for two seasons (1989-1990).

A four-year letterman (1984-1987) as a linebacker at Oklahoma State, Nunn served as team captain in 1987. He earned a B.S. in secondary education from the school in 1988. Nunn and his wife Karen have five children: one daughter, Josie, and four sons, Noah, Jacob, Nathan and Johnny.

JERRY PALMIERI

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

New Jersey native and long-time Tom Coughlin assistant Jerry Palmieri is in his eighth season as the Giants' strength and conditioning coach, a position he assumed on Jan. 13, 2004.

Palmieri is one of the NFL's most respected conditioning coaches. He was honored as the 2007 Samson's NFL Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year. In 1999, Palmieri was honored by the Professional Strength and Conditioning Coaches Society as Coach of the Year.

Palmieri was the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 2003. Prior to that he spent nine years as a strength and conditioning coach under Coughlin, one at Boston College (where he was the director of strength and conditioning operations) and eight with the Jacksonville Jaguars.

Palmieri's goal is to help each player increase in size, strength and speed, which ultimately produces a more powerful and productive athlete. "Coach Coughlin wants our team to play physical on the field," Palmieri said. "Our job is to make our players more physical and more powerful, so that their play will be physical in competition."

Palmieri began his career as a strength coach at the University of North Carolina in 1982. From there he moved to Oklahoma State (1984-86) and Kansas State (1987-92) before joining Coughlin at Boston College. In addition to his coaching experience, Palmieri has taught physical education classes and written articles about strength and conditioning for national publications.

Palmieri is a 1980 graduate of Montclair State University, which is located just 15 minutes from New Meadowlands Stadium. He received a master's degree is exercise physiology from North Carolina in 1984. Palmieri was a three-time New Jersey Golden Gloves champion (1976-78) and competed in international competition as a member of the 1978 and 1979 USA Boxing Teams.

Palmieri was raised in Dumont, N.J. He and his wife, Ellen, also a New Jersey native, have a son, Tony, and a daughter, Annamarie, who is married to Trent Atwood.

MARKUS PAUL

ASSISTANT STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

Markus Paul, a former NFL player and a veteran coach in the league, is in his fifth season as the Giants' assistant strength and conditioning coach. Paul works closely with Jerry Palmieri to improve the size, strength, speed and conditioning of the Giants' players.

Prior to joining the Giants, Paul spent two seasons on the coaching staff of the Jets, in 2005 as the director of physical development and the following year as the head strength and conditioning coach.

Before his tenure with the Jets, Paul was the New England Patriots' assistant strength and conditioning coach. He worked under Mike Woicik, who has trained six Super Bowl championship teams. Paul owns three Super Bowl rings from the Patriots' titles in 2001, 2003 and 2004.

Paul's first NFL coaching position was as the New Orleans Saints' assistant strength and conditioning coach in 1998-99.

A defensive back during his playing career, Paul was the Chicago Bears' fourth-round draft choice in 1989. He played with the Bears until 1993, when he played one game with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. Paul played in 71 games with 30 starts at strong or free safety. He intercepted seven passes, which he returned for a total of 100 yards.

A four-year starter at Syracuse University, Paul holds the school record with 19 career interceptions. As a senior in 1988, he was credited with 76 tackles and was named first-team All-America by The Sporting News and Football News. Paul earned a bachelor of science degree in retailing.

Paul was raised in Kissimmee, Fla. He and his wife, Patricia, have a son, Jairus, and a daughter, Tabitha.

MICHAEL POPE

TIGHT ENDS

When Tom Coughlin became the Giants' head coach and began assembling his staff in January 2004, he retained only one position coach from the previous regime: tight ends coach Michael Pope. Coughlin's reasoning was simple and logical.

"He is the best tight ends coach in football," Coughlin said.

Pope has proven that for many years. This is Pope's 29th consecutive season as an NFL coach. He is one of the league's most experienced, respected and successful assistant coaches. Pope has coached in 29 postseason games, including five Super Bowls, winning three of them.

This the 12th season of Pope's second tour of duty with the Giants and his 21st as an assistant with the team, more than any coach in the franchise's long history. He is the only coach to participate in each of the Giants' four Super Bowls and the only Giants coach to have his name inscribed on three Lombardi trophies. He also coached in the Super Bowl with the New England Patriots in 1996.

Pope continues to enhance his reputation as the NFL's finest tight ends coach. In the last two years, Kevin Boss, who joined the team as a fifth-round draft choice from Western Oregon in 2007, caught 77 passes for 1,098 yards and 10 touchdowns. In 2008, Boss became a fulltime starter and emerged as a reliable receiver and forceful blocker. He had a team-high six touchdown receptions among his 33 catches. Boss' 45-yard catch-and-run in Super Bowl XLII set up the Giants' first touchdown. Both Travis Beckum and Bear Pascoe made significant strides working under Pope as second-year pros in 2010.

Pope's guidance and teaching helped make Jeremy Shockey one of the NFL's best tight ends. From 2002-06, Shockey was voted to the Pro Bowl four times. His 371 career receptions place him fourth on the Giants' career list (behind Amani Toomer, Tiki Barber and Joe Morrison).

Shockey was the Giants' first-round draft choice in 2002, when he caught 74 passes, a team record for both rookies and tight ends. He led all NFL tight ends in receiving and receiving yards (894) and he became the first rookie tight end to make the Pro Bowl since 1988. Shockey was elected to several all-pro teams. In 2003, Shockey caught 48 passes and was again chosen to go to Hawaii despite missing the season's final nine games with a knee injury.

Pope has long been an outstanding tutor of tight ends. Shockey was the fifth tight end to play for Pope to make the NFL's all-rookie team, joining former Giants Zeke Mowatt, 1983; Mark Bavaro, 1985; and Howard Cross, 1989; and Cincinnati's Tony McGee in 1993. Pope is not only successful at grooming young talent, but he is also adept at guiding his veteran students to elite status. Five of his players have been selected to the Pro Bowl – Bavaro, Rodney Holman (Bengals), Ben Coates (Patriots), Stephen Alexander (Redskins) and Shockey.

Pope was re-hired by the Giants on Feb. 11, 2000. He played a major role in bringing a new vitality to the Giants offense that season, which ended with the team winning the NFC championship and playing in Super Bowl XXXV. He has further energized it the last decade by overseeing the development of Shockey and then Boss.

Pope was a member of Bill Parcells' Giants' coaching staff from 1983-91. He left the Giants following the 1991 season and spent two years with the Cincinnati Bengals, the first as tight ends coach and the second as offensive coordinator. He joined the New England Patriots in 1994 as running backs coach before moving to tight ends coach in 1995. Pope was the Washington Redskins' tight ends coach from 1997-99.

Prior to coaching in the NFL, Pope spent 13 seasons in the collegiate and high school ranks. His first coaching position was at Lenoir (N.C.) High School in 1964, and he coached at high schools in Charlotte, N.C., Jacksonville, Fla., and Lake Wales, Fla.

Pope's first job in college football was with Florida State from 1970-74. He then moved to Texas Tech (1975-77) where he served as a receivers coach and recruiter. From 1978-82, Pope was on the coaching staff at the University of Mississippi, where he coached the receivers, as well as punters and kickers.

Pope played quarterback for Lenoir-Rhyne College, where his team won one national championship and was runner-up a second time. The team's combined record during his playing career was 34-8-3. An all-conference player, Pope was team captain and MVP as a senior. He was also inducted into Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities and was the "Team Before Self" award winner as a senior. Pope is a member of the Lenoir-Rhyne College Hall of Fame. A shoulder injury ended Pope's World Football League career after one year.

Pope was born in Monroe, N.C. Michael and Lee have two sons who work in the financial services industry, Travus in Naples, Fla., and Daron in New York City. Daron's wife, Rosie, is a native of London and the star of Bravo's "Pregnant in Heels." Daron and Rosie have two sons, J.R. and Wellington (named after the Giants' late, loved owner).

SEAN RYAN

WIDE RECEIVERS

Sean Ryan is in his second season as the Giants' wide receivers coach. Prior to assuming that position he spent three years as the team's offensive quality control coach.

The wide receivers were very productive in their first season under Ryan. Second-year pro Hakeem Nicks led the Giants with 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns, despite missing three games because of injury. The 79 receptions left Nicks seventh in the NFC and tied for 12th in the NFL. They also tied for the third-highest total in Giants history. Nicks was the 10th player (and ninth wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season. His 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the third-highest total in Giants history. Mario Manningham added nine touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the first pair of Giants with at least nine touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had nine.

Manningham was second on the team with 60 catches for 944 yards and those nine scores. In the final two games, he caught Eli Manning touchdown passes of 85 and 92 yards that were two of the nine longest pass plays in the 86-year history of the Giants. Manningham was one of just two NFL receivers to score on two receptions of at least 85 yards in 2010. Manningham had seven touchdown receptions of 25 or more yards, which placed him second in the league behind Pittsburgh's Mike Wallace, who had nine.

Steve Smith, who set a Giants record with 107 receptions in 2009, played in only nine games last year because of injuries and finished third on the team with 48 receptions for 529 yards and three scores.

Ryan came to the Giants from Harvard University, where he spent the 2006 season as recruiting coordinator, running backs coach and head coach of the junior varsity.

Prior to his tenure at Harvard, Ryan was as an assistant coach at Columbia University for three seasons. In 2003 and 2004, Ryan was the running backs coach and special teams coordinator. The following season, Ryan coached the quarterbacks.

Before coaching at Columbia, Ryan spent two years as a graduate assistant at Boston College, where he worked primarily with the wide receivers. The Eagles won bowl games in each of those seasons, beating Georgia in the 2001 Music City Bowl and Toledo in the 2002 Motor City Bowl.

Ryan was the running backs coach at Colgate in 2000, a graduate assistant at the University at Albany (where the Giants hold training camp) in 1998-99 and the quarterbacks coach at Siena for a season.

Ryan played defensive back and outside linebacker at Hamilton College, where he graduated in 1994 with a degree in American studies. He also earned a master's degree in higher education administration from Albany.

A native of Hudson Falls, N.Y. – north of Albany - Ryan was a standout football, basketball and baseball player at Hudson Falls High School.

MIKE SULLIVAN

QUARTERBACKS

Mike Sullivan is in his second season as the Giants' quarterbacks coach after spending the previous six years coaching the team's wide receivers.

Eli Manning had one of the best seasons of his career in his first year under Sullivan. He led the Giants to 10 victories while completing 339 of 539 passes (62.9 percent) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were both franchise single-season records. Manning's 539 passes were the second-highest total of his career and was the fourth-highest total in Giants history. His 31 touchdown passes were the third-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962. Manning's 4,002 yards were the fifth-highest total in the NFL in 2010. He is the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons.

In 2009, Sullivan coached a wide receivers that caught 236 passes. Steve Smith shattered the franchise record with 107 catches and was the first Giants wideout to play in the Pro Bowl in 41 years. Smith's receptions accounted for 1,220 yards and seven touchdowns. Mario Manningham contributed 57 catches and Hakeem Nicks had 47 and six scores in an exceptional rookie season.

In 2008, Smith led the Giants with 57 receptions. Domenik Hixon, who had one career reception entering the season, had a team-high 596 receiving yards on 43 catches. Amani Toomer was second on the team with 48 receptions in his final Giants season. Toomer holds the franchise career records for catches (668), receiving yards (9,497), touchdown catches (54) and 100-yard games (22). In four seasons under Sullivan's tutelage, Plaxico Burress had 344 catches, which place him 12th on the franchise's career list, one catch ahead of Earnest Gray and three behind Aaron Thomas. Burress had 3,681 receiving yards and caught 33 touchdown passes for the Giants.

Burress caught 10 touchdown passes in 2006 and 12 the following year to become the first Giant since Del Shofner in 1961-62 to post back-to-back seasons with 10 or more scoring catches. He set a Giants postseason record with 11 receptions in the NFC Championship Game in Green Bay, one more than Ike Hilliard had in the 2000 Championship Game victory over Minnesota.

David Tyree, another of Sullivan's players, made one of the greatest plays in Super Bowl history when he improbably secured an Eli Manning pass against his helmet for a 32-yard gain on the Giants' game-winning drive in Super Bowl XLII.

Sullivan was the Jacksonville Jaguars' offensive assistant in 2003 after spending the previous season as Jacksonville's defensive quality control coach under Tom Coughlin. He was the only member of Coughlin's coaching staff retained by the Jaguars in 2003.

Sullivan joined the Jaguars after nine years coaching in college football. He began his coaching career at Humboldt State in 1993. He also coached at Army (1995-96 and 1999-2000), Youngstown State (1997-98) and Ohio University (2001). In 1997, Youngstown State won the Division 1-AA national championship under Jim Tressel, now the coach at Ohio State. At Ohio University, Sullivan coached the defensive backs and tutored the kick blocking units on the special teams.

Sullivan was a defensive back at Army, where he received a B.S. degree in 1989. He also has a master's degree from Humboldt State. Sullivan is a graduate of the U.S. Army Airborne, Ranger and Air Assault schools.

Sullivan recently earned his Blue Belt in Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu from Professor Louis Vintaloro at Perfomance Jiu-Jitsu Academy.

Sullivan and his wife, Julie, have two daughters, Carmen Enriqueta and Hope Carolyn. Sullivan was born in Santa Maria, Calif.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd-round (33rd pick overall) draft choice by the San Francisco 49ers in 2005…Signed by the Giants as a free agent on July 29, 2011.

GIANTS NOTE:
- In each of the last 2 seasons, Baas received the Bob McKittrick Award, given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best represents courage, intensity and sacrifice.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 92 games with 54 starts…Baas has played in 63 consecutive games and made 41 consecutive starts…Has started games at center (16 in 2010), left guard (9 in 2008 and 16 in 2009) and right guard (5 in 2005, 8 in 2007).
- In 2010, started all 16 games at center after moving from left guard when a broken fibula sidelined Eric Heitmann in training camp. At season's end, he was named the recipient of the Bob McKittrick Award for 2nd consecutive season…Made 1st career start at center at Seattle (9/12)…Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 32 pass attempts by Alex Smith vs. New Orleans (9/20)…Part of an offensive line that did not allow a sack on 19 pass attempts by Troy Smith vs. Denver (10/31).

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 7th round (250th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Although a starter for just 1 season, Bradshaw is 12th on the Giants' career rushing list with 2,558 yards – only 14 yards behind No. 11 Rob Carpenter.
- Since 2006, four different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards – Tiki Barber, Brandon Jacobs, Derrick Ward and Bradshaw. No other team has more than three 1,000-yard rushers in those 5 seasons (Tennessee with Travis Henry, LenDale White and Chris Johnson).
- Had the Giants' longest rushes in each of his first 3 seasons: An 88-yard touchdown (3rd longest in Giants history) at Buffalo (12/23/07), a 77-yarder vs. Baltimore (11/16/08) and a 38-yarder at Tampa Bay (9/27/09).
- His 1,788 kickoff return yards place him 4th on the Giants all-time list.
- With 32 yards vs. Arizona (10/25/09), Bradshaw became the 39th player to run for at least 1,000 yards in a Giants uniform.
- Bradshaw joined Aaron Ross, Steve Smith, Jay Alford, Zak DeOssie, Kevin Boss, Michael Johnson and Adam Koets as 2007 Giants draft choices who contributed in their rookie season.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 58 regular season games with 12 starts and played in 5 postseason games…Bradshaw has 529 carries for 2,558 yards, a 4.84-yard average that is the highest in Giants history by a back with at least 50 rushing attempts…He has scored 17 rushing touchdowns, tying him with Rob Carpenter and Hall of Famer Tuffy Leemans for 12th in team history…Has rushed for at least 100 yards 7 times; the Giants are 7-0 in those games…Has also caught 75 passes for 575 yards and a touchdown…Bradshaw's 1,788 kickoff return yards (on 77 returns), place him 4th on the franchise's career list, 84 yards behind No. 3 Willie Ponder.
- In 2010, played in all 16 games with 11 starts…Had career-high totals of 276 carries for 1,235 yards and 8 touchdowns…Bradshaw's 1,235 rushing yards were the 7th-highest single-season total in Giants history and left him 4th in the NFC and 9th in the NFL. The 1,235 yards were only 88 less than Bradshaw had in his first 3 seasons combined…Led the Giants with four 100-yard games, including a Giants season-high of 133 yards vs. Detroit (10/17).
- Bradshaw was 12th in the NFL in yards from scrimmage with 1,549.
- His 47 receptions were a career high and led all Giants who didn't play wide receiver.
- Bradshaw was selected the NFC Offensive Player of the Week for his performance in the Giants' 17-3 victory over Chicago (10/3). He rushed for 129 yards and a touchdown on 23 carries and caught 2 passes for 14 yards. His 3-yard touchdown run late in the 3rd quarter gave the Giants a 10-0 lead. The score was set up by Bradshaw's 25-yard run immediately preceding the touchdown.
- With Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823), the Giants were one of just 2 teams in 2010 with two 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). It was just the 2nd time the Giants had two 800-yard runners in the same season. In 2008, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward added 1,025.
- The Giants rushed for 213 yards at Minnesota (12/13), their highest total since they ran for 220 yards vs. Oakland on Oct. 11, 2009. Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the 2nd time in history the Giants had two 100-yard rushers in the same game. Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts) accomplished the feat at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007.
- Jacobs rushed for 9 touchdowns and Bradshaw 8, the first time the Giants had 2 backs run for at least 8 scores in the same season.
- In 2009, played in 15 games with 1 start (at Minnesota on 1/3)…Did not play at Denver (11/26) due to ankle injury…Posted then career-high totals of 163 carries for 778 yards and a team-high 7 rushing touchdowns despite playing with cracked bones in both of his feet, as well as bone spurs in his ankle, all of which required surgery following the season…Also caught 21 passes for 207 yards, with a long reception of 55 yards and returned 6 punts for 55 yards.
- Bradshaw had the Giants' only 2 100-yard rushing games of the season: 104 yards at Tampa Bay (9/27) and 110 yards vs. Oakland (10/11)…Scored 2 touchdowns vs. Oakland and at Washington (12/21)…Caught a season-high 4 passes vs. Philadelphia (12/13)…Had a season-long 55-yard reception vs. Oakland.
- In 2008, played in 15 games with no starts. Inactive at Washington (11/30) due to a neck injury…Finished 3rd on the team with 355 rushing yards and 1 touchdown on 67 carries…Led the team with 39 kickoff returns for 867 yards (a 22.2-yard avg.)…Added 5 receptions for 42 yards and a touchdown…His 8 special teams tackles placed him 6th on the team…Joined Jacobs and Ward in a 3-pronged Giants rushing attack that led the NFL in rushing and established franchise record numbers of 2,518 yards and 5.0 yards per carry.

- Finished with 5 carries for 52 yards and a touchdown and 1 reception for 18 yards and a touchdown at St. Louis (9/14), where he was the 1st Giant to score rushing and receiving in the same regular season game since Tiki Barber did it against New Orleans on Sept. 19, 2005…Also returned 4 kickoffs for 93 yards…Finished with a season-high 11 carries for 65 yards, all in the 4th quarter, vs. Seattle (10/5)…Led a Giants rushing attack that amassed 207 yards with a season-high 96 yards on 9 carries vs. Baltimore (11/16)…Had a Giants season-long 77 yard run in the 4th quarter.
- As a rookie in 2007, Bradshaw played in 12 regular season games and all 4 postseason games…Finished the regular season with 23 carries for 190 yards and 1 touchdown, plus 2 receptions for 12 yards…Also returned a team-high 38 kickoffs for 921 yards…Led the Giants in the postseason with 48 carries for 208 yards and a touchdown…Added 4 receptions for 27 yards and a 13-yard kickoff return.
- Made his NFL debut at Dallas (9/9) with 7 kickoff returns for 193 yards…Added 2 special teams tackles and recovered his own fumble on a kickoff return…Contributed a season-long 68-yard kickoff return at Detroit (11/18).
- Had his first 4 NFL rushing attempts (for 29 yards) vs. Minnesota (11/25)…Also had a career-high 8 kickoff returns for 176 yards…Saw his most extensive playing time at running back at Buffalo (12/23), where Jacobs was slowed by an ankle injury…Finished with a team-high 151 yards and a touchdown on 17 carries…Bradshaw and Jacobs (145 yards and 2 touchdowns) became the 1st tandem in Giants history to rush for more than 100 yards in the same game. The Giants became the first team to have two runners with 140 or more yards in the same game since Nov. 11, 2001, when St. Louis' Marshall Faulk ran for 183 yards and Trung Canidate added 145 in a game against Carolina…Bradshaw's 151 rushing yards were the most by a Giants running back other than Barber since Rodney Hampton ran for 187 yards at Dallas on Dec. 17, 1995…Bradshaw's 88-yard touchdown in the 4th quarter was the 3rd-longest run in the history of the franchise. Barber set the record with a 95-yarder at Oakland on Dec. 31, 2005, followed by Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930…The 88-yard run was also the longest in the NFL in 2007…Also returned 1 punt for 1 yard, his first of the season and returned 4 kickoffs for 99 yards with a long of 36 yards.
- Rushed for 66 yards on a postseason-high 17 carries in NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6)…Ran for 34 yards on 7 attempts in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)…Finished with 16 carries for 63 yards and a touchdown with a long run of 10 yards in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20)…Also caught 1 pass for 9 yards and scored his 1st playoff touchdown on a 4-yard run in the 3rd quarter that gave the Giants a 20-17 lead…Rushed for a team-high 45 yards on 9 carries in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3)…Long run of 13 yards came in the 2nd quarter…Also had 1 reception for 3 yards.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the Houston Texans in 2002…Released by the Texans on March 23, 2007…Signed as a free agent by the Carolina Panthers on April 10, 2007…Signed as a free agent by the Giants on March 3, 2008…Signed as a free agent by the San Francisco 49ers on March 15, 2010…Contract terminated on July 29, 2011…Signed by the Giants on Aug. 1, 2011.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Carr was the Houston Texans' 1st-ever draft choice in 2002….He was the 12th quarterback selected number 1 overall since the 1970 NFL-AFL merger.
- With Eli Manning and Carr, the Giants are the 2nd team in history to have 2 quarterbacks who were selected 1st overall in their respective drafts on their roster at the same time. The 2007 Panthers were the 1st team with that distinction with Vinny Testaverde (1987) and Carr (2002).
- This is Carr's 2nd stint with the Giants. He was Manning's backup in 2008 and 2009.
- David and his father love collecting classic cars. Each year they attend the Pismo Beach Classic, one of the largest classic car and street rod shows on the West Coast. The show, traditionally on Father's Day Weekend, pulls in 1,000 classic cars and street rods and over 100,000 spectators in 3 days.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Carr has played in 92 regular season games with 79 starts. He started all 16 games 4 times in his 5 seasons with the Texans, including the last 3. PRO BOWL: 2009

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 5th round (160th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Tough, durable and versatile offensive lineman started the first 120 regular season games and 7 postseason games in his career, the longest such streak by a Giant since the introduction of the 16-game schedule in 1978. The streak ended on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas because of hip and hamstring injuries Diehl suffered the previous week in Seattle.
- Diehl was the only player selected in the 2003 NFL Draft to start every game from 2003-09. He was 1 of 4 players who entered the league in 2003 and played in every regular season game through the end of the 2009 season. The others were Josh Brown, Derrick Dockery and Visanthe Shiancoe.
- During the streak, Diehl started 16 games at right guard as a rookie, 16 at right tackle in 2004, 15 games at left guard and 1 game at right tackle in 2005, 15 games at left guard and 1 at left tackle in 2006, 16 games at left tackle in 2007, 2008 and 2009 and 7 at left tackle and 1 at left guard in 2010.

- Has started all 124 regular season games and 7 postseason games in which he has played since joining the team in 2003.
- Diehl started 120 consecutive games before sitting out the first of 4 consecutive games on Nov. 14, 2010 vs. Dallas. He suffered hamstring and hip injuries at Seattle (11/7). When he did not play the following week vs. Dallas, it ended the streak. Diehl was the only Giant other than Eli Manning to start at least 100 consecutive games since 1978…Diehl's 120 consecutive starts was the 12th-longest streak among all active players and tied for the 6th longest streak among offensive linemen.
- In 2010, Diehl started all 12 games in which he played – 10 at left tackle and 2 at left guard (at Seattle and at Washington)…Inactive with hamstring and hip injuries vs. Dallas (11/14), at Philadelphia (11/21), vs. Jacksonville (11/28) and vs. Washington (12/5).
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history.
- The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, Diehl was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl. He played the entire game at left tackle in the NFC's 41-34 loss…Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Rosie Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha – also a tackle, guard and center – all received the honor…Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure…Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, Diehl was selected to the All-NFC team by the Pro Football Writers Association….He was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Diehl and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- With the line opening holes, the Giants rushed for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history.
- Diehl and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, Diehl started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games at left tackle. Diehl was a key component of an offense that helped the Giants score 373 points (the 5th-highest total in franchise history) and compile 321 first downs (the 4th-highest total by a Giants team) and 5,302 yards (7th in team history). The line's blocking enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game.
- Diehl and the line allowed just 4 total sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 30-Oct. 28.
- Started at left tackle at Dallas (9/9) and provided enough pass protection for Eli Manning to pass for 312 yards on 28-of-41 passes and 4 touchdowns.
- Giants offensive line allowed 1 sack at Atlanta (10/15) and provided enough protection for the Giants offense to gain a season–high 491 yards of total offense.
- In the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20) the offensive line allowed 2 sacks but provided enough blocking and protection for the Giants to gain 380 yards of total offense.
- In 2006, Diehl started the first 15 games at left guard before shifting to tackle for the regular season finale and the NFC Wild Card Game. Started at left tackle at Washington (12/30), where the line allowed 1 sack and provided enough run blocking for the Giants to rush for 261 rushing yards, including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber…Also played left guard in the game after Grey Ruegamer was sidelined temporarily in the 1st half with a leg laceration.

- Started at left tackle in the NFC Wild Card game at Philadelphia (1/7)…Run blocking helped the Giants gain 151 yards on 31 rushes.
- In 2005, started 15 games (plus the NFC Wild Card Game) at left guard and 1 at right tackle. The line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards…Pass blocking helped Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history.
- Blocking at left guard helped Barber rush for 203 yards, including a franchise-best 95-yard touchdown run, at Oakland (12/31).
- Started at right tackle in place of Kareem McKenzie vs. Kansas City (12/17) and line's blocking enabled Barber to rush for a then-team record 220 yards.
- Started at left guard at Philadelphia (12/11), but moved to right tackle when McKenzie was forced to leave the game in the 2nd quarter due to injury. Offensive line allowed 1 sack and provided enough blocking and protection for the Giants to gain 437 yards of total offense.
- In 2004, Diehl started all 16 games at right tackle. He missed a snap for the 1st time in his career when he left the game for a play in the 4th quarter with a cut below the eye at Green Bay (10/3). Returned to the game and helped the Giants rush for 245 yards.
- In 2003, Diehl played right guard and became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985…Was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games…Was 1 of only 3 offensive linemen on the roster to see action in all 16 games, was 1 of only 2 to start every game during the year and was the only one to start at the same position each game during the 2003 season.

COLLEGE:
- Second-team All-Big Ten Conference selection as a senior in 2002.
- Recipient of the Wright Commitment to Excellence Award, presented to the Illinois player who has dedicated himself to academic excellence despite obstacles faced during his collegiate career.
- As a senior, started every game at left guard, registering 91 knockdowns for an offense that featured its first 1,000-yard rusher and 1,000-yard receiver in the same season since 1984. Helped offense total 5,356 yards.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:
- David is a strong supporter of Project Sunshine, a nonprofit organization that provides free educational, recreational, and social programs to children facing medical challenges and their families. Besides making regular hospital visits through the organization, David hosted his 1st Annual Project Sunshine BBQ last summer at Woodhull Hospital in Brooklyn, bringing almost 20 teammates with him to enjoy a day of friendship and good food with kids receiving medical treatments. Project Sunshine sends volunteers to visit hospitalized children to provide arts and crafts, tutoring, reading, nutritional cooking and special events. With 10,000 volunteers in 75 cities across the United States, Canada, China, Israel, Kenya, and Puerto Rico, Project Sunshine serves 60,000 children each year in 150 medical facilities.

Returning kickoffs for the first time in 2009, Hixon had 230 yards on 7 runbacks, including a 68-yarder and a 45-yarder to set up touchdowns. He returned 2 punts – for 27 and 24 yards, the latter setting up another score. Hixon also caught 3 passes for 22 yards. Hixon was the 1st player to gain at least 300 yards in a game since Arizona's Steve Breaston totaled 324 yards on Sept. 28, 2008. Breaston had 192 yards on kickoff returns, 122 receiving and 10 on punt returns.
- Hixon now owns 2 of the 5 largest single-game yardage totals in Giants history. Scott, a halfback who played for the team from 1948-53, set the previous yardage record on Nov. 14, 1948 in a 52-37 loss to the Los Angeles Rams in the Polo Grounds. Like Hixon, Scott gained most of his yards on kickoff returns (207). He also had 22 yards rushing, 35 receiving and 15 after fielding laterals. Tiki Barber's 276-yard effort vs. Philadelphia on Dec, 28, 2002 fell to 3rd on the Giants' one-game list. Barber rushed for 203 yards and caught 8 passes for another 73 yards. Hixon is tied for the 4th spot with wide receiver Del Shofner at 269 yards. In a victory at Arizona on Nov. 23, 2008, Hixon had 180 yards returning kickoffs, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns and an 11-yard rush. Shofner had 269 receiving yards on Oct. 28, 1962, the day Y.A. Tittle tied an NFL record with 7 touchdown passes vs. Washington.
- Hixon was the first Giants player with 2 punt returns of at least 24 yards apiece in a game since Barber did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999…His 230 kickoff return yards in New Orleans were the 2nd-highest total in Giants history. Willie Ponder had 259 kickoff return yards vs. Pittsburgh on Dec. 18, 2004.
- Hixon was selected as the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his performance in the Giants' 31-24 victory vs. Dallas (12/6)…He returned 3 punts for 95 yards and 4 kickoffs for 70 yards and made one of the game's biggest plays when he ran back a punt 79 yards for a touchdown to increase the Giants' lead to 31-17 with 5:33 remaining in the game…It was the Giants' 1st punt return touchdown since Sept. 11, 2005, when Chad Morton brought one back 52 yards in a victory over Arizona. The Giants had gone 74 regular season games and 7 postseason games without a punt return touchdown. Hixon's punt return was the Giants' longest since Barber's 85-yard touchdown on Oct. 18, 1999 – also against Dallas. Hixon was the first Giant to be named Special Teams Player of the Week since linebacker Chase Blackburn in Week 9 of the 2008 season. He was the first Giants player to be honored for his returning exploits since Amani Toomer in Week 8 of the 1997 season (when Toomer scored on a 53-yard punt return).
- In 2008, played in all 16 games with 7 starts and started the NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia….Caught 43 passes for a team-high 596 yards and 2 touchdowns…Also had 2 rushes for 26 yards…Returned a team-high 24 punts for 242 yards, a 10.1-yard average, and 3 punts for 180 yards.

- Had a career-high 102 receiving yards vs. Seattle (10/5). That included a 32-yard score that was the 1st touchdown reception of his career – on his 8th catch. It was his 2nd career score; he returned a kickoff 74 yards for a touchdown on Dec. 29, 2007 vs. New England.
- Hixon gained 269 total yards (180 on kickoff returns, 57 receiving, 21 on punt returns, plus an 11-yard rush) at Arizona (11/23), which was then tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history.
- In 2007, played the first 4 games of the season with Denver and the final 12, plus the playoffs, with the Giants…Hixon caught 1 pass for 5 yards and returned 8 kickoffs for 221 yards (a 27.6-yard average) and 1 touchdown for the Giants…He also had 12 kickoff returns for 274 yards and 7 punt returns for 32 yards for the Broncos…In the postseason, Hixon set a Giants postseason record with 290 kickoff return yards on 12 runbacks.
- Made his only start of the season when the Giants opened the game in a 4-wide receiver formation vs. Washington (12/16), but did not have any receptions…Had 3 special teams tackles…Assumed kickoff returns vs. New England (12/29) due to Ahmad Bradshaw's calf injury…Took advantage of the opportunity by returning 8 kickoffs for 221 yards including a 74-yard touchdown in the 2nd quarter….It was the Giants' 1st kickoff return touchdown since Willie Ponder brought 1 back 95 yards vs. Arizona on Sept. 11, 2005.
- Returned 2 kickoffs for 37 yards and had a special teams tackle in the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6)…Returned 3 kickoffs for 93 yards and added a special teams tackle in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)…Returned 5 kickoffs for 121 yards with a long return of 36 yards in the NFC Championship Game at Green Bay (1/20)…Made a key recovery late in the 4th quarter of an R.W. McQuarters fumble on a punt return with the score tied 20-20…Also had 1 special teams tackle…Returned 2 kickoffs for 39 yards in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3).
- In 2006, Hixon was selected by the Broncos in the 4th round of the NFL Draft…Was placed on the reserve/non-football injury list on Aug. 29 with a left foot injury suffered while preparing for the draft…Hixon, who did not play in any preseason games, spent his rookie season on that list with Denver.

COLLEGE:

- Hixon started 44 career games at the University of Akron, posting 20 starts as a free safety during his first 2 seasons and 24 as a wide receiver in his final 2 years…He caught 141 passes for 2,092 yards (14.8-yard avg.) with 14 touchdowns while returning 42 punts for 475 yards (11.3-yard avg.) with 1 touchdown…Added 49 kickoff returns for 1,171 yards (23.9-yard avg.) with 1 touchdown.
- Defensively, Hixon totaled 176 career tackles (117 solo), 1 interception, 3 pass breakups and 2 fumble recoveries…He was a team captain as a senior, starting all 13 games and setting school single-season records with 75 receptions and 1,210 yards (the nation's 8th-highest total) and 8 touchdowns…Was a 2nd-team All-Mid-American Conference choice.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY

- Adopted Lyndhurst (N.J.) Public Schools in spring 2009 and Carlstadt (N.J.) Public Schools in 2010 for the Giants' Play60 Challenge, making multiple visits to encourage the kids to play 60 minutes every day.
- Participated in a high school coaching internship at Orange (N.J.) High School.

PERSONAL:

- Hixon was a 2-way standout at Whitehall-Yearling High School in Columbus, Ohio…As a senior, he had 33 receptions for 429 yards and 4 touchdowns, plus 140 tackles, 5 sacks and 4 interceptions as an honorable mention all-district choice…Hixon also was an honorable mention all-state point guard on Whitehall-Yearling's basketball team and was a 3-year letterwinner in baseball.
- Hixon majored in sports science at Akron…Born Oct. 8, 1984 in Neukirchen, Germany, Hixon moved to Columbus, Ohio, after spending his formative years in Germany.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 4th round (110th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2005.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Jacobs has 4,278 rushing yards and 926 attempts, the 5th-highest total in each category in Giants history.
- Jacobs' 49 rushing touchdowns tie him with Rodney Hampton for 2nd on the Giants' career list. Tiki Barber is 1st with 55.
- Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards in 2008 after running for 1,009 yards in 2007 to become the 4th running back in Giants history to rush for 1,000 or more yards in at least 2 consecutive seasons. The others were Joe Morris (1985-86), Rodney Hampton (1991-95) and Tiki Barber (2002-2006).
- In 2008, Jacobs and Derrick Ward (1,025 yards) became the 4th pair of running backs from the same team – and the 5th set of teammates – to run for at least 1,000 yards in the same season.
- When Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards in 2007 he became the 1st Giants back other than Barber to rush for more than 1,000 yards since Gary Brown in 1998 (1,063).
- Has rushed for at least 100 yards 11 times in the regular season. The Giants are 10-1 in those games.
- Was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October 2007.
- In 2005, he became the 1st Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since 1984.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Jacobs has played in 86 regular season games with 42 starts and played in 7 postseason games with 5 starts…In the regular season, he has rushed for 4,278 yards on 926 carries (a 4.6-yard avg.) and 49 touchdowns…His 4.62-yard average is third-highest in history among Giants backs with at least 500 carries. Ahmad Bradshaw is 1st (4.84) and Tiki Barber is 2nd (4.71).
- Jacobs also has 65 receptions for 602 yards and 3 scores, including a 74-yarder.
- In postseason play, Jacobs has rushed for 297 yards on 83 carries (a 3.6-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns and added 4 catches for 29 yards and a score.
- In 2010, played in all 16 games with 5 starts…Jacobs was 2nd on the team, 9th in the NFC and 22nd in the NFL with 823 rushing yards. His 5.60-yard average was tied for the 2nd-highest among the league's top 50 rushers and was the 2nd-highest in history among Giants backs who qualified for the NFL rushing title. Derrick Ward averaged 5.63 yards in 2008.
- Jacobs was the 4th Giant with at least 500 rushing yards in 4 consecutive seasons, joining Joe Morris (1984-88), Rodney Hampton (1991-96) and Tiki Barber (2000-2006).
- Had two 100-yard games to increase his career total to 11, which ties him with Eddie Price for 4th on the Giants' career list. The Giants are 10-1 in those games. When Jacobs rushed for 103 yards (on only 8 carries, a 12.9-yard average) vs. Washington (12/5), it was his first 100-yard game since Nov. 9, 2008, when he ran for 126 yards in a victory at Philadelphia.
- Jacobs increased his career total to 4,278 yards, which is the 5th-highest total in Giants history. He is 360 yards behind No. 4 Alex Webster.
- Jacobs' 73-yard run vs. the Vikings was by far the longest of his career. His previous long run was 44 yards vs. Seattle on Oct. 5, 2008. It was the longest run by a Giants player since Nov. 16, 2008, when Bradshaw had a 77-yard gain vs. Baltimore.
- Jacobs' 9 rushing touchdowns increased his career total to 49, which ties him with Rodney Hampton for 2nd on the Giants' career list. Barber is first with 55. Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for 8 scores, giving the Giants 2 players with at least 8 rushing touchdowns in the same season for the 1st time.
- When Jacobs and Bradshaw each rushed for a pair of touchdowns vs. Washington (12/5), it was only the 4th time in their history the Giants had 2 players run for at least 2 scores in the same game.
- In Bradshaw (1,235) and Jacobs (823) the Giants were 1 of just 2 teams in 2010 with 2 800-yard rushers. Kansas City was the other (with Jamaal Charles and Thomas Jones). It was just the 2nd time the Giants had 2 800-yard runners in the same season. In 2008, Jacobs rushed for 1,089 yards and Derrick Ward added 1,025.
- Since 2006, 4 different Giants backs have rushed for at least 1,000 yards – Barber, Jacobs, Ward and Bradshaw. No other team has more than 3 1,000-yard rushers in those 5 seasons (Tennessee with Travis Henry, LenDale White and Chris Johnson).
- In a victory vs. Minnesota (in Detroit on 12/13), the Giants rushed for 213 yards, their highest total since they ran for 220 yards vs. Oakland on Oct. 11, 2009. Jacobs (116 yards on 14 carries) and Bradshaw (103 yards on 11 attempts) each rushed for more than 100 yards. It was only the 2nd time in history the Giants had 2 100-yard rushers in the same game. It last happened at Buffalo on Dec. 23, 2007, when the runners were Jacobs (145 yards on 24 carries) and Bradshaw (151 yards on 17 attempts).
- In 2009, started all 15 games in which he played, his highest total since becoming the Giants' No. 1 back in 2007. He led the team in rushing yards for the 3rd consecutive season with 835, ending the team's streak of consecutive seasons with a 1,000-yard rusher at 7…Increased his career total to 3,455 yards, which is 7th in franchise history…Scored 5 touchdowns to increase his career total to 40, which is 4th in franchise history…With 33 yards at New Orleans (10/18), Jacobs became the 10th player in Giants history with at least 3,000 rushing yards.

- Caught 18 passes for 184 yards, including a career-long 74-yard touchdown vs. Dallas (12/6). It was the longest touchdown reception by a Giants running back since Dec. 6, 1998, when Tiki Barber scored on an 87-yarder at Arizona…Also scored on a 1-yard touchdown run against the Cowboys to become the 1st Giant to score touchdowns rushing and receiving in the same game since Ahmad Bradshaw at St. Louis on Sept. 14, 2008. Jacobs had previously accomplished the feat in the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay on Jan. 6, 2008 (with a 5-yard catch and an 18-yard run)…Rushed for a season-high 92 yards in consecutive games at Tampa Bay (9/27) and at Kansas City (10/4)…Was placed on injured reserve with a knee injury and did not play at Minnesota (1/3).
- In 2008, started all 13 regular season games in which he played and started the NFC Divisional Game vs. Philadelphia…Jacobs finished the regular season with 1,089 yards on 219 carries (a 5.0-yard avg.) and a career-high 15 touchdowns...He also caught 6 passes for 36 yards…Missed 3 games due to knee injury (at Arizona 11/23, at Dallas 12/14, and at Minnesota 12/28).
- His 15 touchdowns made him just the 2nd player in Giants history to rush for at least 15 touchdowns in a season. Joe Morris ran for a team-record 21 scores in 1985. Jacobs' 15 touchdowns tied for 3rd in the NFL with the Jets' Thomas Jones and Tennessee's LenDale White. DeAngelo Williams was 1st with 20, followed by Michael Turner with 17.
- Ran for 73 yards on 11 carries with 2 touchdowns vs. Baltimore (11/16), to help the Giants rush for 207 yards against the NFL's No. 1 run defense, which had allowed an average of 65.4 rushing yards a game and not more than 76 yards in any game… It was the Giants' 3rd consecutive 200-yard game…Jacobs' 2 touchdowns came in the 1st quarter on 1-yard runs and increased his season total to a career-high 11, 2 more than he had in 2006. He became the 1st Giant to score double-digit touchdowns since Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdowns passes in 2006 and the 1st to run for at least 10 scores since Barber ran for 13 in 2004. It was the 11th time in Giants history a player reached double digits in rushing touchdowns in a season…Had a career-long 44-yard run vs. Seattle (10/5).
- Had a career-high 3 rushing touchdowns vs. Carolina (12/21), to become the 1st Giant to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Burress caught 3 touchdown passes at Dallas on Sept. 9, 2007 and the 1st to run for 3 scores since Barber did it at Washington on Dec. 30, 2006.
- In 2007, he played in 11 regular season games with 9 starts and started all 4 postseason games. Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards and 4 touchdowns on 202 carries, despite missing 5 games and most of a 6th with knee and hamstring injuries. Jacobs was the 1st Giants back other than Barber to rush for more than 1,000 yards since Gary Brown in 1998 (1,063)…Rushed for at least 100 yards 5 times.
- Jacobs combined with Burress (1,025 receiving yards) to give the Giants a 1,000-yard rusher and receiver in the same season for the 7th time in their history.
- During the 2007 postseason, Jacobs rushed for a touchdown in each of the Giants' first 2 postseason victories and became the 1st Giant to run for a touchdown in consecutive postseason games since Ottis Anderson on Jan. 25, 1987 (Super Bowl XXI) and Jan. 7, 1990 (NFC Divisional Playoff Game)…Jacobs scored the Giants' first 2 touchdowns at Tampa Bay on a 5-yard pass from Eli Manning and an 8-yard run to become the 1st Giant in history to score a rushing and a receiving touchdown in the same postseason game…Jacobs was the 1st Giants running back to catch a touchdown pass in a postseason game since fullback Greg Comella in the 2000 NFC Championship Game. Prior to that, the last Giants back with a postseason touchdown catch was Leon Bright at Philadelphia on Dec. 27, 1981.
- Missed 3 games in September 2007 with a knee injury suffered on opening night in Dallas, where he rushed for 26 yards on 6 carries.
- Was named NFC Offensive Player of the Month for October 2007, when the Giants were 4-0, scored an NFC-high 112 points and led the NFL with 705 rushing yards. Jacobs – and the offensive line that opened the holes for him – were key components to that success…Jacobs led the league with 424 rushing yards during the month. He set career highs with the first 3 100-yard games of his career. Jacobs averaged 5.7 yards on his 74 carries, caught 6 passes for 24 yards and scored 2 touchdowns in October.
- Returned to action after missing 3-plus games with a knee injury and rushed for 100 yards on 20 carries, including a 19-yard touchdown vs. Jets (10/07). It was the 1st 100-yard game of his career. Jacobs became the first Giant other than Tiki Barber to rush for 100 yards since Ron Dayne ran for 111 yards against New Orleans on Sept. 30, 2001. Barber had the Giants' previous 37 100-yard rushing games (including 1 in the postseason).
- Missed games vs. Minnesota (11/25) and at Chicago (12/2) with a hamstring injury.
- Finished with a career-high 145 yards on 24 carries with 2 touchdowns at Buffalo (12/23)…Scored twice in the 2nd quarter, on runs of 6 and 43 yards, then the longest run of his career…Helped the Giants rush for 289 yards, their highest total since they rushed for 289 yards on Dec. 21, 1985 in a 28-10 victory over Pittsburgh…Bradshaw, then a rookie, rushed for 151 yards and a touchdown to give the Giants 2 100-yard rushers in the same game for the 1st time in their history. The Giants became the 1st team to have 2 runners with 140 or more yards in the same game since Nov. 11, 2001, when St. Louis' Marshall Faulk ran for 183 yards and Trung Canidate added 145 in a game against Carolina.
- In 2006, Jacobs played in 15 games (he suited up but did not play vs. New Orleans) and the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia…Finished the season with 96 carries for 423 yards and a team-best 9 rushing touchdowns…Added 11 receptions for 149 yards, with a long catch of 43 yards…Scored touchdowns on runs of 1 and 8 yards on his only 2 carries of the game vs. Chicago (11/12).
- As a rookie in 2005, played in all 16 games…Was used primarily in short-yardage and goal-line situations and on special teams…Finished with 38 carries for 99 yards and 7 touchdowns, with a long run of 21 yards…Converted 20-of-32 opportunities on rushing attempts of 4 or less yards to go…Jacobs was the 1st Giants rookie to score 7 touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the 1st to rush for 7 touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943…Scored touchdowns in each of his first 2 games, the 1st Giants rookie to accomplish that feat since Barber in 1997. Scored on a 5-yard run vs. Arizona (9/11) and a 1-yard run at New Orleans (9/19)…Carried 6 times for season-high 39 yards and scored a touchdown in his NFL debut vs. the Cardinals.

COLLEGE:
- Played at 3 schools: Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College, Auburn and Southern Illinois. In 42 games at the 3 stops, he rushed for 4,003 yards with 52 touchdowns on 595 carries (6.7-yard avg.), caught 12 passes for 136 yards (11.3-yard avg.) and returned 6 kickoffs for 140 yards (23.3-yard avg.).
- Jacobs was perhaps the most highly-touted transfer in Southern Illinois history. He joined fellow transfers Terry Jackson (Minnesota) and Arkee Whitlock (Coffeyville) to form one of the most explosive backfields in college football, one that accounted for 42 of the team's 65 touchdowns and 3,404 of the squad's 6,032 yards in total offense in 2004, his only season with the Salukis.
- Began his collegiate career in 2001 at Coffeyville, where he rushed for 927 yards and 13 touchdowns on 130 carries (7.1-yard avg.) in 10 regular season games, then added 422 yards and 4 scores in playoff action en route to being named to the All-Jayhawk Conference team. The following year, Jacobs led the conference in rushing with 1,638 yards and 17 touchdowns on 243 carries (6.7-yard avg.), and added another 258 yards and 3 scores on 24 carries in the playoffs.
- In 2003 at Auburn, he shared time at halfback with Ronnie Brown and Carnell Williams, who became 2 of the top 9 picks in the 2005 draft. He was 2nd on the team with 72 carries for 446 yards (6.2-yard avg.) and 3 touchdowns.
- Hoping to get an opportunity for more playing time, Jacobs again transferred, this time to Southern Illinois. In his one season there, Jacobs rushed for 922 yards and 19 touchdowns on 150 carries, averages of 6.6 yards a carry and 122.1 yards a game.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

2006 Atlanta Falcons	Warrick Dunn	1,140
	Michael Vick	1,039
2008 Giants	Brandon Jacobs*	1,089
	Derrick Ward*	1,025

Vick was a quarterback
*Jacobs and Ward rushed for a combined 2,114 yards in 2008, the fourth-highest total by a running back tandem.

Team	Running Backs	Yards
Carolina Panthers	DeAngelo Williams and Jonathan Stewart	2,351
Minnesota Vikings	Adrian Peterson and Chester Taylor	2,159
Atlanta Falcons	Michael Turner and Jerious Norwood	2,188

HEIGHT - 5-11
WEIGHT - 182
COLLEGE - MIAMI
HIGH SCHOOL - SUWANNEE (FLA.)
BIRTHDATE - DECEMBER 18, 1987
HOW ACQUIRED - FREE AGENT (2009)
NFL EXP. - 3RD YEAR
GIANTS EXP. - 3RD YEAR

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally signed as a rookie free agent by the Giants on May 8, 2009.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in a training camp practice on Aug. 4, 2011.
- Overcame long odds as a rookie free agent to make the final roster…Played in every game as a rookie and was continuing to develop before his 2nd season was cut short by a knee injury.

CAREER-HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 21 games with 5 starts…Totals include 36 tackles (28 solo), 2 interceptions, 1 sack, 10 passes defensed, 2 forced fumbles and 14 special teams tackles (11 solo).
- In 2010, played in 5 games with no starts…Had 1 solo tackle on defense and 4 on special teams…Was inactive vs. Chicago (10/3)…Placed on injured reserve with a knee injury on Nov. 1.
- As a rookie in 2009, played in all 16 games with 4 starts…Contributed 35 tackles (27 solo), 2 interceptions, a sack, 10 passes defensed and 2 forced fumbles…Also had 10 special teams tackles (7 solo)…In his 2nd pro game (at Dallas, 9/20), Johnson scored the Giants' 1st touchdown when he intercepted a Tony Romo pass intended for Roy Williams and returned it 34 yards for a touchdown with 2:46 remaining in the first quarter. The score gave the Giants a 10-7 lead…It was the Giants' first touchdown on an interception return since Nov. 16, 2008, when Aaron Ross brought one back 50 yards for a score in a victory over Baltimore…Johnson's touchdown was reminiscent of a score under similar circumstances 4 years prior. On Oct. 23, 2006, Kevin Dockery – like Johnson, a rookie free agent cornerback – picked off a Romo pass and ran it back for a touchdown.
- Made his 1st career start vs. Philadelphia (12/13)…Finished with 2 tackles and his 1st career sack, a 12-yarder on which he forced Donovan McNabb to fumble. The ball was recovered by Fred Robbins…Intercepted his 2nd pass of the season at Washington (12/21) when he picked off punter Hunter Smith at the end of the 1st half.

COLLEGE
- Finished career at Miami with 74 tackles (57 solo), 2 interceptions and 14 pass breakups…As a senior, played in 12 games with 11 starts at right cornerback, missing a start at N.C. State...Second-leading tackler among defensive backs with 29 (24 solo).

- Attended the Jay Fund's Annual Champions for Children's Gala in New York City.
- Attended Giants Kickoff Luncheon benefitting Hackensack University Medical Center.
- Participated in high school coaching internship at Hackensack (N.J.) High School.

PERSONAL
- As a senior at Suwannee High School in Florida, had 61 tackles (44 solo), 1 sack, 17 assists, 1 forced fumble, 3 recovered fumbles, 12 pass breakups and 2 interceptions.

PRO BOWL: 2008

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:

- Originally a 1st round (1st pick overall) draft choice by the San Diego Chargers in 2004. Obtained by the Giants in a trade for quarterback Philip Rivers (whom the Giants had taken with the 4th pick), the Giants' 2004 3rd-round pick, and 2005 1st and 5th-round picks.

GIANTS NOTES:

- Followed his father, Archie, and brother, Peyton, into the NFL…Archie was the 2nd pick of the 1971 draft and played 14 years with New Orleans, Houston and Minnesota. Peyton was the 1st choice of the 1998 draft, is a 4-time NFL Most Valuable Player and was the winning quarterback in Super Bowl XLI.
- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19-of-34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands. It was the 22nd time in Super Bowl history a quarterback was named MVP and the 2nd year in a row a Manning won the award.
- Manning was the 27th different starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl (the total is now 29) and the 2nd Manning. Peyton led the Indianapolis Colts to the title in 2006. The Mannings were the 18th set of brothers to play in the Super Bowl and the 1st pair of brothers to play quarterback.
- Manning joined Phil Simms in Super Bowl XXI and Ottis Anderson in Super Bowl XXV as Giants who have won the Super Bowl MVP award.
- Manning was the 7th quarterback taken with the 1st overall selection in the NFL Draft to start a Super Bowl. The others are Terry Bradshaw (4-0 in Super Bowls), Jim Plunkett (2-0), John Elway (2-3), Troy Aikman (3-0), Drew Bledsoe (0-1) and Peyton Manning (1-1). The former No. 1 choices are 13-5 in Super Bowls.
- Manning was the 4th starting quarterback for the Giants in their 4 Super Bowls. The others were Phil Simms, Jeff Hostetler and Kerry Collins. The Giants are the 1st team to start a different quarterback in each of their first 4 Super Bowls. Only 2 other teams have started 4 different quarterbacks in a Super Bowl, though not in the franchise's first 4 games. The Raiders started Daryle Lamonica, Ken Stabler, Jim Plunkett and Rich Gannon. Washington's 4 Super Bowl quarterbacks were Billy Kilmer, Joe Theismann, Doug Williams and Mark Rypien.
- Manning was the 1st quarterback to wear No. 10 and win a Super Bowl. The only other starting quarterback to wear No. 10 in a Super Bowl was Minnesota's Fran Tarkenton in Super Bowls VIII, IX and XI.
- Manning's arrival marked the 1st time the Giants came out of a draft with the top player selected since 1965, when they chose Auburn running back Tucker Fredrickson.
- Record as a starting quarterback is 60-43 (.583) in the regular season and 4-3 (.571) in the postseason. The 60 victories are the 2nd-most by a Giants quarterback since the Giants Stadium era began in 1976. Simms won 95 games from 1979-93. Manning is 46-30 against the NFC and 14-13 vs. the AFC. He is 23-16 in NFC East games, 30-22 at home and 30-21 on the road.
- Manning's record as a starter in October to 20-4 (.833), the best of any quarterback with at least 20 starts in the Super Bowl era.
- Manning has started the Giants' last 103 regular season games, the 2nd-longest streak among active quarterbacks. At the end of the 2010 season, Peyton Manning had started 208 games in a row. Eli Manning's 103 consecutive starts is the sixth-longest by a quarterback in NFL history.
- Manning's 103 consecutive starts is a record for Giants quarterbacks. The previous mark of 69 starts in a row was set by Fran Tarkenton from 1967-71.
- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 6 consecutive seasons, the 1st to have two 4,000-yard seasons and the 1st to throw at least 20 touchdown passes 6 years in a row.
- Manning is 1 of 3 quarterbacks to throw for at least 3,000 yards every season from 2005-10. The others are Peyton Manning and Drew Brees. He is one of 3 quarterbacks with at least 20 touchdown passes in each of the last 6 seasons, joining Brees and Peyton Manning.
- With 156 career touchdown passes, Manning is the 4th quarterback to throw more than 100 touchdown passes in a Giants uniform, joining Simms (199), Charlie Conerly (173) and Tarkenton (103).
- Played in his 1st Pro Bowl following the 2008 season to become the 1st Giants quarterback to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Phil Simms in 1993.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 105 regular season games with starts in his last 103 appearances and has started all 7 postseason games in which he's played. In the regular season, Manning has completed 1,932-of-3,332 pass attempts (58.0 percent) for 22,646 yards with 156 touchdowns, 113 interceptions, 14 300-yard games, a long pass of 92 yards and a career passer rating of 80.2. He is 2nd in franchise history in attempts, completions and yards and 3rd in touchdown passes, interceptions and 300-yard games…Manning's career completion percentage of 57.98 is 2nd in Giants history among quarterbacks with at least 1,000 attempts. Kerry Collins is first at 58.51 (1,447-2,473)…44 of his 156 touchdown passes (28.2 percent) were in the 4th quarter or overtime.

- Manning's 194 career postseason passes, 113 completions and 1,297 yards leave him 2nd on the franchise's playoff lists in all 3 categories. He trails Simms, who threw 279 passes and had 157 completions and 1,679 yards. Manning's 8 postseason touchdown passes place him 3rd, behind Simms (10) and Collins (9).
- In 2010, Manning started all 16 games for the 6th consecutive season and completed 339-of-539 passes (62.9 percent) for 4,002 yards, 31 touchdowns and 25 interceptions. He had four 300-yard passing games…He was 1 of 4 players to thrown every 1 of his team's passes in 2010. The others were Indianapolis' Peyton Manning, Houston's Matt Schaub and St. Louis' Sam Bradford.
- The 339 completions and 62.9 completion percentage were both franchise single-season records. The previous records were 335 completions by Collins in 2002 and the 62.8 completion percentages by Jeff Hostetler in 1991 and Kurt Warner in 2004.
- Manning's 539 passes were the 2nd-highest total of his career (he threw 557 passes in 2005) and was the 4th-highest total in Giants history (Collins threw 568 passes in 2001 and 545 in 2002).
- His 31 touchdown passes were the 3rd-highest total in Giants history and the most by a Giants quarterback in 47 years. Y.A. Tittle threw 36 in 1963 and 33 in 1962.
- Manning is the 1st Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons. He threw for 4,021 yards in 2009. Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984) are the only other Giants to pass for more than 4,000 yards.
- Manning's 4,002 yards were the 5th-highest total in the NFL. He was among a record 22 quarterbacks to throw for more than 3,000 yards in 2010.
- His 31 touchdown passes were the league's 4th-highest total. Manning was 1 of 11 quarterbacks to throw for at least 25 touchdowns in 2010.
- Manning tied a franchise record by throwing 25 interceptions, a total previously reached by Frank Filchock in 1946 and Charlie Conerly in 1953.
- Manning threw career-long touchdown passes on consecutive weeks: an 85-yarder at Green Bay on Dec. 26 and a 92-yarder on Jan. 2 at Washington, both to Mario Manningham. The 92-yard throw was the NFL's longest play from scrimmage in the 2010 season. It was the 3rd-longest pass in Giants history, exceeded only by Earl Morrall's 98-yard throw to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966 and Norm Snead's 94-yarder to Rich Houston vs. Dallas on Sept. 24, 1972.
- Manning set franchise records for the most attempts (3,169), completions (1,838), passing yards (21,465) and touchdown passes (148) in a player's first 100 games as a Giant.
- Manning threw a career-high 34 completions vs. Dallas on Nov. 14 and had 33 completions against Tennessee on Sept. 26.
- Manning threw a career-high 48 passes without being sacked on Nov. 14 vs. Dallas.
- On Nov. 21, Manning started the Giants' game in Philadelphia 6 years to the day after his 1st game as the Giants' starting quarterback. On Nov. 21, 2004, the Giants lost to Atlanta, 14-10. The Falcons' starting quarterback in that game was Vick, who was the Eagles' starter last Nov. 21.
- Manning twice tied his career high by throwing 4 touchdown passes: at Dallas (10/25) and vs. Philadelphia (12/19)…He was sacked just 16 times all season and was not sacked in a 5-game stretch from Nov. 7 through Dec. 5…Threw for a season-high 386 yards vs. Tennessee (9/26)…Had a season-high passer rating of 125.8 at Seattle (11/7), where he completed 21-of-32 passes for 290 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions.
- In 2009, Manning started all 16 games and completed 317-of-509 passes (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs…The 509 attempts were the 8th-highest single-season total in team history and the 317 completions and completion percentage were both 3rd.
- Manning became the 3rd quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Simms (4,044 in 1984). An NFL record 10 quarterbacks broke that barrier in the 2009 season.
- Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass in every game except the losses in Denver and Minnesota.
- Manning played only the first 5 series in a 44-7 rout of Oakland (10/11) and left the game with a perfect passer rating of 158.3. He completed 8-of-10 passes for 173 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions. The previous Giants quarterback to finish a game with a perfect rating was Collins at Indianapolis on Dec. 22, 2002, when he completed 23-of-29 passes for 366 yards, 4 touchdowns and no interceptions in a 44-27 victory.
- Manning completed 19-of-26 passes for 268 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions at Washington (12/21) for a passer rating of 144.4 that was the 2nd-highest of his career, topped only by his 158.3 rating vs. Oakland. His previous best rating on the road was 131.4 at St. Louis on Sept. 14, 2008.
- The game at Washington was the 2nd week in a row Manning threw for 3 scores without an interception and was the 2nd time in Manning's career he threw 3 touchdown passes in consecutive games. He did it at Philadelphia and Seattle on Sept. 17 and 24, 2006. The Giants are 10-2 in games in which Manning throws 3 touchdown passes.
- When Manning threw his 100th touchdown pass at Dallas, he became the 111th quarterback in NFL history to reach that mark. Eli and Peyton Manning are the first pair of brothers to each throw for 100 touchdowns in their career.
- Manning twice threw for career-high yardage totals in 2009. He passed for 384 yards vs. Atlanta (11/22) and 391 yards vs. Philadelphia (12/13). They were the 9th and 10th 300-yard games of his career, but his first 2 at home. The Giants are 6-4 when Manning throws for at least 300 yards.
- The Giants had 62 pass plays of 20 or more yards in 2009, which left them tied for 5th in the NFL. Manning accounted for 60 of those plays and ranked 5th among the league's quarterbacks.
- Manning threw 3 touchdown passes of at least 60 yards in 2 weeks: 1 vs. Dallas (12/6) and 2 vs. Philadelphia (12/13). He was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 2 touchdown passes of 60 or more yards in the same game since Collins did it vs. the Jets on Dec. 5, 1999 (scores of 61 and 80 yards to Amani Toomer). The last Giants quarterback to accomplish the feat in back-to-back games was Simms on Sept. 2 and 9, 1984, also in home games vs. Philadelphia and Dallas.
- Manning rushed for a career-best 34 yards at Philadelphia on Nov. 1. That was the highest total by a Giants quarterback since Oct. 31, 1999, when Kent Graham ran for 41 yards – also in Philadelphia.
- Manning completed 76 percent of his passes (25-of-33) vs. San Diego (11/8), which tied for the 2nd-best 1-game mark of his career. He hit 79 percent (26-of-33) at Arizona on Nov. 23, 2008 and 76 percent (19-of-25) vs. Seattle on Oct. 5, 2008.

- Manning's 29 completions vs. Carolina (12/27) were his highest total in Giants Stadium. His previous best was 28 completions vs. the Eagles on Dec. 17, 2006.

- In 2008, Manning started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…He led the Giants to their 2nd NFC East championship in his 4 full seasons as a starter and their 4th consecutive postseason berth, a franchise record. Only 1 other QB had then led his team to the playoffs in 4 consecutive seasons – Peyton Manning.

- Manning completed 289-of-479 passes (60.3 percent) for 3,238 yards, 21 touchdowns and 10 interceptions for a passer rating of 86.4. The completion percentage and rating were then career highs. It was the 1st time since Manning's rookie season in 2004 – when he started just 9 games – that he did not throw at least 500 passes. The 10 interceptions were his lowest total since he threw 9 as a rookie and were half his 2007 total.

- Manning twice had single-game career-high passer ratings. On Sept. 14 in St. Louis, he completed 20-of-29 passes for 260 yards, 3 touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 131.4. Three weeks later vs. Seattle, Manning completed 19-of-25 passes for 267 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions for a rating of 136.6, the highest of his career, including both regular season and postseason games. His previous best in any game had been a 132.4 rating in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas on Jan. 13.

- When Manning's 4th pass at Cleveland (10/13) was intercepted by safety Brodney Pool it ended a streak of 108 consecutive throws without a pick, the 2nd-longest streak of his career. He threw 124 passes without an interception from Sept. 11 to Oct. 16, 2005, a streak ended by Dallas' Anthony Henry.

- Manning completed 21-of-34 passes for 305 yards, a touchdown and an interception at Washington (11/30). It was his 1st 300-yard game since Oct. 15, 2007.

- Manning was named the NFC Offensive Player of the Month in November and Sporting News' 2008 Pro Athlete of the Year.

- In 2007, Manning started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games and led the Giants to victory in Super Bowl XLII…Completed 297-of-529 passes for 3,336 yards, 23 touchdowns and 20 interceptions. In 4 postseason games, Manning completed 72-of-119 passes (60.5 percent) for 854 yards, 6 touchdowns and 1 interception.

- Tied a career high – and set a personal best in a road game - by throwing 4 touchdown passes while completing 28-of-41 throws for 312 yards at Dallas (9/9). Three of the scoring passes went to Plaxico Burress, the other to Derrick Ward…Left the game in the 4th quarter with a bruised shoulder…Despite the injury, Manning started the next week vs. Green Bay.

- Led the Giants to their 1st victory of the season at Washington (9/23), where he completed 21-of-36 passes, including the game-winning 33-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.

- Manning threw a career high-tying 4 touchdown passes vs. New England (12/29). Two of the scores went to Burress and 1 each to Brandon Jacobs and Kevin Boss…Completed 22-of-32 passes for 251 yards and 1 interception for a passer rating of 118.6.

- Opened postseason play by completing 20-of-27 passes for 185 yards, 2 touchdowns and no interceptions in NFC Wild Card Game victory at Tampa Bay (1/6)…Became the 5th Giants QB to win a postseason game in the Giants Stadium era (since 1976), joining Simms, Jeff Hostetler, Collins and Scott Brunner.

- Completed 12-of-18 passes for 163 yards and 2 touchdowns to Amani Toomer in NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas (1/13)…Manning's rating of 132.4 was then the highest of his career…His 52-yard touchdown pass to Toomer was his longest postseason completion…Successfully engineered a 2-minute drive in the 2nd quarter by completing 4 passes for 56 yards on a 7-play 71-yard drive in just 46 seconds that resulted in a 4-yard touchdown pass to Toomer to tie the game at 14-14 at halftime.

- Played another turnover-free game and set career postseason highs with 40 passes and 21 completions while throwing for 251 yards in minus-23 degree wind chill in the NFC Championship Game victory in Green Bay (1/20)…Increased his streak to 101 consecutive postseason passes without an interception.

- Manning was named the Most Valuable Player of Super Bowl XLII after completing 19-of-34 passes for a career postseason-high 255 yards, 2 touchdowns and an interception that caromed off Steve Smith's hands in the Giants' victory over the New England Patriots…Led the Giants on their game-winning 4th quarter drive by completing 5-of-9 passes for 77 yards and a 13-yard touchdown pass to Burress. The most memorable play on the drive was a 32-yard completion to David Tyree, who secured the ball against his helmet after Manning eluded the grasp of numerous Patriots defensive lineman…Threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Tyree early in the 4th quarter that was set up by passes of 45 yards to Kevin Boss and 17 yards to Smith…Manning was intercepted by cornerback Ellis Hobbs with 11:53 remaining in the 2nd quarter. It was the Giants' 1st offensive turnover in their 4-game postseason. The offense had gone 34 possessions and run 213 plays without turning over the ball. The previous turnover had been in the regular season finale against the Patriots – also an interception by Hobbs of a Manning pass. Manning had thrown 103 consecutive passes without an interception, including 95 in the postseason. He had thrown 111 postseason passes in a row without a pick…Manning threw 2 interceptions in the Giants' last 5 games and Hobbs had both of them.

- In 2006, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game…Completed 301-of-522 regular season passes for 3,244 yards, 24 touchdowns, 18 interceptions and 77.0 QB rating…Manning's 24 touchdown passes matched his 2005 total and left him tied for 4th in the NFL with St. Louis Pro Bowler Marc Bulger…Manning was the 1st Giants quarterback to throw at least 20 touchdown passes in consecutive seasons since Simms did it 3 years in a row from 1984-86.

- Completed a career-high 31 passes on 43 attempts for 371 yards with 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 111.7 at Philadelphia (9/17)…In overtime, Manning completed 8-of-8 passes for 83 yards, including a 31-yard touchdown pass to Burress to give the Giants a 30-24 comeback victory after they trailed by 17 at the start of the 4th quarter.

- Finished with 17 completions on 33 attempts for 172 yards with 3 touchdowns, 0 interceptions, a long pass of 45 yards and a QB rating of 97.0 at Carolina (12/10)…Game long 45-yard pass to Burress was followed by a 28-yard touchdown pass to the same receiver in the 2nd quarter…Threw a season-long 55-yard touchdown pass to Burress vs. New Orleans (12/24).

- Finished with 16 completions on 27 attempts for 161 yards with 2 touchdowns and 1 interception in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07)…The Giants scored on their opening possession when Manning threw a 17-yard touchdown pass to Burress…Tied the game at 20-20 with an 11-yard touchdown pass to Burress in the 4th quarter.

- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game in his 1st full season as the starting quarterback…Led the Giants to the NFC East championship…Completed 294-of-557 passes for 3,762 yards with 24 touchdowns, 17 interceptions, a long completion of 78 yards and a QB rating of 75.9…Manning's 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967…Completed 12-of-24 passes for 204 yards, 1 touchdown and no interceptions in a victory at Oakland (12/31) that clinched the division title…Threw a then career-long 78-yard touchdown pass to Burress.
- Scored on a 1-yard quarterback sneak in the 2nd quarter at Philadelphia (12/11), the 1st rushing touchdown of Manning's career and the 1st by a Giants quarterback since Kurt Warner scored on a 1-yard run vs. Cleveland (9/26/04).
- Threw a career-high 53 passes (completing 29) for 344 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception at Seattle (11/27). The 53 passes were the most thrown by the Giants since Collins had 59 at New England (10/12/03). It was the 12th consecutive game in which Manning threw at least 1 touchdown pass, 3 shy of the Giants record set by Y.A. Tittle from 1962-64.
- Completed 23-of-42 passes for 214 yards, 2 touchdowns and 1 interception vs. Denver (10/23). Led the Giants on 2 touchdown drives in the 4th quarter to secure his 2nd career 4th quarter come-from-behind-victory. His 2-yard touchdown pass to Toomer with 5 seconds remaining in the game gave the Giants a 24-23 victory. On the game-winning 83-yard drive, Manning completed 8-of-13 passes for 68 yards.
- Completed 19-of-35 passes for 296 yards and 4 touchdowns vs. St. Louis (10/2) to become the 1st Giants quarterback to throw 4 touchdown passes in a regular-season game since Collins did it at Indianapolis (12/22/02). Collins matched the feat in an NFC Wild Card playoff game at San Francisco (1/5/03).
- As a rookie in 2004, played in 9 games, including starts in the final 7 games…Rookie record as a starter was 1-6…Improved markedly down the stretch and finished with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, 6 touchdowns and 9 interceptions.
- Earned his 1st NFL victory in the 2004 season finale vs. Dallas, completing 18 of 27 passes for 144 yards, 3 touchdowns, 1 interception and a rating of 101.5…Manning threw touchdown passes of 2 yards to Visanthe Shiancoe in the 2nd quarter, 15 yards to Tyree and 3 yards to Tiki Barber, both in the 4th quarter. Completed a 23-yard pass to Barber to start the Giants game-winning drive and called a run at the line on which Barber scored the deciding touchdown on a 3-yard run with 11 seconds remaining.
- Completed 16-of-23 passes for 182 yards, 2 touchdowns, 1 interception, a long-pass of 49 yards and a season-high rating of 103.9 vs. Pittsburgh (12/18). Threw his 2nd touchdown pass of the season in the 1st quarter, a 2-yarder to Shockey.
- Made his 1st NFL start vs. Atlanta (11/21) and completed 17-of-37 passes for 162 yards, 1 touchdown and 2 interceptions. His 1st NFL touchdown pass was a 6-yarder to Shockey. Coincidently, the initial pro scoring pass for all 3 Manning quarterbacks was 6 yards long. Archie Manning threw a 6-yarder to Dave Parks in 1971. Peyton Manning's 6-yard touchdown pass went to Marvin Harrison on Sept. 6, 1998.
- Manning was the 18th quarterback to start a game for the Giants in the Giants Stadium era (including Craig Morton and Norm Snead, who joined the team earlier and were still on the team when the stadium opened in 1976). He was the 4th quarterback in a row to lose his debut, joining Kerry Collins, Jesse Palmer and Kurt Warner…Of the 14 quarterbacks selected with the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft since 1970, he was the 13th to make his starting debut as a rookie (Cincinnati's Carson Palmer was the exception). The 13 quarterbacks taken with the top pick who started as rookies are 4-9 in their debuts.
- Saw his 1st NFL regular season action when he replaced Warner with 2:37 remaining in the 4th quarter at Philadelphia (9/12), with the Giants trailing, 31-10. Completed 3-of-9 passes for 66 yards, including a 34-yarder, no touchdowns and no interceptions. Was sacked once and fumbled after being blindsided by Jerome McDougle. On his 1st career snap, he handed the ball off to Barber, who ran 72 yards for a touchdown. Manning's long completion of 34 yards was a short screen pass to Barber on the final drive of the game.

CURRENT CONSECUTIVE GAMES STARTED STREAK BY NFL QBS- REGULAR SEASON GAMES ONLY
Peyton Manning 208
Eli Manning 103
Philip Rivers 78

Including postseason games, the current streaks are Payton Manning with 226, Eli Manning with 110 and Rivers with 85.

On Dec. 3, 2010 vs. the Minnesota Vikings in Detroit, Manning became the 6th quarterback in NFL history to start 100 consecutive regular season games. Ironically, he reached that milestone in the same game in which Brett Favre's NFL-record streak of 297 consecutive starts ended. Favre was inactive with a shoulder injury.

NFL QUARTERBACKS WITH AT LEAST 100 CONSECUTIVE REGULAR SEASON STARTS:

PLAYER	TEAMS	YEARS	CONSECUTIVE STARTS
Brett Favre	Packers, Jets, Vikings	1992-Present	297
Peyton Manning	Colts	1998-Present	208*
Ron Jaworski	Eagles	1977-1984	116
Tom Brady	Patriots	2001-2008	111
Joe Ferguson	Bills	1977-1984	107
Eli Manning	Giants	2004-Present	103*

*Active streak entering the 2011 season.

Since Manning started his first game on Nov. 21, 2004, the other 3 teams in the NFC East have used a total of 20 different starting quarterbacks:

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 3rd round (95th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2008.

GIANTS NOTES:
- Talented receiver was a consistent playmaker the previous 2 seasons, when he totaled 117 catches for 1,776 yards and 14 touchdowns.

CAREER HIGHTLIGHS:
- Has played in 37 games with 18 starts and has career totals of 121 receptions for 1,792 yards (a 14.8-yard average) and 14 touchdowns.
- In 2010, played in all 16 games with 8 starts…Manningham was 2nd on the team with 60 catches for 944 yards and 9 touchdowns…He averaged a team-high 15.7 yards per catch.
- In the final 2 games, Manningham caught Eli Manning touchdown passes of 85 and 92 yards that were 2 of the 9 longest pass plays in the 86-year history of the Giants. Manningham was 1 of just 2 NFL receivers to score on 2 receptions of at least 85 yards in 2010. The other was Philadelphia's DeSean Jackson.
- Manningham had 7 touchdown receptions of 25 or more yards, which placed him 2nd in the league behind Pittsburgh's Mike Wallace, who had 9.
- Manningham tied his career high with 10 receptions vs. Dallas (11/14).
- In the final 3 games (vs. Philadelphia, at Green Bay and at Washington), Manningham caught 16 passes for 346 yards, a 21.6-yard average, and 4 touchdowns. In order, Manningham totaled 113, 132 and 101 yards in those 3 games to become the 1st Giants receiver with 3 consecutive 100-yard games since Homer Jones in 1968.
- Manningham's 132 yards at Green Bay were the most by a Giants receiver since Steve Smith had 134 at Kansas City on Oct. 4, 2009.
- In 2009, he played in 14 games with 10 starts…Inactive at Philadelphia (11/1) and at Minnesota (1/3) due to shoulder injury…Caught at least 1 pass in every game in which he played.
- Finished second on the Giants with 57 catches, 822 yards and a 14.4-yard average and tied for 3rd (with Kevin Boss) with 5 touchdown receptions.
- Manningham posted two 100-yard games: 150 yards at Kansas City (10/4) and 126 yards vs. Atlanta (11/22).
- Manningham had career-high totals of 10 receptions for 150 yards at Kansas City, where Steve Smith had 10 receptions for 134 yards.
- It was the first career 100-yard game for each player. They were the first pair of Giants receivers with at least 100 yards apiece in the same game since Sept. 17, 2006, when Amani Toomer had 137 yards on 12 catches and Plaxico Burress had 114 yards on 6 receptions in an overtime victory in Philadelphia.
- Manningham caught 6 passes vs. San Diego (11/8), vs. Atlanta (11/22) and vs. Carolina (12/27).
- Opened the season vs. Washington (9/13), with 3 catches for 58 yards, including a 30-yard touchdown, the 1st of his career.
- Made his 1st career start at Tampa Bay (9/17) and had 4 catches for 55 yards.
- As a rookie in 2008, played in 7 games and contributed 4 receptions for 26 yards, 1 rush for a 12-yard loss and 2 special teams tackles…Suffered a quad injury that forced him to miss the majority of training camp.
- Made his regular season debut vs. Seattle (10/5) and finished with 1 reception for 4 yards…Saw extensive playing time at wide receiver in the 2nd half at Minnesota (12/28) and had 2 receptions for 21 yards.

COLLEGE:
- Played in 34 games with 24 starts for the Wolverines…In 3 years, he caught 137 passes for 2,310 yards (16.9-yard average) and 27 touchdowns…Ranks 4th in school history with 27 touchdown catches…His 2,310 yards receiving rank 5th in Michigan history…Manningham's 137 receptions placed him 9th on the Wolverine all-time record list…Scored 12 times on receptions in 2007, the 6th-best season total in school history…Manningham's 72 receptions in 2007 placed him 6th on UM's season-record list and his 1,174 yards receiving in 2007 rank 2nd in school annals behind Braylon Edwards' 1,330 yards in 2004…Set a school record with 6 straight 100-yard receiving games in 2007 (vs. Northwestern, Purdue, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan State and Wisconsin), breaking Edwards' old mark of 4 (both in 2003 and '04)…His 3 touchdown catches vs. Notre Dame in 2006 were 1 shy of the school record of 4…With his 106 yards gained receiving vs. Wisconsin in 2005, Manningham joined Toomer (1992), John Kolesar (1985), Carter (1979) and Dick Rifenburg (1944) as the only true freshmen in Michigan history to gain 100 receiving yards in a game…His 97-yard touchdown catch vs. Wisconsin in 2007 set a school record, topping the previous long of 90 yards by Alexander vs. Illinois in 1993…That 97-yarder was the 4th-longest reception in Big Ten history, ranking behind 99-yard catches by Thomas Lewis of Indiana (vs. Penn State, 1993), Vinny Sutherland of Purdue (vs. Northwestern, 1999) and Lee Evans of Wisconsin (vs. Akron, 2003).

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 3rd round (79th pick overall) draft choice by the Jets in 2001…Signed by the Giants as an unrestricted free agent on March 4, 2005.

GIANTS NOTE:
- McKenzie has blocked for 5 NFL running backs who rushed for more than 1,000 yards in a season – Curtis Martin with the Jets and Tiki Barber, Brandon Jacobs, Derrick Ward and Ahmad Bradshaw with the Giants.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 145 career regular season games with 137 starts and started all 11 postseason games in which he's played…Started every game in which he has played the previous 9 seasons…Has played every game in a season 6 times…In his 1st 6 seasons with the Giants, McKenzie started all 89 regular season games and 7 postseason games in which he played at right tackle.
- In 2010, McKenzie started all 16 games at right tackle…Joined Chris Snee and Rich Seubert as the only Giants offensive linemen to start all 16 games in 2010. McKenzie and right guard Snee started every game at the same position.
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history.
- The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish were 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, McKenzie started all 12 games in which he played at right tackle…Inactive vs. Arizona (10/25) due to groin injury. When McKenzie was unable to play vs. the Cardinals, the Giants had a different starter on the offensive line for the first time in a regular season game since the 2006 finale. McKenzie, Chris Snee, Shaun O'Hara, Rich Seubert and David Diehl had started 38 consecutive regular season games together, the longest streak by five offensive linemen since the 1970 merger. The previous mark was 32 games by the Kansas City Chiefs' offensive line in 2002-03…Suffered a sprained MCL in the 2nd quarter vs. Philadelphia (12/13). Did not return and was inactive for the final 3 games… Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure…Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, McKenzie started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at right tackle. The Giants were the only team to start the same 5 linemen in all 32 regular season games in 2007-08.
- McKenzie was an integral part of an offense that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With McKenzie and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- With the line opening holes, the Giants rushed for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history.
- McKenzie and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, started all 16 regular season games and all 4 of the Giants' postseason games at right tackle…Blocking by McKenzie and the O-line enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game. In their 4-game postseason surge that culminated in a Super Bowl XLII victory, the Giants averaged 305.5 yards, including 103.8 on the ground.
- In 2006, started all 15 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right tackle…Was active but did not play vs. Houston (11/5) because of migraine headaches.
- The offensive line helped the Giants rush for 2,156 yards, the 7th-highest total in the NFL…The O-line cleared the holes for the Giants' 261-yard rushing attack at Washington (12/30), including a franchise-record 234 yards by Tiki Barber.
- In 2005, started all 14 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right tackle in his 1st season with the Giants…Was inactive for 2 games with a hamstring injury [vs. Kansas City (12/17) and at Washington (12/24)]…Offensive line provided enough run blocking for Barber to rush for a franchise-record 1,860 yards…The pass blocking enabled Eli Manning to throw for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history…The O-line's outstanding run blocking enabled the Giants to rush for 262 yards vs. Washington (10/30).

- From 2002-04, started every game at right tackle for the Jets. In 2004, also started 2 postseason games and his blocking helped Curtis Martin lead the NFL in rushing with 1,697 yards…The line's blocking helped the Jets gain 396 yards, including 296 passing yards by Chad Pennington, in an AFC Wild Card victory at San Diego (1/8/05).
- In 2003, started all 16 games at right tackle and helped Martin rush for 1,308 yards.
- In 2002, started all 16 games of the regular season for the 1st time in his career, plus 2 postseason games, at right tackle…Was not flagged for a penalty all season.
- Made his 1st career start at right tackle in the season opener at Buffalo (9/8).
- In 2001, played in 8 games as an extra tight end in short-yardage.

COLLEGE:
- Three-year starter who was only the 5th Nittany Lion to earn All-Big Ten Conference honors 3 times…As a senior in 2000, he was an All-Big Ten 2nd-team selection after starting 11 games at left tackle…Collected 54 knockdown blocks as the Lions averaged 325.7 yards per game.
- Was an All-Big Ten Conference 1st-team choice as a junior in 1999, when he was on the field for 908 plays and delivered 85 pancake blocks as the team generated 5,014 yards.
- In 1998, he was All-Big Ten 2nd team after starting the first 9 games at left guard before injuries hampered him late in the season.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (29th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2009.

GIANTS NOTES:
- In 2 seasons, Nicks has established himself as 1 of the Giants' most dynamic players and one of the NFL's finest receivers.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 27 games with 18 starts…Career totals of 126 catches for 1,842 yards and 17 touchdowns are all Giants records for a player in his first 2 seasons.
- In 2010, played in 13 games with 12 starts and was inactive for 3 games (vs. Jacksonville 11/28 and vs. Washington 12/5 with a leg injury and the season finale at Washington with a broken toe)…Had team-high totals of 79 receptions for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns.
- The 79 receptions left Nicks 7th in the NFC and tied for 12th in the NFL. They also tied for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history (Amani Toomer caught 79 passes in 1999).
- Nicks was the 10th player (and 9th wide receiver) in Giants history with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.
- Nicks' 11 touchdown receptions tied Del Shofner (1962) for the 3rd-highest total in Giants history. Mario Manningham added 9 touchdown catches as he and Nicks became the 1st pair of Giants with at least 9 touchdown catches since 1967, when Homer Jones had a franchise-record 13 and Aaron Thomas had 9. Nicks was the 1st Giants receiver to hit double digits since Plaxico Burress had 12 touchdown catches in 2007.
- Nicks had 12 receptions at Houston (10/10), which tied the Giants' record for catches in a game by a wide receiver and was 1 shy of the overall mark. Amani Toomer caught 12 passes at Philadelphia on Sept. 17, 2006. Tight ends Mark Bavaro (Oct. 13, 1985 at Cincinnati) and Jeremy Shockey (Nov. 11, 2007 vs. Dallas) also had 12 receptions in a game. The franchise record is 13, set by running back Tiki Barber at Dallas on Jan. 2, 2000.
- Nicks joined Toomer as the only players in franchise history to record at least 12 catches , 130 yards and 2 touchdowns in a game.
- Nicks, who had 110 yards the previous week vs. Chicago, was the first Giant with more than 100 receiving yards in consecutive games since Burress in 2005. Burress had 113 receiving yards vs. Philadelphia on Nov. 20 and 109 at Seattle on Nov. 27.
- In addition to the Chicago and Houston games, Nicks had 108 yards on 9 catches at Dallas (10/25) and 128 yards on 6 receptions at Seattle (11/7).
- Nicks scored 3 touchdowns in the Giants' season-opening victory over Carolina (on receptions of 26, 19 and 5 yards). He was the first Giants player to score 3 touchdowns in a game since Brandon Jacobs ran in from 2, 1 and 2 yards out on Dec. 21, 2008 – also against Carolina. Nicks was the first Giant to catch 3 touchdown passes in a game since Burress on Sept. 9, 2007 at Dallas. Burress caught Manning passes of 60, 4 and 10 yards that night.
- As a rookie in 2009, played in 14 games with 6 starts…Inactive at Dallas (9/20) and at Tampa Bay (9/27) with a foot injury…Started for the 1st time at Philadelphia (11/1)…Finished the season with 47 receptions for 790 yards, which were 3rd on the team in both categories…Led the team with a 16.8-yard average…His 6 receiving touchdowns were 2nd on the team to Steve Smith (7)…His 68-yard touchdown reception vs. Philadelphia (12/13) was the longest by a Giants wide receiver in 2009.
- The 47 catches and 790 yards were both the 3rd-highest total in history by a Giants rookie. Jeremy Shockey had 74 catches for 894 yards in 2002 and Bobby Johnson had 48 for 795 in 1984…Nicks' 6 touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had 7. Bill Swiacki holds the Giants rookie record with 10 in 1948….Nicks' 790 yards tied for 1st among all NFL rookies with Minnesota's Percy Harvin…From Oct. 18 through Dec. 21, Nicks had a catch longer than 20 yards in 9 straight games to become the 1st rookie to accomplish that feat since Miami's Nat Moore in 1974…Nicks had two 100-yards games: 114 at New Orleans (10/18) and 110 vs. Philadelphia (12/13). Against the Saints, he became the first Giants rookie receiver with at least 100 yards in a game since Jamaar Taylor had 102 yards (on just 2 catches) on Nov. 28, 2004 vs. Philadelphia.
- Nicks caught a touchdown pass in 4 consecutive games from Oct. 4 through Oct. 25, the first Giant to do so since Burress scored in each of the first 6 games of the 2007 season. He was the 1st Giants rookie to score touchdowns in 4 consecutive games since Bob Gaiters scored in 5 straight games in 1961. Nicks was the 1st Giants rookie with a touchdown reception in 4 consecutive games since Swiacki in '48. In addition, Nicks was the 1st NFL rookie with a touchdown catch in 4 straight games since Buffalo's Lee Evans in 2004.
- Nicks was named the NFL's Offensive Rookie of the Month for October. In 4 games, he caught 14 passes for 297 yards (a 21.2-yard average) and 4 touchdowns, 1 in each game. He was the 1st Giant to win a Rookie of the Month award since October 2004, when safety Gibril Wilson received the defensive honor. The last Giant to be named Offensive Rookie of the Month was Jeremy Shockey in November 2002.

- Returned 1 kickoff for 16 yards vs. Washington (9/13).

COLLEGE
- Nicks started all 36 games he played for North Carolina and led the team in receptions in each of his 3 seasons…Was the 1st UNC underclassman to declare for the NFL Draft since defensive end Julius Peppers in 2001…Set 14 school records, including catches, receiving yards and touchdown catches…His 181 receptions topped the old record of 177 by Jarwarski Pollock (2001-05) and rank 13th in Atlantic Coast Conference history…Nicks' 2,840 yards receiving broke the previous UNC mark of 2,447 yards by Corey Holliday (1989-93) and placed Nicks 11th on the ACC career-record chart…His 21 touchdown receptions bettered the former record of 19 by Octavus Barnes (1994-97)…Nicks set another school record with 74 receptions in 2007, topping the previous record of 71 by Pollock in 2003…In 2008, he became the 1st player in school history to gain over 1,000 yards receiving in a season with 1,222 yards (on 68 catches), topping the former record of 990 yards by Sam Aiken in 2003…His 12 touchdown catches in 2008 broke the old record of 9 by Marcus Wall in 1994…Had 10 games with at least 100 receiving yards…Nicks' 217 yards vs. West Virginia in the 2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl were the 2nd most by a Tar Heel, and he became just the 3rd player in school history to post a 200-yard receiving game. Nicks joined Randy Marriott (247 vs. Georgia Tech in 1987) and Octavus Barnes (211 vs. Ohio in 1995).

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY
- Helped unload turkeys at the Community Food Bank of N.J. with the help of Stop & Shop in preparation for the Thanksgiving Holiday. Hakeem served as spokesman for the Giants' Annual Game Day Food Drive, encouraging fans to bring donations of non-perishable foods to help stock the shelves of local food pantries.
- Attended Giants Kickoff Luncheon benefitting Hackensack University Medical Center.

PERSONAL
- Nicks was a Super Prep and EA Sports 1st-team All-America at Independence High School in Charlotte, where he was ranked the 8th-best player in North Carolina and the 22nd-best wide receiver in the country by Super Prep as a senior. He was named MVP of the Class 4-AA state championship game after leading Independence (15-0) to a 38-19 win over New Bern with 8 catches for 205 yards and touchdowns of 11 and 80 yards in Independence's 92nd-straight victory. He never lost a game in his high school career… North Carolina AP All-State and Charlotte Observer Offensive Player of the Year choice. Rivals.com rated him the state's 4th-best prospect…Played on North Carolina's Shrine Bowl team, where a 37-yard touchdown was among his 3 catches for 42 yards. In his final season, he led the state with 93 receptions for 1,819 yards and 20 touchdowns, including 10 in the playoffs. That year, he had 3 straight games with 10 or more catches…General studies major…Son of Lisa Mason and Robert Nicks…Stepmother is Vernice Simpson…Born Jan. 14, 1988.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:

- Has played in 44 regular season games with 12 starts…Record as a starter is 6-6… Started 10 games in last 2 seasons in Houston (2007 and 2008 and was 6-4)…Career totals include 351 completions in 562 passes (62.5 percent) for 4,156 yards, 30 touchdowns and 29 interceptions…Has been sacked 19 times for 127 yards in losses…Passer rating is 81.2…Has 48 rushing attempts for 95 yards and a touchdown, with a long run of 19 yards (with the Texans in 2007).
- In 2010, played in 12 games, primarily as the Giants' holder on extra points and field goals…Was Eli Manning's backup QB…Played QB in 1 game, at Seattle on 11/7, when he was on the field for the Giants' final possession, a 19-play drive that consisted entirely of running plays and took exactly 13 minutes to complete. The Giants advanced to the six-yard line, but Rosenfels took a knee on the final three plays of the series…Did not play in the season's first 4 games…Made his Giants debut as the team's holder at Houston (10/1)…Held for Lawrence Tynes for the remainder of the season.
- In 2009, did not see game action, serving as Vikings 3rd QB throughout the regular season and both playoff games...Was slated to battle Tarvaris Jackson for starting job during the season before Brett Favre came out of retirement and joined the team after the 1st preseason game…Started preseason opener at Indianapolis (8/14).
- In 2008, played in 6 games with 5 starts in place of Matt Schaub for Houston…Helped Texans rank 3rd in the NFL in total offense and 4th in passing offense…Completed 116-of-174 passes (66.7 percent) for 1,431 yards, 6 touchdowns and 10 interceptions…Passer rating was 79.5…Threw for career-high 294 yards vs. Baltimore (11/9) in his 2nd start of the season, including a 60-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Walter…Completed 21-of-29 passes and had season-best 103.2 passer rating when he replaced Schaub at Minnesota (11/2), completing 21-of-29 passes in the game…Won final 2 starts of the season at Cleveland (11/23) and vs. Jacksonville (12/1).
- In 2007, played in 9 games with 5 starts…Had best statistical season of his career, throwing for 1,684 yards and 15 touchdowns while completing 154-of-240 passes (64.2 percent) for a passer rating of 84.8…Ranked behind only New England's Tom Brady with a 4th-quarter passing rating of 112.9…Threw 11 of his 15 touchdowns in the 4th quarter to lead the NFL…Went 4-1 in his 5 starts, including wins over playoff-bound Tampa Bay and Jacksonville…Guided team to 1st career win as a starter at Oakland (11/4)…Scored 1st career rushing touchdown on a 5-yard run vs. Denver (12/13)…Replaced Schaub in the 2nd quarter vs. Tennessee (10/21) and threw for 290 yards and career-high 4 TDs, with 249 of the yards and all 4 TDs coming in the 4th quarter, as he rallied the team from a 32-7 deficit in the 4th quarter to take a 36-35 lead before a late Titans FG gave them the win…Had a pair of season-long 53-yard passes: a touchdown to Andre Davis vs. Tennessee (10/21) and a 53-yard gain to Ahman Green at Oakland (11/4)…Threw a touchdown pass in each of the 9 games he played and had 3 multiple touchdown games.
- In 2006, played in 4 games in his 1st season in Houston…Completed 27-of-39 passes (69.2 percent) for 265 yards, 3 touchdowns and 1 interception…Passer rating was 103.0…Threw all 3 touchdown passes at Tennessee (10/29)…Connected with Andre Johnson for a 10-yard pass, his 1st as a Texan, and added a pair of 4th-quarter scores to tight end Owen Daniels…Went on injured reserve with broken throwing wrist on 11/28, two days after suffering the injury when he filled in as the holder on a field goal at the Jets (11/26) and covered a missed FG, making the tackle on the play
- In 2005, played in 4 games with 1 start in his final season in Miami…Completed 34-of-61 passes (55.7 percent) for 462 yards, 4 touchdowns and 3 interceptions…Sparked the biggest comeback win in Dolphins history vs. Buffalo (12/4) when he rallied the team from a 23-3 4th-quarter deficit to take a 24-23 win, throwing for 272 yards and a pair of touchdowns…Hit Ronnie Brown on a 23-yard score with 7:35 remaining to cut the Bills lead and threw a 4-yard game-winner to Chris Chambers with :06 remaining in the game…Entered game vs. Jets (12/18) in the 2nd half and engineered another 4th-quarter comeback win…Trailing 17-10 entering the final quarter, Rosenfels guided the Dolphins to 2 touchdowns, including a 50-yard scoring pass to Marty Booker…Made his 1 pass attempt in 4th-quarter duty vs. Kansas City (10/21) memorable with a career-long 77-yard touchdown to Chambers.
- In 2004, played in 3 games with 1 start…Completed 16-of-39 passes (41 percent) for 264 yards, 1 touchdown and 3 interceptions…Made 1st career start in season finale at Baltimore (1/2/05)...Threw a 76-yard TD to Chambers on the 1st play from scrimmage and ended day with 264 yards…Only other action of the season came in games vs.

Cleveland (12/26) and at San Francisco (11/28) when he didn't attempt a pass.
- In 2003, played in 2 games and completed 4-of-6 passes for 50 yards and a touchdown…Threw 1st career touchdown pass in 1st action of the season, hitting Donald Lee for a 21-yard score with :20 left in the game at Tennessee (11/9)…First career completion was a 5-yarder to Travis Minor in Tennessee game.
- In 2002, played in 4 games and attempted all 3 passes in his 1st career game at Green Bay (11/4) on Monday Night Football, going 0-for-3…Spent training camp and bulk of preseason with Washington before being traded to Miami.
- In 2001, spent rookie season primarily as Redskins' 3rd quarterback…Spent 2 weeks as the backup but did not play.

COLLEGE:
- Was full-time starter as a junior and senior at Iowa State…Guided Cyclones to Insight.com Bowl against Pittsburgh as a senior in 2000, the 1st bowl game for the school in 22 years…Team went 9-3 in 2000, including bowl win over Pitt…Ran for 14 TDs during his collegiate career, 10 of those coming as a senior…Served as co-captain as a senior…Redshirted as a freshman in 1996.

NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 1st round (20th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2007.

GIANTS NOTE:
- Ross started 9 games in 2007, the 2nd year in a row the Giants' first-round draft choice started that number of regular season games. Mathias Kiwanuka started 9 games in 2006.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Ross has played in 49 regular season games with 26 starts (25 at left cornerback and 1 at strong safety) and in 5 postseason games with 4 starts at cornerback. In 4 seasons, he has 148 tackles (100 solo), 2.5 sacks, 6 interceptions and 19 passes defensed…Has also returned 6 punts for 37 yards with a long of 14.
- In 2010, played in 15 games with 1 start…Tallied 33 tackles (25 solo) and 1 sack and 2 passes defensed…Did not play in season opener vs. Carolina (9/12) because of a plantar fascia injury…Sacked Jay Cutler for a 7-yard loss vs. Chicago (10/3)…Contributed 4 tackles (3 solo) at Minnesota (12/13)…Returned punts for the 1st time at Green Bay (12/26), bringing back 3 for 13 yards with a long return of 9 yards…Started for Corey Webster at left cornerback at Washington (1/2) and had a season-high 7 tackles (4 solo). Also returned 3 punts for 24 yards, with a long return of 14 yards.
- In 2009, Ross played in 4 games with 1 start…Suffered a hamstring injury in training camp that forced him to miss the entire preseason and the first 9 games of the regular season…Finished with 15 tackles (9 solo)…Made season debut on special teams and in sub defenses vs. Atlanta (11/22) and had 3 tackles…Made 1st career start at strong safety vs. Philadelphia (12/13) and had 7 tackles (3 solo)…Ross was inactive for the next 2 games and placed on injured reserve (12/30).
- In 2008, started all 15 games in which he played and finished with 57 tackles (30 solo), 3 interceptions and 8 passes defensed. Inactive in the season finale at Minnesota (12/28) due to a concussion…Contributed a season-high 8 tackles (3 solo), 1 QB hit and 1 pass defensed vs. Washington (9/4)…Had 7 tackles (4 solo), 1 QB hurry and 2 passes defensed vs. Seattle (10/5)…Finished with 4 solo tackles and 2 interceptions vs. Baltimore (11/16). Scored his 2nd career touchdown on a 50-yard interception return late in the 3rd quarter. It was his 2nd interception of the game.
- As a rookie in 2007, played in 15 games with 9 starts and in all 4 postseasongames with 3 starts…Finished with 53 tackles (36 solo), 1.5 sacks, 3 interceptions and 9 passes defensed…In the postseason, he had 13 tackles (9 solo) and 1 pass defensed…Had 1 solo tackle in his NFL debut at Dallas (9/9)…Made his 1st career start vs. Philadelphia (9/30) and finished with 6 tackles (4 solo) and 2 passes defensed.
- Did not play in the 1st half vs. the Jets (10/7) because he was disciplined after violating an undisclosed team rule. But Ross twice intercepted Chad Pennington in the 4th quarter, his first 2 NFL picks. The first was at the goal line, likely prevented a Jets touchdown and led to the Giants' go-ahead score. Ross returned the second interception 43 yards for a touchdown for the Giants' final points with 3:15 remaining. It was the Giants' 1st touchdown on an interception return since Oct. 23, 2006, when Kevin Dockery – who was also a rookie – picked off a Tony Romo pass in Dallas and returned it 96 yards for a score. Ross was the 1st Giant with 2 interceptions in a game since Gibril Wilson had 2 at Carolina on Dec. 10, 2006…Finished with 3 tackles (1 solo), 3 passes defensed and 2 interceptions.
- Started at left cornerback at Atlanta (10/15) and recorded his 3rd interception of the season when he picked off a Joey Harrington attempt in the end zone to end the 2nd quarter…Also split a 6-yard sack of Harrington with DE Michael Strahan.
- Did not play at Chicago (12/2) due to hamstring injury.
- Started in the NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay (1/6) and had 6 solo tackles.
- Started in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at Dallas and finished with 5 tackles (3 solo) before being forced from the game in the 2nd quarter with a shoulder injury…Returned in the 3rd quarter but was forced to leave again.
- Started vs. New England in Super Bowl XLII and had 1 assisted tackle.

COLLEGE:
- Ross played in 51 games with 15 starts at Texas. He registered 205 tackles (145 solo) with a 1-yard sack, 5 stops for losses of 21 yards and a quarterback pressure. He forced 3 fumbles and recovered 2 others, returning 1 for a touchdown. Ross batted away 33 passes and intercepted 10 others for 111 yards in returns (11.1-yard avg.). He also returned 76 punts for 893 yards (11.8-yard avg.) and 3 scores and added 53 yards on a pair of kickoff returns.
- Ross' 76 punt returns ranked 6th on the Longhorns' career-record chart and his 893 career punt return yards ranked 5th…His career average of 11.8 yards per punt return ranked 4th in Texas history.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:
- Ross and his wife, Olympian Sanya Richards, were named Seton Southwest Hospital's inaugural Goala Athlete Heroes Award for outstanding leadership, community service and excellence in their fields.

PERSONAL:
- Married to Olympic sprinter Sanya Richards…Attended John Tyler High School in Tyler, Texas, where he played cornerback, wide receiver and running back during his 3-year career…Selected 2nd-team Class 5A All-State after posting 6 interceptions, 3 fumble recoveries, 3 blocked kicks and allowing just 1 touchdown reception as a senior…Returned a fumble and a blocked punt for a score in 2000, adding 350 rushing yards (on 46 carries) and 5 touchdowns…Also caught 5 passes for 200 yards and 2 scores…During his time at both schools he lettered 4 times as a sprinter in track and field and twice in basketball.
- Education major…Active in UT's community service program, serving as a summer camp counselor (Camp Tyler Summer Camp)...Born Aaron Jermaine Ross on Sept. 15, 1982 in San Antonio, Texas…Resides in Tyler, Texas.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd round (34th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2004.

GIANTS NOTE:
- Snee enters the 2011 season with 96 consecutive regular season starts, the 2nd-longest streak on the Giants behind Eli Manning (103).
- In 2010, Snee was voted 1st team All-Pro by The Sporting News and the Pro Football Writers Association and 2nd team by the Associated Press.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has started every game in which he's played (107 regular season and 7 postseason) at right guard.
- In 2010, Snee started all 16 games at right guard for the 6th consecutive season. He was 1 of 2 Giants offensive linemen to start every game at the same position, joining right tackle Kareem McKenzie. Rich Seubert also started all 16 games, 9 at left guard and 7 at center.
- Snee and Shaun O'Hara were each selected to their 3rd consecutive Pro Bowls. They are the 1st Giants offensive linemen selected to 3 Pro Bowls since center Bart Oates in 1990, '91 and '93 and the 1st chosen in 3 consecutive years since Hall of Famer tackle Rosie Brown was selected to 6 in a row from 1955-60.
- Despite starting 6 different offensive line combinations in 2010, the Giants were ranked 5th in the NFL with an average of 380.3 yards a game. The Giants gained a franchise-record 6,085 yards, the first 6,000-yard season in their history.
- The line blocked well enough for the Giants to finish 6th in the NFL in rushing with 137.5 yards a game and they were the only NFC team with two 800-yard rushers (Ahmad Bradshaw, 1,235 and Brandon Jacobs, 823).
- The Giants and Indianapolis Colts allowed an NFL-low 16 sacks in 2010, the fewest sacks allowed by the Giants since the 16-game season was instituted in 1978. Their previous low total was 24 sacks allowed in 2002. The Giants did not allow a sack in a franchise-record 5 consecutive games (Nov. 7-Dec. 5) and in 7 games overall.
- In 2009, Snee started all 16 games at right guard…Played in his 2nd consecutive Pro Bowl, the 1st Giants guard to play in the game in back-to-back seasons since Ron Stone in 2000 and 2001… Was joined at the Pro Bowl by center O'Hara and tackle David Diehl, the 1st time the Giants had 3 players from the same position group in the game since 1962 (when offensive linemen Rosie Brown, Darrell Dess and Ray Wietecha – also a tackle, guard and center – all received the honor)…Snee and O'Hara were the 1st Giants to be selected to consecutive Pro Bowls since Tiki Barber and Jeremy Shockey in 2005-06…Run and pass blocking helped the Giants average 366.0 yards a game, the NFL's 8th-highest figure…Line allowed only 32 sacks, tied for 7th-best in the league.
- In 2008, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game at right guard. The Giants were the only team to start the same 5 linemen in all 32 regular season games in 2007 and 08…Snee was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl, as the starting right guard for the NFC…Was also named a 1st-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and The Sporting News and 1st-team All-NFL and All-NFC by the Pro Football Writers Association…Snee was an integral member of the offensive line that helped the Giants finish with 427 points and 338 first downs, both the 2nd-highest totals in franchise history. The Giants gained 5,695 yards, the 3rd-highest total in their history. The line's blocking enabled the Giants to lead the NFL and set franchise records in both rushing yards per game (157.4) and yards per carry (5.0). With Snee and the line opening holes, Brandon Jacobs (1,089) and Derrick Ward (1,025) became the 4th pair of running back teammates to rush for 1,000 yards in the same season.
- The line's blocking helped the Giants rush for 301 yards in a victory over Carolina (12/21) that clinched the top seed in the NFC playoffs. It was the 5th-highest total in Giants history…Snee and the line allowed just 2 sacks in a 5-game period from Sept. 21-Oct. 26.
- In 2007, he started all 16 regular season games and all 4 of the Giants' postseason games at right guard…Selected as a 2nd alternate to the NFC Pro Bowl team.
- Blocking by Snee and the O-line enabled the Giants to finish 4th in the NFL in rushing yardage with an average of 134.3 yards a game. In their 4-game postseason surge that culminated in a Super Bowl XLII victory, the Giants averaged 305.5 yards, including 103.8 on the ground.
- In 2006, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard…Offensive line provided enough run blocking for the Giants offense to rush for 2,156 yards, the 7th-highest total in the NFL.
- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games for the 1st time and the NFC Wild Card Game at right guard…Offensive line provided enough run blocking for Tiki Barber to rush for a franchise record 1,860 yards and the pass blocking enabled Eli Manning to pass for 3,762 yards, the 5th-highest total in franchise history.

- As a rookie in 2004, started all 11 games in which he played at right guard, a job he won in training camp…Missed the final 5 games of the season after waking up the morning of the game at Washington (12/5) with an inflamed gland just beneath his jaw...Arrived at the stadium early, but there was no progress in his condition prior to the time the Giants had to submit their list of inactive players...The condition did not improve enough for him to play again in 2004.
- Made his NFL debut at Philadelphia (9/12), where the line's blocking helped Barber rush for 125 yards on 9 carries, including a 72-yard score.
- Gave up his final year of college eligibility to make himself eligible for the NFL Draft.

COLLEGE:
- Was a 2nd-team All-America selection and an All-Big East Conference 1st-team choice by The NFL Draft Report in his final season at Boston College.
- In 2003, started every game, including the San Francisco Bowl, at right guard, providing excellent blocking as tailback Derrick Knight ranked 4th in the nation in rushing with 1,721 yards.
- Started every game at left guard in 2002, helping the team finish 3rd in the Big East in total offense (5,074 yards) and second in passing yards (3,010).
- Third-team Freshman All-America selection by The Sporting News in 2001…Member of the Big East's All-Freshman team…Played in 9 games, starting the final 6 contests…Made his 1st career start vs. Virginia Tech at right tackle before shifting to right guard for the Pittsburgh contest.

- In 2010, started all 16 games at left defensive end…Finished season with 11.5 sacks, which tied Osi Umenyiora for the team lead. They were tied for 4th in the NFC and 7th in the NFL. It was the 1st time the Giants had two players with at least 11.5 sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Michael Strahan finished with 11.5.
- Tuck twice set a career high with 3 sacks – vs. Chicago (10/3), when Umenyiora also had 3) and at Philadelphia (11/21). He has recorded 2 sacks on 6 occasions – 5 in the regular season and Super Bowl XLII.
- Tuck led the NFL with 5 recoveries of opponent fumbles…He was 3rd on the team with 99 tackles (73 solo) and led the Giants with 21 tackles for losses. Tuck also contributed 36 quarterback hurries, 30 quarterback hits, 4 passes defensed and 5 forced fumbles…Had a season-high 12 tackles vs. Tennessee (9/26) and 10 vs. Chicago and at Philadelphia…Recovered a fumble in 3 consecutive games: at Houston (10/10), vs. Detroit (10/17) and at Dallas (10/25).
- Played for the NFC Pro Bowl team for the 2nd time in 3 seasons…Tuck was voted 1st team All-Pro by the Pro Football Writers Association and 2nd team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- In 2009, played in all 16 games with 15 starts…Did not start at Tampa Bay (9/27) because of shoulder injury suffered the previous week in Dallas…Despite playing all season with shoulder injury that required offseason surgery, Tuck finished 4th on the team with 74 tackles (41 solo), 1st with 12 tackles for losses, 2nd with 6.0 sacks, 3rd with 18 QB hurries, tied for 2nd with 24 QB hits, tied for 1st with 4 forced fumbles and a career-high 10 passes defensed…Named the NFC Defensive Player of the Week following a season-opening victory over Washington (9/13), when he had 5 tackles (4 solo), 1.5 sacks, 2 tackles for losses, 3 quarterback hits and a pass defensed. It was Tuck's 1st Player of the Week award…Had a season-high 2.0 sacks vs. Oakland (10/11) and a season-best 9 tackles (5 solo) with 2 passes defensed at Denver (11/26).
- In 2008, started in all 16 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…Finished the season with 71 tackles (42 solo), a team and career-high 12.0 sacks, an interception that he returned for a touchdown, 3 passes defensed and 3 forced fumbles…Had 2 sacks in a game 4 times…Was selected as a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team…Also selected 1st team All-Pro by the Associated Press and the Pro Football Writers Association and first team All-NFC by the PFWA.
- Opened the season vs. Washington (9/4) with an 8-yard sack of Jason Campbell on the Redskins' 1st play from scrimmage…Posted 4 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 QB hurry and an interception that he returned 41 yards for a touchdown at St. Louis (9/14)…Sacked Marc Bulger for an 8-yard loss in the 1st quarter and a 6-yard loss in the 4th quarter…Intercepted a Bulger pass at the line of scrimmage and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown in the 4th quarter…Had a season-high 5 solo tackles at Cleveland (10/13)…Twice sacked J.T. O'Sullivan vs. San Francisco (10/19). On the 1st sack, stripped O'Sullivan of the ball, which was kicked out of the back of the end zone for a safety…Finished with 3 tackles, 2.5 sacks and 1 QB hit vs. Dallas (11/2)…Dropped Brad Johnson for a 10-yard loss in the 2nd quarter…Teamed with Jay Alford to drop Johnson for a 7-yard loss later in the 2nd quarter…Sacked Brooks Bollinger for an 8-yard loss in the 3rd quarter…Tallied 2 sacks at Washington (11/30) to increase his season total to 11.5 – Tuck had 11.0 total sacks in his 1st 3 seasons.
- In 2007, he played in all 16 regular season games for the 1st time in his career, with 2 starts…Also played in all 4 postseason games…Tuck moved inside to tackle in the sub defenses and finished with 58 tackles (34 solo), 10.0 sacks for 59 yards, 3 passes defensed and 1 forced fumble. It was the 1st double-digit sack season of his career. Tuck finished 2nd on the team to Osi Umenyiora (13.0).
- The Giants led the NFL with 53 quarterback sacks, their highest total since 1998, when they had a league-high 54 sacks. Umenyiora (13), Tuck (10) and Michael Strahan (9) became the 2nd trio in team history to record 9 or more sacks each in a single season: In 1985, Leonard Marshall had 15.5, Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 13 and George Martin had 10…In postseason play, Tuck had 18 tackles (10 solo), 2 sacks for 14 yards, 1 pass defensed and 1 forced fumble.

TRANSACTIONS:
Originally signed by the Kansas City Chiefs as a rookie free agent on April 26, 2001…Released by the Chiefs on Aug. 27, 2001…Signed by the Chiefs on Jan. 16, 2002…Released by the Chiefs on Sept. 1, 2002…Signed by the Ottawa Roughriders (Canadian Football League) on Sept. 5, 2002….Signed by the Chiefs on Feb. 9. 2004…Traded to the Giants on May 22, 2007 for a 7th-round draft choice.

GIANTS NOTE:
- Tynes kicked the overtime field goal in the 2007 NFC Championship Game in Green Bay that put the Giants in Super Bowl XLII…His game-winning 47-yard field goal just 2:35 into overtime was the longest postseason 3-pointer in Lambeau Field history.
- Tynes is the NFL's 1st Scottish-born player. Although raised in Florida, he was born in Greenock, Scotland after his parents met there while his father was a Master Chief in the U.S. Navy.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Tynes has played in 97 regular season games and 6 postseason games…He has made 138-of-170 regular season field goal attempts (81.2 percent) and 268-of-274 extra point tries (97.8 percent) for 882 points…With both Kansas City and the Giants, Tynes kicked at least 1 field goal in 15 consecutive games. With the Chiefs, the streak began at Denver (12/19/04) and ended vs. Denver (12/4/05). With the Giants, he kicked a field goal in each of the 1st 15 games of the 2009 season, beginning vs. Washington (9/13) and ending at Minnesota (1/3)…He has scored more than 100 points in each full season of his career: 109 in 2004 and 2007, a career-high 126 in 2009, 125 in 2005, 107 in 2006 and 100 in 2010…Thirty five of 520 career kickoffs have resulted in touchbacks.
- Tynes has made 115 consecutive extra point attempts, the 3rd-longest streak in Giants history. Pete Gogolak made 133 in a row from 1967-72 and Pat Summerall hit 126 consecutive PATs from 1958-61. Tynes last missed an extra point try vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007.
- In postseason play, Tynes has made 5-of-8 field goal attempts and all 10 of his PATs for 25 points.
- In 2010, Tynes played in 15 games…Did not play vs. Detroit (10/17) after injuring his ankle on his plant foot in practice 2 days before the game.
- Led the Giants with 100 points, his second 100-point season in a row and 3rd in his 4 years with the Giants. The 100 points increased Tynes' Giants total to 341, which places him 7th on the franchise's career list, 1 ahead of Raul Allegre and just 7 points behind Amani Toomer.
- Tynes succeeded on 19-of-23 field goal attempts and all 43 of his extra point tries…The 43 PATs without a miss tie him for 3rd on the team's single-season record list. Summerall made all 46 of his extra point tries in 1961 and Tynes succeeded on all 45 of his attempts in 2009. Jay Feely also made 43 without a miss in 2005.
- Tynes' 53-yard field goal at Dallas (10/25) tied his career long, set on Oct. 22, 2006, when he played for Kansas City against San Diego. His previous long field goal as a Giant was a 52-yarder at Denver on Thanksgiving night, 2009 (11/26).
- On Sept. 26 vs. Tennessee, Tynes kicked a 50-yard field goal and was wide left on a 53-yard attempt. It was the 1st time he tried 2 field goals of 50-plus yards since Oct. 21, 2005, when he kicked field goals of 51 and 52 yards in Kansas City's 30-20 victory in Miami. The Giants had last attempted two field goals of at least 50-yards in a game on Oct. 30, 2005, when Feely tried 50- and 51-yarders against Washington. The first was good, but the latter hit the left upright.
- Hit a season-high 3 field goals (from 22, 29 and 28 yards) vs. Jacksonville (11/28)…Made 15 consecutive attempts beginning at Houston (10/10) and ending when his last attempt of the season was wide right at Washington (1/2).
- In 2009, Tynes played in all 16 games. He led the Giants and was 5th in the NFL in scoring with a career-high 126 points. His previous best was 125 points with Kansas City in 2005. The 126 points tie him with Joe Morris (1985) for 4th place on the Giants' single-season list…Converted 27-of-32 field goal attempts, an 84.4 percentage that was the 6th best in a single season in Giants history…Made all 45 of his extra point attempts…Tynes kicked at least 1 field goal in 15 consecutive games, placing him in a 4-way tie for the 2nd-highest total in Giants history…Tynes attempted a career-high 5 field goals at Dallas (9/20). His previous high was 4, which he did 3 times, most recently for Kansas City vs. Denver on Nov. 23, 2006…Tied his career high with 4 field goals (from 30, 28, 36 and 37 yards) in Dallas. He also booted 4 field goals for the Chiefs vs. New England on Nov. 27, 2005.
- Tynes kicked a 52-yard field goal at Denver (11/26), his longest as a Giant and longest since he booted a 52-yarder for Kansas City at San Diego on Dec. 17, 2006. Tynes' career-long is a 53-yarder, vs. the Chargers in Arrowhead Stadium on Oct. 22, 2006.
- In 2008, Tynes played in 2 regular season games and the NFC Divisional Playoff Game…Was inactive for 14 games…Playing time was limited due to knee injury suffered in training camp on Aug. 9…Played at Philadelphia (11/9), where he handled kickoff duties and vs. Baltimore (11/16). Made his only field goal attempt (19 yards) and all 3 PATs for 6 points…Also handled the kickoffs in NFC Divisional Playoff Game vs. Philadelphia (1/11).
- In his 1st Giants season in 2007, Tynes made 23-of-27 field goal attempts in the regular season, an .852 percentage that tied him with his predecessor, Jay Feely, for 3rd on the Giants' single-season list. Feely succeeded on 23-of-27 field goal tries in 2006.

Tynes was 8-for-8 from 40-49 yards, hitting 3 times from a season-long 48 yards…Also connected on 40-of-42 extra point tries and 8 of his 80 kickoffs resulted in touchbacks.

- Connected on all 3 field goal attempts good from 44, 48 and 24 yards in his Giants debut at Dallas (9/9)…Was also 2-for-2 on PATs…Was 3-for-3 on field goal attempts at Detroit (11/18), hitting from 28, 40 and 20 yards…Booted 3 field goals in a game for the 3rd time at Philadelphia (12/9), connecting from 19, 23, and 23 yards.
- Connected on 3 of 5 field goal attempts at Green Bay in the NFC Championship Game (1/20)…Missed from 43 and 36 yards wide left in the 4th quarter (the latter on the final play of regulation), but succeeded from 29 yards in the 1st quarter and 37 yards in the 2nd quarter before kicking the game-winning 47-yarder with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. It was the 1st overtime 3-pointer of his career. Tynes' latest kick had been a 53-yarder with 6 seconds remaining to give the Kansas City Chiefs a 30-27 victory over San Diego on Oct. 22, 2006…Tynes' game-winner was the longest postseason field goal in Lambeau Field history.
- In 2006, played in 16 regular season games and the AFC Wild Card Game for the Chiefs…Made 24-of-31 field goal attempts (77.4 percent) and 35-of-36 PATs for 107 points, which left him 7th among AFC kickers…Made 2-of-4 attempts from 50-plus yards…Placed 56 of his 78 kickoffs inside the 10-yard line and had 5 touchbacks…Also had 1 punt for 33 yards and 2 special teams tackles.
- Was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for his play at Arizona (10/8), where he kicked field goals of 45, 40 and 19 yards (the latter a game-winner with 1:36 remaining) and added 2 PATs for 11 points.
- Kicked field goals of 45, 52 and 24 yards at San Diego (12/17)…Tied a career high with 4 field goals (24, 34, 29 and 21 yards and added a PAT for 13 points vs. Denver (11/23)…Booted a 42-yard field goal, 4 PATs and had a tackle at St. Louis (11/5)…Kicked a game-winning and career-long 53-yard field goal with 6 seconds remaining vs. San Diego (10/22).
- In 2005, played in all 16 games…Converted 27-of-3 field goal attempts (81.8 percent) and 44-of-45 PATs for a career-high 125 points, the 6th-highest single-season total in Chiefs history…Booted 58 of his 86 kickoffs inside the 10-yard line with 1 touchback…Also had a special teams tackle…His 125 points were 2nd in the AFC and 4th among NFL kickers…Became the 7th player in Chiefs history to register multiple 100-point seasons.
- Was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week after kicking field goals of 30, 51 and 52 yards at Miami to join Nick Lowery as the only players in Chiefs history to produce 2 field goals of 50+ yards in a game.
- Converted 39-, 24- and 23-yard field goals vs. Cincinnati (1/1)…Kicked a 19-yard field goal at the Giants (12/17)…Hit all 4 of his PATs and missed a 41-yard field goal attempt as time expired to break his streak of 15 consecutive games with at least 1 field goal at Dallas (12/11)… Converted a 34-yard FG vs. Denver (12/4). It was his 15th consecutive game with a field goal, the 2nd-longest streak in Chiefs history…Kicked a career-high 4 field goals (25, 20, 33 and 47 yards) and both of his PATs for a career-high 14 points vs. New England (11/27). Tynes' 4 second-quarter field goals tied an NFL record for the most 3-pointers in a quarter. He became the 7th player in NFL history to accomplish that feat and the 1st since St. Louis' Jeff Wilkins did it in the 4th quarter vs. Baltimore (11/9/03)…Connected on a 35-yard field goal at Buffalo (11/13), but missed 44- and 34-yard attempts, snapping his string of 14 consecutive successes, which tied for the 7th longest streak in team history.
- Played in all 16 games in 2004, his 1st NFL season…Connected on 17-of-23 field goal attempts (73.9 percent) and 58-of-60 PATs for a team-high 109 points…His 58 PATs tied the highest single-season total in Chiefs history and his 60 attempts were a team record…Placed 60 of his 94 kickoffs inside the 10-yard line with 7 touchbacks, tying for 6th in the AFC…Ranked 9th among kickers in the AFC with 109 points…Had 1 special teams stop…Tyne's 1st NFL field goal was a 50-yarder at Denver (9/12). His initial NFL field goal attempt was a 58-yard try in the first half, the longest attempt by a member of the Chiefs since Nick Lowery made a 58-yarder vs. the LA Raiders (9/12/85) and the longest by a kicker attempting his first FG since Owen Pochman of the Giants tried a 63-yarder at Denver (9/10/01)…Became the 1st NFL kicker to convert his 1st career field goal from 50+ yards since the Rams' Jeff Hall connected on a 50-yarder at the Giants (11/12/00)…Tied a franchise record with 8 PATs vs. Atlanta (10/24)…Hit field goals from 28 and 22 yards and all 4 of his PATs for a season-high 10 points and added 1 special teams tackle at Oakland (12/5)…Connected on a 38-yard game-winning field goal with 22 seconds remaining in a 31-30 victory vs. Oakland (12/25)…Kicked a 50-yard field goal at San Diego (1/2/05) to become the 1st Kansas City kicker to have 2 field goals of 50 yards or more in a season since Pete Stoyanovich in 1998.

TRANSACTIONS:
- Originally a 2nd round (56th pick overall) draft choice by the Giants in 2003.

GIANTS NOTE:
- Set a Giants franchise record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia on Sept. 23, 2007, surpassing the old mark of 4.5 sacks by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991.
- Umenyiora has been the Giants' sole or shared leader in sacks in 6 of the last 7 years, missing only 2008, when he sat out the entire season after undergoing knee surgery. He was the team sack leader in 4 consecutive seasons with 7.0 in 2004, 14.5 in 2005, 6.0 in 2006 and 13.0 in 2007 and again with 7.0 in 2009. He was tied with Justin Tuck for the team lead in 2010 with 11.5. Umenyiora was the 1st Giant to top the team in sacks 4 years in a row since Lawrence Taylor led the team in 5 consecutive seasons from 1986-90. Michael Strahan was No. 1 in sacks each season from 1995-98, but shared the 1996 lead with Chad Bratzke.
- Has 60.0 career regular season sacks, which place him 5th on the Giants' official career list (since 1982, when sacks were first recognized)…He is 3.0 sacks behind No. 4 Keith Hamilton.
- Umenyiora is the only player in Giants history with 3 touchdowns on fumble returns.
- Was voted to the Pro Bowl following the 2005 and 2007 seasons.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS:
- Has played in 104 regular season games with 78 starts and started all 6 postseason games in which he's played at right defensive end…He has 349 tackles (236 solo), 60.0 sacks, 11 passes defensed, 28 forced fumbles and 13 fumble recoveries…Has been named NFC Defensive Player of the Week twice, Special Teams Player of the Week once and Defensive Player of the Month once.
- In 2010, started all 16 games at defensive right end…Finished with 66 tackles (53 solo)…Named 2nd team All-Pro by the Associated Press.
- Umenyiora and Justin Tuck shared the team lead with 11.5 sacks apiece. It was the 1st time the Giants had 2 players with at least that many sacks since 2005, when Umenyiora had 14.5 and Michael Strahan finished with 11.5.
- It was the 6th time in 7 years Umenyiora claimed the team sack title. The only season since 2004 he was not atop the team's sack rankings was 2008, when he missed the entire year after undergoing knee surgery. Tuck was the team leader that season.
- Umenyiora and Tuck each had 3 sacks vs. Chicago (10/3), when the Giants totaled 10. It was Umenyiora's highest total in a game since he set a team record with 6 sacks against the Eagles when the team had 12 on Sept. 30, 2007.
- Umenyiora led the Giants and tied an NFL record with 10 forced fumbles, tying Jason Taylor's record set in 2006 with Miami. The stat has been kept since 1994.
- Umenyiora was named the NFC Defensive Player of the Month for October. In 4 games – all Giants victories – Umenyiora had 18 tackles (10 solo), including 7.0 sacks and 6 forced fumbles. Umenyiora had 3 consecutive multiple-sack games in October: 3.0 sacks vs. Chicago, 2.0 at Houston and 2.0 vs. Detroit. Prior to that stretch, he had never had multiple sacks in back-to-back games. Umenyiora also forced 2 fumbles in each of those 3 games… Umenyiora was the first Giant to win a Player of the Month award since November 2008, when Eli Manning was honored as the NFC Offensive Player of the Month. He was the first Giants defender to receive the award since Michael Strahan in October 2001.
- Had a season-high 7 tackles 3 times: vs. Chicago, at Philadelphia (11/21) and at Washington (1/2).
- In 2009, played in all 16 games with 11 starts at defensive right end…Finished the season with 45 tackles (19 solo), a team-high 7.0 sacks, 4 forced fumbles (tied with Tuck for the team lead) and a team-high 4 fumble recoveries…Led the team in sacks for the 5th time in 6 seasons...Had a season-high 2 sacks at Kansas City (10/4) and a season-best 5 tackles at New Orleans (10/18)…Tallied 3 tackles and a sack vs. Washington (9/13)…On one play in the 2nd quarter, he had a sack, forced fumble, fumble recovery and return for a touchdown. On 2nd-and-8 from the Giants' 42-yard line, Umenyiora sacked Jason Campbell for an 11-yard loss. He forced Campbell to cough up the ball, which Umenyiora scooped up and returned 37 yards for a touchdown. It was Umenyiora's 3rd career touchdown, and all of them have been on returns after fumble recoveries. He brought one back 50 yards at Baltimore on Dec. 12, 2004 and 75 yards vs. San Francisco on Oct. 21, 2007.
- Umenyiora missed the entire 2008 season after undergoing knee surgery…He suffered a torn lateral meniscus cartilage in his left knee in a preseason game vs. the Jets on Aug. 23….Underwent surgery and was placed on injured reserve 3 days later.
- In 2007, started all 16 regular season games and 4 postseason games at right defensive end…Umenyiora was the only member of the Super Bowl champion Giants selected to the Pro Bowl, the 2nd time he was chosen…Led the team in sacks for the 4th consecutive season with 13.0 for 87 yards…Also had 53 tackles (33 solo), 2 passes defensed, 5 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries…Was twice named NFC Defensive Player of the Week…Added 10 tackles (7 solo) and a fumble recovery in the playoffs.

- Set a Giants record with 6.0 sacks vs. Philadelphia (9/30). The old record of 4.5 sacks was set by Pepper Johnson at Tampa Bay on Nov. 24, 1991. The NFL record of 7.0 sacks was set by the late Hall of Famer Derrick Thomas for Kansas City against Seattle on Nov. 11, 1990. Umenyiora is tied for 2nd in league history with San Francisco's Fred Dean (6.0 sacks vs. New Orleans on Nov. 13, 1983) and Thomas (6.0 sacks vs. Oakland on Sept. 6, 1998)…Umenyiora's previous career high was 2.0 sacks, which he had accomplished 6 times…He entered the game with no sacks in 2007 and just 1 sack in his last 8 games dating back to 2006 – not counting his sack in the Giants' postseason loss to Philadelphia…In addition to his 6 sacks, he forced 2 fumbles and had 4 QB hurries…Contributed to a defense that set a team record for sacks with 12.0…The previous Giants record was 9 sacks, which they accomplished 3 times. Two of the 3 games were at home against the Eagles, most recently on Aug. 31, 1997. They also had 9 sacks on Dec. 6, 1987 against Philadelphia and Dec. 14, 1986 vs. the St. Louis Cardinals…Was named NFC Defensive Player of the Week.
- Finished with 4 solo tackles, 1 sack, 3 QB hurries and 3 QB hits vs. the Jets (10/7)…Recorded his 7th sack of the season when he dropped Chad Pennington for a 7-yard loss in the 4th quarter.
- Had 3 tackles (2 solo), 1 sack, 2 QB hits, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries vs. San Francisco (10/21)…Scored the Giants' 3rd touchdown of the game when he sacked Trent Dilfer for a 10-yard loss, forced a fumble that he recovered and returned 75 yards for a score in the 3rd quarter. It was the longest fumble return for a touchdown by a Giant since Sept. 9, 1984, when linebacker Andy Headen brought one back 81 yards in a victory over Dallas…The performance earned Umenyiora his 2nd Player of the Week award in 2007.
- Posted his second 2-sack game of the season vs. Minnesota (11/25)…Also had sacks in each of the next 2 games, at Chicago (12/2) and at Philadelphia (12/9)…Contributed 6 tackles (4 solo) and a 10-yard sack in the Giants' playoff-clinching victory at Buffalo (12/23).
- Made a big contribution in Super Bowl XLII vs. New England (2/3), with 3 tackles (2 solo), 2 QB hurries and a team-high 5 QB hits. Also recovered a Tom Brady fumble after the quarterback was hit by Justin Tuck and lost the ball in the 2nd quarter...Tackled RB Laurence Maroney for losses of 3 yards in the 2nd quarter and 2 yards in the 3rd quarter.
- In 2006, started all 11 regular season games in which he played and the NFC Wild Card Game at right defensive end…Led the team with 6.0 sacks despite missing 5 games with a strained hip flexor…Finished the season with 39 tackles (27 solo), 16 QB hurries, 12 QB hits, 1 pass defensed and 1 forced fumble.
- Contributed 4 tackles, 1 sack and 3 QB hurries in the NFC Wild Card Game at Philadelphia (1/7/07).
- In 2005, started all 16 regular season games and the NFC Wild Card Game vs. Carolina at right defensive end…Finished with 70 tackles (49 solo), 14.5 sacks, 3 passes defensed, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries
- His 14.5 sacks placed him 1st in the NFC and 2nd in the NFL and was the highest total by a Giant other than Michael Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989…Umenyiora and Strahan combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates…Umenyiora was selected to his 1st Pro Bowl and was named 1st-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly and was selected the NFL's Most Improved Player by Pro Football Weekly.
- Umenyiora and Strahan became the 1st tandem of defensive ends from the same team to go to the Pro Bowl together since Jason Taylor and Trace Armstrong of the Miami Dolphins in 2000.
- Finished with 5 tackles (4 solo), 2 sacks and a forced fumble at Oakland (12/31)…Dropped Kerry Collins for a 12-yard loss in the 2nd quarter and recorded his 2nd sack of the game in the 4th quarter when he stripped Collins of the ball for a 9-yard loss. - In 2004, played in 16 games with 7 starts at defensive right end…Led the team with 7.0 sacks, 4 fumble recoveries (including 1 he returned for a touchdown) and 3 forced fumbles along with 58 tackles (42 solo) and 3 passes defensed.
- Recorded 9 tackles, 1 sack and a forced fumble vs. Dallas (1/2)… Sacked Vinny Testaverde and forced a fumble in the 4th quarter that was recovered by Reggie Torbor and led to Tiki Barber's 3-yard touchdown reception…Did not start at Baltimore (12/12), but recorded 4 tackles, a half-sack, 2 passes defensed and a fumble recovery. Scored the 1st touchdown of his career when he recovered a Kyle Boller fumble that was forced by a Reggie Torbor sack and returned it 50 yards in the 2nd quarter.
- As a rookie in 2003, played in 13 games with 1 start...Finished with 19 tackles (15 solo), 1 sack and 1 special teams tackle in rookie season.
- Set up all 3 Giants touchdowns in season finale against Carolina (12/28), the first 2 with blocked punts and the third with a sack and forced fumble that was recovered for a score by Keith Washington. Umenyiora's feat was the first time the Giants blocked 2 punts in 1 game since Oct. 9, 1943 against the Phil-Pitt Steagles, a team made up of Pittsburgh and Philadelphia players during World War II. Named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week. He finished with 4 tackles (1 solo) and a sack for a loss of 17 yards.

COLLEGE:

- Played in 48 games with 46 starts for Troy, recording 276 tackles (129 solo) with 25 sacks for minus-140 yards, 39 stops for losses of 168 yards, 71 quarterback pressures, 7 forced fumbles, 2 fumble recoveries and a pass deflection…He was a teammate of Lawrence Tynes.
- As a senior, was named All-America honorable mention and All-Independent 1st team selection by The NFL Draft Report…Started every game at right defensive end, recording 57 tackles (35 solo) with 3 forced fumbles…Set school records with 43 quarterback pressures and 16 sacks for minus 81 yards.

OFF-THE-FIELD ACTIVITY:

- Is a participating member of The Make a Play Foundation, an NFL player driven organization dedicated to making a difference in Africa's most under-developed regions. The Make a Play Foundation's aim is to fundraise for, and support the infrastructure projects and sustainable development solutions Africa needs to break the cycle of poverty, famine and disease.

THE VINCE LOMBARDI TROPHY

GETTY IMAGES

The Giants raise the Lombardi Trophy during the postgame ceremonies at Super Bowl XLII

The Vince Lombardi Trophy is the trophy awarded each year to the winning team of the National Football League's annual championship game, the Super Bowl. It is considered to be the NFL's most prestigious award. The trophy was originally called the "World Championship Game Trophy" when the Super Bowl was originally named the AFL-NFL World Championship Game. It was renamed in 1970 in honor of legendary Green Bay Packers head coach Vince Lombardi.

Since Super Bowl XXX, it is presented to the winning team's owner on the field following the game. Previously, the trophy was presented inside the winning team's locker room.

Unlike trophies such as the Stanley Cup and the Grey Cup, a new Vince Lombardi Trophy is made every year and the winning team maintains permanent possession of that trophy.

Each trophy is handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. master artisans at their workshop in Parsippany, New Jersey. The trophy depicts a regulation-size football in kicking position that is made entirely of sterling silver. It stands 22 inches (55 cm) tall, weighs seven pounds (3 kg), and takes approximately four months and 72 man-hours to create. The words "Vince Lombardi Trophy" and the NFL logo are engraved on the base. After the trophy is awarded, it is sent back to Tiffany & Co. to be engraved with the winning team's name, score, logo and roster if the team wishes.

The 2010 season will always elicit mixed reactions from the New York Giants.

Playing their 86th season, the Giants moved into a beautiful new home, New Meadowlands Stadium, which is located just a few yards away from where Giants Stadium, their home from 1976-2009, once stood. The Giants were 10-6, one of a record-tying 13 teams to finish with double-digit victories. They finished the season with the same record as the NFC East champion Philadelphia Eagles, the same record as the eventual Super Bowl XLV champion Green Bay Packers and the same record as the 2007 Giants team that won Super Bowl XLII.

But ultimately, the season did not meet their expectations because the Giants did not make the playoffs. Two losses to the Eagles and another to the Packers in the final seven weeks of the season first cost the Giants the NFC East title and then an opportunity to participate in the postseason. The Giants lost the NFC's last postseason berth on a tiebreaker.

The Giants ended their season with an unusual blend of emotions. They accepted their fate and took responsibility for coming up short, but they were equally defiant in their belief that they are better than a playoff nonqualifier.

"I'm really disappointed to be here talking to you guys about 10-6," general manager Jerry Reese said at his season-ending news conference. "I really felt like we had an opportunity to get into the playoffs and really do some damage when we got there, but it didn't work out that way. I'm really disappointed, even more so than last year because we put ourselves in position and that's what our goal is every year, to put ourselves in a position and we put ourselves in position and we just did not finish the job and that's very disappointing."

Although disappointed at missing the playoffs for the second season in a row, Coach Tom Coughlin had high praise for his players.

"I love this team, I love these guys, I think they're strong character people, we work together on everything, we're all in it together, we're all for one, one for all and that's the way that it has to be," Coughlin said. "It's a group of guys that don't make excuses for anything, they accept responsibility, they accept whatever takes place. They've done an outstanding job this year of adjusting to some very unusual circumstances that surround the game. They've done a good job of that. We've had a couple of huge disappointments, emotionally we weren't to where we should have been. We did come back to a certain level (in the season finale vs. Washington), but it's an outstanding group of guys who by and large are on the same page, they're focused, they come to work, they prepare themselves, they play hard, there are all kinds of personalities just like there always is, but as I said, I'm very, very appreciative of the kind of effort, the attitude, the enthusiasm, and the fact that this year's team was a very responsive team."

The Giants had many impressive statistical achievements in 2010. The offense (fifth) and defense (seventh) each finished in the top 10 of the NFL rankings. Eli Manning set franchise records for completions and completion percentage and became the first Giants quarterback with two 4,000-yard seasons and the second with more than 30 touchdown passes. Ahmad Bradshaw (1,235) and Brandon Jacobs (823) rushed for a combined 2,058 yards. Despite missing three games with injuries, Hakeem Nicks had one of the finest seasons by a wide receiver in Giants history with 79 catches for 1,052 yards and 11 touchdowns. Mario Manningham caught 60 passes, including 85- and 92-yard touchdowns. Osi Umenyiora (10 forced fumbles) and Justin Tuck (five fumble recoveries) tied for the team lead with 11.5 sacks.

But those players and the rest of the team and coaches ultimately exited the season with an empty feeling.

"Overall, I'm disappointed in the outcome of the season," said quarterback Eli Manning, who threw for 4,002 yards and 31 touchdowns, but also tossed 25 interceptions. "We thought we had potential. We thought we had players to make it in the playoffs and make a run, and we didn't accomplish that. We didn't play well enough at times of the season to make it into the playoffs."

"We had a good year," Tuck said. "Ten and six is nothing to hold your head down about. Obviously, it wasn't good enough, and we always have a goal of reaching the playoffs and going deep in the playoffs and hopefully winning the Super Bowl. It didn't happen this year, but we're not going to hold our heads about it. We had opportunities, and you try your best to learn from them. Hopefully, that's being carried over to next year and it gets us to work a little harder in running and work a little harder in lifting and propel us to where we want to be next year."

CAROLINA PANTHERS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

SEPT. 12, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

GIANTS 31, PANTHERS 18

Playing their first regular season game in New Meadowlands Stadium, the Giants unveiled the kind of versatile and punishing defense that had keyed so many successes in the past. The defense forced five turnovers, delivered four sacks, gave up only 89 rushing yards and did not allow a second-half point as the Giants stormed to a 31-18 victory over the Carolina Panthers.

Tom Coughlin called it, "A historic first win for the New York Giants franchise here in the brand new stadium."

Carolina quarterback Matt Moore completed only 14 of 33 passes and was knocked out of the game late in the fourth quarter after facing relentless Giants pressure. The Panthers averaged only 3.7 yards a carry. Deon Grant, Terrell Thomas and Kenny Phillips all intercepted Moore passes in the end zone. Mathias Kiwanuka had two sacks, Osi Umenyiora one and Barry Cofield and Chris Canty split the fourth. The Giants were credited with 10 quarterback hits on Moore and his replacement, rookie Jimmy Clausen.

Carolina scored just one touchdown, on Moore's 19-yard touchdown pass to Steve Smith with three seconds remaining in the first half. John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers.

The Giants' offense also held up its end. Wide receiver Hakeem Nicks scored three touchdowns on passes from Eli Manning - the distances were 26, 19 and five yards – Ahmad Bradshaw scored on a four-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal. Nicks was the first Giants player to score three touchdowns in a game since Brandon Jacobs ran in from two, one and two yards out on Dec. 21, 2008 – also against Carolina. He was the first Giant to catch three touchdown passes in a game since Plaxico Burress on Sept. 9, 2007 at Dallas. Burress caught Manning passes of 60, 4 and 10 yards that night.

Manning completed 20 of 30 passes for 263 yards. He also threw three interceptions, but they all tipped off the hands of his intended receiver.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT INDIANAPOLIS COLTS

SEPT. 19, 2010-LUCAS OIL STADIUM

COLTS 38, GIANTS 14

There was no brotherly love in Indianapolis as Peyton Manning came out firing on the game's first play and didn't let up until his Colts had clinched a lopsided 38-14 triumph over Eli Manning and the Giants in Lucas Oil Stadium. The Giants trailed at halftime, 24-0, and saw their nine-game September winning streak end.

Indianapolis had lost its opener in Houston while rushing just 10 times for 44 yards and allowed 257 rushing yards. They turned the tables against the Giants, running for 160 yards, including 92 by Joseph Addai, on 43 carries and limiting the Giants to 120.

This was the second game in NFL history in which the starting quarterbacks were brothers. Peyton and the Colts have defeated Eli and the Giants in both of them, including the 2006 season opener.

Peyton Manning, benefitting from the strong run game and solid protection, completed 20 of 26 passes for 255 yards, three touchdowns and no interceptions. Peyton was sacked only once and had a passer rating of 145.5 His touchdown passes went 50 yards to Dallas Clark, three yards to Austin Collie and 10 yards to Reggie Wayne. Donald Brown scored on a seven-yard run, Fili Moala on a one-yard fumble return and Adam Vinatieri kicked a 38-yard field goal for the Colts.

Eli Manning hit 13 of 24 passes for 161 yards, two touchdowns and an interception and had a rating of 85.6. Manning threw touchdown passes of 54 yards to Mario Manningham in the third quarter (when the Colts had a 24-0 lead) and 31 yards to Hakeem Nicks with only 1:46 remaining in the game.

TENNESSEE TITANS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

SEPT. 26, 2010-LP FIELD

TITANS 29, GIANTS 10

The Giants were their own worst enemies when they hosted the Titans. They outgained Tennessee by 200 yards (471-271) but were shutout in the second half and went down to a 29-10 defeat, their first in New Meadowlands Stadium. All their good work was undone by turnovers, penalties and special teams play that Tom Coughlin called "horrible." The offense gave away the ball three times, including twice deep in Tennessee territory. The penalty total was 11, including five personal fouls. The special teams missed two field goal attempts, including one after being pushed back by a delay of game penalty and allowed a momentum-changing kickoff at the start of the second half.

"The oldest axiom in football is the first thing you have to do is keep from beating yourself before you can beat the opponent and we didn't do that," Coughlin said.

Ahmad Bradshaw scored on a 10-yard run and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 50-yard field goal for the Giants.

Tennessee scored on Chris Johnson runs of one and eight yards, Vince Young's 13-yard touchdown pass to Kenny Britt, Rob Bironas' field goals of 48 and 22 yards and a safety.

Eli Manning and Bradshaw personified the Giants' day. Manning completed a career-high 34 passes and threw for 386 yards, his second-highest total as a pro. But he threw interceptions – one of them left-handed -- on the Giants' first two possessions on tipped balls and led the Giants to just one touchdown. Bradshaw rushed for 88 yards and scored the Giants' only touchdown on a 10-yard run. But his penalty for a chop block in the end zone gave the Titans a safety and the lead for good and his fumble on the Tennessee five-yard line deflated the Giants when they already trailed by nine points.

CHICAGO BEARS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

OCT. 3, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

GIANTS 17, BEARS 3

Combining an attacking defense with a punishing ground game, the Giants broke a two-game losing streak by overwhelming the previously undefeated Chicago Bears, 17-3, in New Meadowlands Stadium.

The Giants sacked Bears quarterback Jay Cutler an NFL-record nine times in the first half (and added one on Caleb Hanie in the fourth quarter), held Chicago to 110 yards and six first downs and ran for 189 yards. And they did it with many of the great figures from franchise history in attendance as the Giants unveiled their 30-man Ring of Honor at halftime. One of them, former linebacker Jessie Armstead, who is with the team daily in the player development department and as a part time coach, gave an impassioned speech to the entire team Saturday night.

The defense was dominant. The 10 sacks was the third-highest total in franchise history (second-highest since sacks became an official statistic in 1982). Osi Umenyiora and Justin Tuck led the sack assault with three apiece, a career high for Tuck. Cutler threw for 42 yards before suffering a concussion that kept him out of the game the entire second half. Backup Todd Collins was helped off in the fourth quarter. The defense forced three turnovers (two interceptions and a fumble). Chicago's deepest penetration in 15 possessions was the Giants' 22-yard line. Robbie Gould's fourth-quarter field goal accounted for Chicago's scoring.

Offensively, Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs each scored on short touchdown runs and Lawrence Tynes kicked a field goal for the Giants. Bradshaw accounted for 129 of the Giants' 189 rushing yards (142 in the second half) against Chicago defense that was ranked No. 1 in the NFL against the run entering the game.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT HOUSTON TEXANS

OCT. 10, 2010-RELIANT STADIUM

GIANTS 34, TEXANS 10

The date was 10/10/10, so the day had to belong to Eli Manning.

The Giants' quarterback – No. 10 on the roster – threw three touchdown passes and the defense turned in another dominant performance as the Giants scored the game's first 21 points and rolled a 34-10 rout of the Houston Texans in Reliant Stadium.

Manning, who passed for 297 yards, threw two touchdown passes to Hakeem Nicks – a six-yarder in the first quarter and a 12-yarder in the second – and added a four-yard touchdown pass to Steve Smith in the fourth. Brandon Jacobs scored on a short run and Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 45 and 42 yards for the Giants.

Nicks had a career-high 12 catches for 130 yards. The 12 receptions tied Amani Toomer's franchise record for catches by a wide receiver.

For the second week in a row, the defense was in charge. Houston had entered the game with league-high averages of 172 yards a game and 5.5 yards per attempt. Against the stifling Giants' D, the Texans managed only 24 yards and a puny 1.6-yard average. Arian Foster, who led the NFL with 134.3 yards a game, carried 11 times for just 25 yards with a long game of nine yards.

Houston scored on former Giant Derrick Ward's one-yard touchdown run and Neil Rackers' 38-yard field goal.

DETROIT LIONS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

OCT. 17, 2010-FORD FIELD

GIANTS 28, LIONS 20

It wasn't as dominating or efficient as their previous two games, but the Giants both made and prevented enough big plays to defeat the Detroit Lions in New Meadowlands Stadium, 28-20.

Though the Lions played most of the game with their third-string quarterback, they pulled to within four points on an 87-yard touchdown pass and later within eight points on a 50-yard field goal that was set up by a 58-yard kickoff return and they had one last shot to tie the game after the Giants couldn't get a first down on their final offensive series. But Antrel Rolle's interception of a Drew Stanton pass with seven seconds remaining ended the suspense.

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Mario Manningham and Travis Beckum (the first of his career) and Brandon Jacobs ran in for two scores for the Giants. Manning completed 20 of 30 passes for 177 yards and did not throw an interception. Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for 133 yards on 19 carries, including a 45-yarder.

Deon grant led the defense with 10 tackles (seven solo), a forced fumble and a key fumble recovery.

Detroit scored on touchdown receptions by Calvin Johnson and Nate Burleson and two Jason Hanson field goals, both 50 yards long. The Lions played the end of the first half and the entire second half with Stanton at quarterback. Starter Matthew Stafford missed his fifth consecutive game with a shoulder injury. His replacement, Shaun Hill, suffered a fractured left (non-throwing) forearm on Detroit's final offensive series of the second quarter and did not return.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT DALLAS COWBOYS

OCT. 25, 2010-COWBOYS STADIUM

GIANTS 41, COWBOYS 35

The Giants earned a 41-35 victory in Dallas and improved to 2-0 in Cowboys Stadium despite committing five turnovers (including two before the game was three minutes old), facing early deficits of 10 and then 13 points, and allowing a 93-yard punt return and 15 Dallas points in the final 3:17 that forced the Giants to recover two onside kicks.

The Giants overcame the obstacles and shortcomings thanks to several outstanding performances. After falling behind, 20-7, the Giants scored 31 consecutive points. They jumped ahead with 17 points in the last 4:22 of the second quarter.

Eli Manning threw four touchdown passes, including two to Hakeem Nicks and one apiece to Steve Smith and Mario Manningham. Nicks and Smith caught nine passes each, Nicks for 108 yards, Smith for 101. Ahmad Bradshaw rushed for 126 yards and Brandon Jacobs scored the Giants' fifth touchdown on a 30-yard run. Lawrence Tynes kicked two field goals, including a career high-tying 53-yarder.

The defense held the Cowboys to 41 rushing yards. Dallas played most of the game without quarterback Tony Romo, who suffered a broken left clavicle when he was hit by linebacker Michael Boley in the second quarter. Romo, who was replaced by Jon Kitna, was the fifth quarterback the Giants knocked out of a game in 2010.

The Cowboys got three touchdowns from rookie Dez Bryant – on the long punt return and a pair of late 15-yard receptions, a four-yard touchdown catch by Jason Witten and two David Buehler field goals.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT SEATTLE SEAHAWKS

NOV. 7, 2010-QUEST FIELD

GIANTS 41, SEAHAWKS 7

The answer to the question of whether the bye week would arrest the Giants' momentum was a resounding no. Turning in one of their most complete and dominant performances in memory, the Giants stormed to leads of 21 points after one quarter, 35 points at halftime and 41-0 in the third quarter and crushed the Seahawks, 41-7, in Qwest Field for their fifth consecutive triumph.

It was the Giants' largest margin of victory on the road since a 41-7 triumph at Washington on Oct. 10, 1993. The victory was the Giants' first in Seattle since 1981.

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Hakeem Nicks, Steve Smith and Kevin Boss and Ahmad Bradshaw scored on runs of two and four yards. The Giants scored their touchdowns on five consecutive possessions spanning the first and second quarters.

Lawrence Tynes kicked field goals of 25 and 20 yards in the third quarter to complete the Giants' scoring.

The Seahawks' only score was a 36-yard touchdown pass from first-time NFL starter Charlie Whitehurst to Ben Obomanu with 13:34 remaining in the game – long after the outcome had been decided.

After Seattle's touchdown, the Giants, with backup Sage Rosenfels at quarterback, embarked on a 19-play drive that consisted entirely of running plays and took exactly 13 minutes to complete. The Giants advanced to the six-yard line, but Rosenfels took a knee on the final three plays of the series.

GAME 9

DALLAS COWBOYS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

NOV. 14, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

COWBOYS 33, GIANTS 20

The Giants gave up too many big plays, made too many mistakes and never generated any momentum in seeing their five-game winning streak end with a 33-20 loss to the Cowboys, who played their first game under Coach Jason Garrett.

"We didn't play well enough to win," Coach Tom Coughlin said. "We didn't execute the way we've been executing."

Jon Kitna – Dallas' starting quarterback because Tony Romo is injured – completed only 13 passes, but they accounted for 327 yards and three touchdowns. The Giants gave up seven Kitna completions of 24 or more yards after allowing only nine in the first eight games. Kitna threw scoring passes of 13 yards to Dez Bryant, 71 yards to Felix Jones and 24 yards to Miles Austin. Bryan McCann returned an interception 101 yards and David Buehler kicked two field goals for Dallas.

Eli Manning threw touchdown passes to Mario Manningham and Kevin Boss and Lawrence Tynes kicked a pair of field goals for the Giants. Another Manning scoring throw, a 48-yarder to Hakeem Nicks, was nullified by a holding penalty. The Giants lost a fumble on the next play.

But what many people will remember about this game is New Meadowlands Stadium being abruptly plunged into total darkness. After a partial loss of light early in the third quarter, all of the stadium's lights, scoreboards and video board suddenly went off at 6:12 p.m., with 10:57 remaining in the third quarter. The game was halted for eight minutes as the boards and lights gradually came back on. The outage was blamed on two feeders to the stadium.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

NOV. 21, 2010-LINCOLN FINANCIAL FIELD

EAGLES 27, GIANTS 17

One of the Giants' most inspiring comebacks in 2010 ended with one of their most disappointing defeats.

Faced with a 13-point deficit late in the third quarter, the Giants rallied to take a one-point lead in Lincoln Financial Field. But the Eagles scored the go-ahead touchdown on a fourth down, 50-yard run and the Giants' chance to win expired with a turnover with less than three minutes remaining. The end result was a 27-17 loss to the Eagles.

The defense held Michael Vick and the high-flying Eagles in check most of the night. But the unit allowed two big plays in the final minutes and the offense had five turnovers (one with a second left in the game) and totaled a season-low 208 yards.

The Giants led, 17-16, when Philly Coach Andy Reid elected to try for a first down on a fourth-and-one from the 50-yard line. Vick bobbled the snap, regained control, then pitched the ball perhaps two inches past Osi Umenyiora's outstretched fingers to LeSean McCoy on the left side. The second-year running back raced through the Giants defense and didn't stop until he was in the end zone. Vick threw to Jason Avant for the two-point conversion and a 24-16 Eagles lead.

On their ensuing possession, the Giants faced a fourth-and-six from the Philadelphia 44. Tom Coughlin elected to go for it and the decision seemed to pay off when Manning scrambled for 16 yards. But instead of sliding feet first, which automatically ends the play, Manning dove head first. When he hit the ground he fumbled and the ball was recovered by defensive end Darryl Tapp.

Coughlin challenged the ruling, but after a review, referee Ron Winter upheld the call on the field. The Eagles, with McCoy contributing a 40-yard run, set up David Akers' clinching field goal.

JACKSONVILLE JAGUARS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

NOV. 28, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

GIANTS 24, JAGUARS 20

After the Jaguars stormed to an 11-point halftime lead, Giants defensive captain Justin Tuck spoke forcefully and loudly to the team at halftime. Inspired by his diatribe, the Giants dominated the second half and earned a thrilling 24-20 victory over the Jaguars.

"Basically, I just talked about how you can't allow somebody to come into your house and take over," Tuck said. "At that point, they were doing whatever they wanted to do on offense. I told them that I was playing like crap, I told them that we were playing like crap and that in the second half we need to pick it up, just try to create a spark. And it worked."

That would be an understatement. After allowing 236 total yards, 145 rushing yards and 16 first downs in the first half, the Giants' defense held the Jaguars to 92 yards, including 62 on the ground, and 10 first downs in the final two quarters. That gave the offense a chance to get its bearings and Eli Manning responded by throwing two fourth-quarter touchdown passes, including the game-winning 32-yarder to Kevin Boss with 3:15 remaining.

Manning's 26-yard touchdown pass to Mario Manningham and Ahmad Bradshaw's two-point conversion tied the score at 17-17. Josh Scobee's 42-yard field goal regain the lead for Jacksonville with 8:26 remaining. But on third-and-10, after Manning and Boss correctly read that the Jaguars were going to come on an all-out blitz from the Jacksonville 32-yard line. Boss cut short his route, caught Manning's quick pass at the 30, stepped away from Courtney Greene's tackle attempt and sprinted to the end zone for the game-winning score with 3:15 remaining.

WASHINGTON REDSKINS AT NEW YORK GIANTS

DEC. 5, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

GIANTS 31, REDSKINS 7

It is a time-honored formula for Giants success once the calendar turns to December: steamroll the opposition defense with a relentless rushing attack and stonewall the offense with a dominant defense. The Giants adhered to the blueprint perfectly in rolling to a 31-7 rout of the Redskins in New Meadowlands Stadium.

Brandon Jacobs (103) and Ahmad Bradshaw (97) combined to rush for 200 yards (the Giants' had a net total of 197 yards). They scored two touchdowns apiece as the Giants scored four times on the ground for the first time since Oct. 31, 2004 at Minnesota. Eli Manning completed 15 of 25 passes for 161 yards and was not sacked for the fifth consecutive game, a Giants record. Derek Hagan caught a game-high seven passes for 65 yards.

Washington's generated 338 yards of offense, including 296 via Donovan McNabb's passes. But the Redskins were shutout in the first half and did not score until they trailed by four touchdowns. The Giants' defense sacked McNabb four times and forced six turnovers (four fumbles and two interceptions), its highest number of takeaways since Sept. 19, 2005 vs. New Orleans.

Rookie Jason Pierre-Paul had his second two-sack game in a row. Justin Tuck and Osi Umenyiora each had a sack and combined for three forced fumbles. Barry Cofield led the Giants with seven solo tackles.

The special teams got a 28-yard field goal from Lawrence Tynes, prevented dangerous return man Brandon Banks from doing any damage and got a boost from Former Redskin Devin Thomas, whose first game in a Giants uniform included two special teams tackles, a punt downed at the five-yard line and a blocked punt.

NEW YORK GIANTS AT MINNESOTA VIKINGS

DEC. 13, 2010-FORD FIELD, DETROIT, MI

GIANTS 21, VIKINGS 3

The Giants' road trip ended as they anticipated it would, with a much-needed victory over the Minnesota Vikings. Of course, they didn't expect it to be in Detroit, where their three-day tour of the Midwest prior to the game ended. The teams were scheduled to play at Mall of America Field in Minneapolis, which became impossible when the dome atop the stadium collapsed under the weight of 17 inches of snow. That storm diverted the Giants to Kansas City for a night and ultimately to Michigan, where the teams began play 30 hours later and 690 miles to the East than the original plans called for.

The Giants were unfazed by the unanticipated itinerary changes and cruised to a 21-3 victory in Ford Field, the home of the Detroit Lions.

Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw each rushed for more than 100 yards and a touchdown. It was the second time in Giants history they had two 100-yard runners in the same season. The first was Dec. 23, 2007 at Buffalo, where Bradshaw and Jacobs accomplished the feat. The Giants' third touchdown was a pass from Eli Manning to tight end Kevin Boss.

Ryan Longwell kicked a field goal for the Vikings. Minnesota's evening was noteworthy because of the absence of quarterback Brett Favre, who was unable to play because of a sprained shoulder, ending NFL record 18-year streak of 297 consecutive starts. Tarvaris Jackson started in his place. The only player in history to play in more consecutive games than Favre was former Giants punter Jeff Feagles, who played in all 320 games in his career.

PHILADELPHIA EAGLES AT NEW YORK GIANTS

DEC. 19, 2010-NEW MEADOWLANDS STADIUM

EAGLES 38, GIANTS 31

In 42 years as a coach, Tom Coughlin nor his players had ever experienced the kind of crushing defeat they endured in New Meadowlands Stadium. The Giants owned a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter before Philadelphia scored 28 points in the final 7:28, including DeSean Jackson's 65-yard game-winning punt return on the game's final play that gave the Eagles a 38-31 victory. Jackson was the first player in NFL history to score a game-winning touchdown on a punt return on the final play of the fourth quarter.

The Eagles tied the game on Michael Vick's 13-yard touchdown pass to Jeremy Maclin with 1:16 remaining. The Giants had all their timeouts remaining and a chance to win the game, but after two incomplete passes and Darryl Tapp's seven-yard sack of Eli Manning, the Giants called timeout with 14 seconds remaining. Rookie punter Matt Dodge hit a line drive that Jackson dropped and picked up before taking off toward the end zone.

The punt was the last in a series of mistakes and missed opportunities down the stretch that cost the Giants the game. After Vick's 65-yard touchdown pass to tight end Brent Celek cut the Giants' lead to 31-17, Philadelphia's Riley Cooper recovered a David Akers onside kick that seemed to surprise the Giants. That led to Vick's four-yard touchdown run that made it 31-24.

On their next possession, the Giants were on the periphery of field goal range when a false start penalty pushed them back five yards. Three plays later, they punted.

The Giants' collapse wasted a fine game by Manning, who tied a career-high with four touchdown passes – two to Mario Manningham (his first career two-touchdown game) and one apiece to Hakeem Nicks and Kevin Boss.

GAME 15

NEW YORK GIANTS AT GREEN BAY PACKERS

DEC. 26, 2010-LAMBEAU FIELD

PACKERS 45, GIANTS 17

The Giants played a costly game of giveaway in Lambeau Field, first with the football, then with the game and ultimately with the ownership of their postseason destiny. Six turnovers – the Giants' highest total in six years – short-circuited numerous scoring chances and led to 24 Green Bay points as the Packers rolled to a 45-17.

Eli Manning tied his career high with four interceptions and Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs each lost a fumble.

Manning threw touchdown passes to Hakeem Nicks and Mario Manningham and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 38-yard field goal for the Giants. But the scores were more than offset by the six turnovers, including five in the second half; Manning threw interceptions on three consecutive fourth-quarter possessions, though the Giants were well behind at that point.

The Packers scored on four Aaron Rodgers touchdown passes - to Jordy Nelson, James Jones, Donald Lee and John Kuhn – plus Kuhn scoring runs of one and eight yards and a Mason Crosby field goal.

Manning's touchdown pass to Manningham covered 80 yards. Earlier in the game, Rodgers threw an 80-yarder to Nelson. It was the first game in Giants history in which each team threw a touchdown pass that was at least 80 yards long. It had not happened in any NFL game since 1981.

GAME 16

NEW YORK GIANTS AT WASHINGTON REDSKINS

JAN. 2, 2010-FEDEX FIELD

GIANTS 17, REDSKINS 14

For the Giants, it was the agony of victory.

The Giants took care of their own business and never trailed in closing their season with a 17-14 victory over the Redskins in FedEx Field. But the Green Bay Packers came from behind to defeat the Chicago Bears, 10-3, to secure the sixth and final NFC playoff berth the Giants had coveted. So despite a 10-6 record, the Giants finished out of the playoffs for the second consecutive season, the first time that happened since 2003-04.

Eli Manning threw a 92-yard touchdown to Mario Manningham, Brandon Jacobs scored on a two-yard touchdown run and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 20-yard field goal for the Giants. The 92-yard pass was the third-longest in Giants history. It is exceeded in length only by Earl Morrall's 98-yard throw to Homer Jones at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 1966 and Norm Snead's 94-yarder to Rich Houston vs. Dallas on Sept. 24, 1972.

Washington scored on Rex Grossman's touchdown passes of one yard to tight end Fred Davis and 64 yards to Anthony Armstrong.

In the fourth quarter, the Giants twice stopped Washington on fourth down and Osi Umenyiora and Kenny Phillips recovered fourth-quarter Washington fumbles to help preserve the victory. Late in the fourth quarter, Washington moved to the Giants' 36-yard line where, on fourth-and-four, Rex Grossman's pass fell incomplete with 1:03 remaining, effectively ending the game.

GIANTS 31, JETS 16
Aug. 16, 2010
New Meadowlands Stadium

The first football game in the New Meadowlands Stadium produced a happy memory, a break out performance and a scary moment for the Giants, who defeated the Jets, 31-16, in the teams' annual preseason game in the stadium opener. Rookie free agent Victor Cruz matched his jersey number by scoring the game's final three touchdowns, on receptions of 64 and 34 yards from Jim Sorgi and five yards from Rhett Bomar. But in the second quarter, Eli Manning was hit and sustained a three-inch laceration on his head that required 12 stitches and forced him to miss a game. Cruz finished with a team-high six receptions for 145 yards and those three scores. He turned in the play of the night when he gave the Giants the lead for good at 17-16 with 2:29 remaining in the third quarter. The Giants had just taken possession on their own 36 after a Nick Folk missed field goal try. On first down, Sorgi lofted a pass down the left side for Cruz, who was blanketed by cornerback Dwight Lowery. No problem. While somehow warding Lowery off with his right arm, Cruz thrust out his left arm, caught the ball in stride at the Jets' 40 and sprinted to the end zone for the touchdown. On the Giants' next possession, Cruz made another outstanding catch, again victimizing Lowery, this time for a 21-yard gain and a first down. Two plays later, on second-and-four from the 34, Cruz beat Drew Coleman and scored his second touchdown with another nice grab on a pass from Sorgi. Cruz still wasn't finished. With 2:24 remaining in the game, he completed his hat trick with a five-yard score to cap a 10-play, 67-yard drive.

STEELERS 24, GIANTS 17
New Meadowlands Stadium

The Giants lost their first home game in New Meadowlands Stadium, 24-17, to a Steelers team that ended its season in Super Bowl XLV. Third-string quarterback Rhett Bomar played the entire game because of injuries to Eli Manning (head laceration) and Jim Sorgi (shoulder). Bomar completed 13 of 26 passes for 167 yards, no touchdown and an interception. He was sacked twice. Ahmad Bradshaw (nine-yard run) and Andre Brown (one yard) scored the Giants' touchdowns and Lawrence Tynes added a 42-yard field goal. For the Steelers, Byron Leftwich threw a 68-yard touchdown pass to Mike Wallace, Isaac Redman (12 yards) and Dwayne Wright (one yard) ran for scores and Jeff Reed kicked a field goal. Pittsburgh rushed for 161 yards, but needed 41 attempts to get them, a 3.9-yard average. Tynes' field goal with 5:49 remaining moved the Giants, who had trailed by 17 points, within a touchdown and in position to complete an impressive comeback. The Giants forced the Steelers to go three-and-out, but then did the same when Bomar's scramble was four yards short of a first down. The Steelers then ran out the final 3:04. Pittsburgh led at halftime, 10-7, before executing touchdown drives of 78 and 82 yards in the third quarter to increase its advantage to 24-7.

RAVENS 24, GIANTS 10
M&T Bank Stadium

Baltimore quarterback Joe Flacco led a hurry-up offense in the first half against a Giants defense missing two of its top three corners and the Ravens defeated the Giants, 24-10, in M&T Bank Stadium. They were without the services of 12 players who did not suit up because of injury, including corners Terrell Thomas (groin) and Aaron Ross (foot). Flacco completed 21 of 34 passes for 229 yards, including touchdown throws of nine yards to Anquan Boldin and 13 yards to Todd Heap. Billy Cundiff kicked a 25-yard field goal for Baltimore. The Ravens rarely huddled and had only 11 rushing attempts in a first half in which Flacco threw 32 passes, completing 20 for 220 yards and two scores. Heap had six catches for 69 yards in the half, which ended with Baltimore on top, 17-3. In the fourth quarter, third-string quarterback Troy Smith threw an 11-yard touchdown pass to Marcus Smith to cap an 80-yard drive. The Giants didn't score until Lawrence Tynes kicked a 42-yard field goal as time expired in the first half. Their only touchdown came on Rhett Bomar's one-yard pass to Victor Cruz with 1:18 to play. Eli Manning returned to action after missing the previous game with a head injury and played only the first half. He completed nine of 18 passes for 63 yards and an interception on a pass that deflected off Steve Smith. Bomar took over for Manning at the start of the third quarter and hit 10 of 20 passes.

GIANTS 20, PATRIOTS 17
New Meadowlands Stadium

The Giants faced three separate deficits before winning their preseason finale against New England, 20-17, in New Meadowlands Stadium. They took their fourth and final lead with 1:49 remaining, when backup quarterback Rhett Bomar threw a 60-yard touchdown pass to rookie wide receiver Duke Calhoun. Tight end Kevin Boss caught a touchdown pass from Eli Manning (after which the extra point try was unsuccessful) and Lawrence Tynes kicked a pair of 24-yard field goals for the Giants. New England also scored on a touchdown pass to its starting tight end (rookie Ron Gronkowski, from Tom Brady), got a long touchdown reception from a young free agent receiver (Darnell Jenkins) and a field goal (by Steve Gostkowski). Manning and the first team offense had mixed results in their two possessions. The Giants executed their finest drive of the preseason, moving 86 yards in nine plays, including Manning's 13-yard touchdown pass to Boss (whose 22-yard reception was the longest play of the series). Manning also threw passes of 12 yards to Hakeem Nicks and 17 yards to Ahmad Bradshaw, who ran for 20 yards on the drive.

On their second series, the Giants moved from their own 20 to the Patriots' 44-yard line. But the momentum stalled when the Giants attempted a flea-flicker and Manning dropped the return flip from Brandon Jacobs. To prevent New England from recovering the fumble, Manning swatted the ball with his hand. Because it bounced forward, Manning was penalized 10 yards for an illegal bat, pushing the Giants back to their own 44. The Giants picked up 12 of the 20 yards they needed for the first down, but Manning's deep third-down pass to Nicks was incomplete and they were forced to punt.

HISTORY OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

TIM MARA

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The city of New York was introduced to professional football on the same day that the city was introduced to the New York Giants. It was a clear sunny October afternoon in 1925 when the Giants took the field to play against the Frankford Yellow Jackets. The Giants lost their home debut by the score of 14-0 to lower their record to 0-3 after opening with two losses on the road. But more importantly, the New York Giants and professional football had arrived.

Tim Mara, a bookmaker (legal at the time) and successful businessman and promoter, purchased the team for a reported $500. In an era when professional football was in the shadows of baseball, boxing and college football, and professional football teams hailed from the towns of Dayton, Rochester and Columbus, league officials believed that a team in a large market such as New York was exactly what was needed to keep pro football alive.

The Giants struggled financially through the first decade but managed to win their first title in only their third season, going 11-1-1 in 1927. With the fall of the Stock Market and the Depression that followed, the 1930s were not off to a great start. Tim Mara suffered substantial losses during the crash that threatened the existence of the Giants. With that fear in mind, Tim Mara handed control of the franchise over to his two sons, Jack Mara, who was twenty-two, and Wellington, who was fourteen. Wellington Mara became the youngest owner of a football team and began his storied career as a major player in the Giants organization.

In 1934 the Giants beat the Chicago Bears, 30-13, in nine-degree temperatures at the Polo Grounds in a game that has become famous as the "Sneakers Game." With the Giants trailing 10-3 at the half, head coach Steve Owen provided his squad with basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy turf. The team responded with four touchdowns in the second half to turn the game into a Giants rout.

If there ever were a time for the National Football League and the New York Giants to fold, it would have come during the years of World War II. The NFL decided to continue during the war despite losing players to military service. Many of the players that stayed behind were older players that were past their prime. Low attendance forced some teams to fold and other teams like the Philadelphia Eagles and the Pittsburgh Steelers to merge into one team. Fortunately, the New York Giants were able to survive the war years and managed to reach three NFL championship games during the 1940s.

The 1950s were filled with Giants players that would become household names and help bring football to a playing field equal to other spectator sports. With the growing interest in professional football, the Giants continued to make strides to attract the most talented players from the college level. By the time the decade was over, Kyle Rote, Eddie Price, Rosie Brown, Frank Gifford, Sam Huff and Tom Landry would send the Giants and professional football into a new era.

The 1960s marked a decade of change for the Giants. Since they were founded in 1925, the Giants had been a talented team filled with success. The 1960s marked a turning point for our country as well as the Giants. After reaching the title games of 1961, 1962, and 1963 the Giants were hit with injuries and a series of retirements to key players that sent the team through a period of mediocrity.

The Giants in the 1970s could best be described as a team in transition. The team called four different stadiums home, played in three different states, and did not play in one postseason game. Teams like the Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears, and Giants, so strong in the NFL's formative years, gave way to new powers like Dallas, Pittsburgh and Minnesota.

The Giants ended almost two decades of losing with one of their most prosperous decades in the 1980s. After finishing in last place or next-to-last eight times in the 1970s,

WHY GIANTS? HOW THE NEW YORK FOOTBALL GIANTS GOT ITS NAME

Owner Tim Mara "borrowed" the Giants' name from the city's Major League Baseball team of the same name. This was not unusual among early day pro football franchises. At one time or another there were NFL franchises named the New York Yankees, Brooklyn Dodgers, Cleveland Indians, Cincinnati Reds, and Detroit Tigers.

the Giants appeared in three wild card games and won two NFC East division titles. Through the draft and key trades, the Giants slowly built a winning program. By 1986 the championship pieces fit together and the team was back on top with their first Super Bowl appearance and their first world championship since 1956.

The Giants were back on top of the NFL in 1990, winning their second Super Bowl in a dramatic 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. The next two years were filled with coaching changes, quarterback controversies, and a step back into the middle of the pack of the National Football League.

In February, 1991, less than a month after winning their second Super Bowl, it was announced that after 66 years of ownership by the Mara family, a 50% interest in the club had been sold to Preston Robert Tisch by Tim Mara. A native of New York City and a lifelong Giants fan, Tisch is one of the country's most successful businessmen.

Dan Reeves was hired as coach before the start of the 1993 season, and he helped bring the Giants back into Super Bowl contention. The Giants finished their first season under Reeves tied with the Detroit Lions for the best turnaround in football, going from 6-10 to 11-5. Reeves was named the NFL Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and others for his efforts.

On January 15, 1997, a new chapter in Giants history began when Jim Fassel was named the 15th head coach. In the first season under Fassel's leadership, the Giants captured the NFC East Championship with a 10-5-1 record. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. The Giants fell short of a playoff berth in 1998 after overcoming a 3-7 start to finish with an 8-8 record. The Giants were 7-9 in 2000.

In 2000, the Giants returned to the upper echelon of the NFL. They won the NFC East title and earned home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 12-4 regular season record. The Giants then beat Philadelphia in the divisional playoffs and routed Minnesota, 41-0, in the NFC Championship Game to advance to the Super Bowl for the third time. But they failed to win the game for the first time, falling to the Baltimore Ravens.

The Giants slipped to 7-9 in 2001, losing their last two games to fall out of playoff contention. In 2002, the Giants won their final four regular season games, including an overtime thriller in the regular season finale against Philadelphia, to clinch a wild card playoff berth. In the third period of the postseason game in San Francisco, the Giants led the 49ers, 38-14. But San Francisco rallied for a 39-38 victory.

Because of their impressive stretch run, the Giants began the 2003 season with high hopes. At midseason, they were in the thick of the playoff race with a 4-4 record. But a second-half collapse against Atlanta set the tone for an eight-game, season-ending losing streak. With two games remaining, the Giants announced that Fassel would not return. On Jan. 6, 2004, Tom Coughlin, a highly-successful head coach at Boston College and with the Jacksonville Jaguars, and a former Giants assistant, was hired as the 16th head coach in Giants history.

In the 2004 NFL Draft, the Giants traded for quarterback Eli Manning, who started the final seven games of his rookie season. The Giants were 6-10 in Coughlin's first year at the helm. In 2005, Manning started every game and the Giants were 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000. The first-place finish was an NFL-record 21st in franchise history. Five Giants were elected to the Pro Bowl, the team's largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven. The group was led by running back Tiki Barber, who was second in the NFL in rushing with a team-record 1,860 yards. Barber's 2,390 total yards were the second-highest total in league history.The Giants finished 8-8 in 2006, but made the playoffs as a wild card.

Giants history. The Giants clinched an NFC wild card postseason berth with a victory in Buffalo in their 15th game. The following week, they narrowly lost to the undefeated New England Patriots in the regular season finale to finish 10-6. What followed was one of the greatest postseason runs in NFL history, one that culminated with an upset of the Patriots in an exhilarating Super Bowl XLII. Along the way, the Giants set an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from their home stadium.

The Giants, seeded fifth in the conference, opened postseason play with a 24-14 Wild Card victory at Tampa Bay. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants. The following week, the Giants avenged two regular season defeats with a 21-17 triumph over the Cowboys in Dallas in a divisional playoff. Amani Toomer caught two touchdown passes, Jacobs scored on a short run and the defense limited the high-scoring Cowboys to three second-half points.

The Giants captured the conference title with a thrilling 23-20 overtime triumph over the Green Bay Packers in frigid Lambeau Field. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with a wind-chill factor of minus-23, making it the coldest game in Giants history. Lawrence Tynes – who missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final p lay of regulation – kicked a 47-yard field goal 2:35 into overtime for the victory. The field goal was set up by Corey Webster's interception of the last pass of Brett Favre's career. Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw scored touchdowns for the Giants and Tynes added field goals of 29 and 37 yards.

Super Bowl XLII was played in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants were heavy underdogs to a New England team that was 18-0 and was bidding to conclude the second perfect season in NFL history. But it was the Giants who enjoyed a perfect finish. Trailing, 7-3, entering the fourth quarter, they took their first lead of the game on Manning's five-yard touchdown pass to David Tyree. The score was set up by a 45-yard catch-and-run by rookie tight end Kevin Boss. New England took a 14-10 lead on a six-yard touchdown pass from Tom Brady to Randy Moss with just 2:42 remaining.

The Giants took possession at their own 17 with 2:39 left in the game and Manning proceeded to lead them on one of the great drives in NFL postseason history. The highlight of the 12-play, 83-yard march occurred on third-and-five form the Giants' 44. Manning somehow eluded the grasp of the rushing Patriots line and threw downfield for Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet for a miracle 32-yard gain. Steve Smith picked up a critical first down before Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining. The Giants stopped a last desperate New England possession won win their third Super Bowl in one of the biggest upsets in the game's history.

1925
Tim Mara purchased a National Football League franchise for New York for $500. Bob Folwell was named head coach and all-time great Jim Thorpe was signed. Thorpe was later released by the team after the third game of the season. The Giants played their first game at the Polo Grounds, losing to the Frankford Yellow Jackets, 14-0. Later that season, more than 70,000 jammed the Polo Grounds to see the Giants play Red Grange and the Chicago Bears. The Giants went 8-4 in their first season.

1926
Bob Folwell left and was replaced by Dr. Joseph Alexander as head coach. Despite an 8-4-1 record in 1926, Tim Mara lost $40,000. After the season concluded, the seventh place Giants faced the American Football League champion Philadelphia Quakers. The Giants won convincingly, 31-0.

1927
Earl Potteiger replaced Dr. Joseph Alexander in 1927 and the Giants won their first title with an 11-1-1 record. (Note: until the NFL's playoff system was established in 1933, the team with the league's best record was awarded the championship title.) In the 13-game season the Giants defense posted ten shutouts and allowed only 20 points all year.

1928
After a dismal 4-7-2 season in 1928, Tim Mara decided it was best to clean house. Head coach Earl Potteiger and eighteen players were not asked to return for the following season. Tackle Steve Owen would be the only returning starter from that season. It still ranks as one of the most massive turnovers in football history.

1929
Before the season began, Tim Mara purchased a struggling Detroit Wolverines franchise in order to obtain the rights to quarterback Benny Friedman and the best of the Detroit players for the Giants. LeRoy Andrews became the new head coach. The 13-1-1 Giants averaged 25,000 fans, turned a small profit and narrowly lost the NFL title to the Green Bay Packers, who finished 12-0-1.

1930
For the second consecutive season the Green Bay Packers edged out the Giants for the title. Ownership of the club was turned over to Jack and Wellington Mara, the two sons of the founder. On December 14, the Giants played a team of former Notre Dame All-Stars coached by the legendary Knute Rockne. Fifty-five thousand fans turned out at the Polo Grounds to see the Giants win the contest, 22-0. The proceeds of $115,153 went to the New York Unemployment Fund to help those suffering due to the Great Depression.

1931
After an All-American season at Washington State, center Mel Hein wrote to three NFL teams offering his service. The Giants bid the most at $150 per game and Hein was signed to a contract. Former tackle Steve Owen was named head coach. The Giants finished in 5th place with a 7-6-1 record.

1932
Considered a rebuilding year, the Giants finished the season with a 4-6-2 record. On November 20, the Giants faced the defending champion Green Bay Packers. Expected to be an easy win for the undefeated Packers, 8-0-1 at the time, the Giants displayed promise for the future with a hard- fought, 6-0, victory. End Ray Flaherty became the NFL's first official pass-reception champion with 21 catches.

1933
The Giants won the Eastern Division of the newly-divided NFL with an impressive 11-3 record. 1933 was also the year the NFL established a new playoff system and in the league's first championship game, the Giants lost to the Western Division champion Chicago Bears, 23-21, at Wrigley Field in Chicago.

THE "SNEAKERS GAME"

1934
In what is now known as the "Sneakers Game," the Giants defeated the Chicago Bears 30-13 for the NFL title. Trailing 13-3 in the third quarter, some of the Giants players changed into basketball shoes to increase traction on the icy Polo Grounds turf. The Giants responded with a 27-point fourth quarter to capture the championship.

1935
After beginning the season with a 4-3 record, the Giants rolled off five consecutive victories, shutting out their opponents four times, and finished with a 9-3 record and first place in the Eastern Division. The Giants advanced to their third straight NFL championship game, but lost to the Detroit Lions, 26-7, at Detroit

1936
The initial NFL draft was held in 1936, and the Giants first pick was Art Lewis, a tackle from Ohio University. The Giants finished with a 5-6-1 record, marking only the third time in the team's twelve-year history that it did not have a winning record.

1937
Seventeen rookies helped make up the 25-man roster in 1937, a season that also marked the debut of the now-familiar blue jerseys. The Giants lost to the Washington Redskins on the last day of the season and finished as a runner-up in the Eastern Division with a 6-3-2 record.

1938
A 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers produced the Giants third NFL title. A crowd of 48,120 fans attended the title game at the Polo Grounds in New York, a playoff record at the time. With the victory, the Giants earned the distinction of being the first NFL team to win two championship games.

1939
On January 15, the Giants defeated the Pro All-Stars, 13-10, in the first Pro Bowl held at Wrigley Field, Chicago. During the 1939 season, in front of 32,279 fans at Milwaukee State Fair Park, the Green Bay Packers avenged the 1938 loss with a 27-0 drubbing of the Giants in the NFL title game.

1940
The Giants finished third in the East with a 6-4-1 record. Midway through the season, leading rusher Tuffy Leemans was lost for the year with a back injury. Center Mel Hein was the only Giant to win All-Pro honors, accomplishing the feat for the 10th year in a row.

1941
With just 50 seconds to go in the 1941 Eastern Division championship game, the Washington Redskins held a 13-10 lead, but the Giants scored a field goal and a touchdown to win, 20-13, and advance to the NFL title game. In the wake of Pearl Harbor, only 13,341 spectators turned out to see Chicago top the Giants in the title game, 37-9.

1942
After losing many players to the service, the Giants finished with a 5-5-1 record and in third place in the Eastern Division. The Giants recorded a memorable victory in the season opener, defeating the Washington Redskins, 14-7, although they didn't have a first down, gained only one yard rushing and completed just one pass. That pass happened to go for a touchdown. The Giants also scored on an intercepted return and handed the Redskins their only defeat in their championship season.

1943
With the league down to just nine teams due to World War II, the Giants overcame a 2-2-1 start to finish with a 6-3-1 record. The Giants advanced to the Eastern Division championship game where they dropped a 28-0 decision to the Washington Redskins.

1944
Luring quarterback Arnie Herber and back Ken Strong out of retirement, the Giants scored five shutouts en route to the Eastern Division title, but lost the NFL championship game at the Polo Grounds in New York to the Green Bay Packers, 14-7.

1945
The War ended in 1945, but the Giants finished with their worst record to date. The Giants started the year off with a 34-6 win at Pittsburgh, but everything seemed to collapse after the opener. The Giants 3-6-1 record was only one game better than the last place Pittsburgh Steelers.

1946
Quarterback Frankie Filchock, an understudy to Sammy Baugh at Washington, signed with the Giants for a reported $35,000. Filchock and teammate, back Merle Hapes, were questioned about an attempt by a New York man to fix the championship game with the Chicago Bears. Hapes was suspended indefinitely for the alleged gambling involvement, but Filchock was allowed to continue playing. The Giants went on to lose the title game to Chicago, 24-14.

1947
The Giants went from the title game in 1946 to the cellar, finishing with a 2-8-2 record, including a seven-game losing streak. Halfback Frank Reagan tied for the league lead with ten interceptions for 203 yards. Reagan also tied for the league's punting championship with 61 kicks for a 42.8 average.

1948
The Giants renovation was accelerated in 1948 when they acquired quarterback Charlie Conerly from the Washington Redskins. The franchise reached another milestone in its illustrious existence, but it had nothing to do with their 4-8 record. That season, the Giants signed their first black player, defensive back Emlen Tunnell.

1949
Giants head coach Steve Owen switched from the "A" formation to the "T," which helped the Giants improve to a 6-6 record. Allie Sherman was hired to work with quarterback Charlie Conerly. The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with another NFL team, the New York Bulldogs.

1950
The Giants and New York Bulldogs divided the players of the former All-American Football Conference Yankees. The Giants received a young defensive back from Texas, Tom Landry, and a defensive tackle from Washington, Arnie Weinmeister. The Giants finished with a surprising 10-2 record and tied for first place with the Cleveland Browns, their first season above .500 since the Eastern Division championship season of 1946. The Browns defeated the Giants, 8-3, in the American Conference playoff game.

1951
End Kyle Rote of Southern Methodist was the Giants bonus pick in the draft, but he was injured in the preseason and saw little action. The Giants finished in second place with a 9-2-1 record, behind the only team they would lose to all season, the Cleveland Browns. Fullback Eddie Price led the NFL in rushing with 971 yards.

1952
Tailback Frank Gifford of USC was drafted number one. Playing in his fifth year, Emlen Tunnell gained more yardage on kick returns and interceptions (924) than the league's leading rusher, Dan Towler (894), of the Los Angeles Rams.

1953
Tackle Roosevelt "Rosie" Brown Jr. of Morgan State, a future Hall of Famer, was the Giants 27th pick in the 1953 NFL draft. Steve Owen retired at the end of the season after 23 years as the Giants head coach. Owen was asked to keep his affiliation with the Giants as a scout in the personnel department, a position he held for one year.

1954
Former Giants end Jim Lee Howell was promoted from end coach to head coach. The Canadian Football League began a series of raids on NFL teams, signing Giants three-time Pro-Bowl defensive tackle Arnie Weinmeister, among others. In an effort to save the Giants and the NFL, Wellington Mara went out and signed the best player in the CFL, Montreal Alouettes halfback Alex Webster.

1955
On August 28, the sudden-death rule was used for the first time in a preseason game between the Giants and the Los Angeles Rams in Portland, Oregon. The Rams won, 23-17, three minutes into overtime. After opening with three straight losses, the Giants got their act together and finished with a 6-5-1 record.

1956
Defensive end Andy Robustelli was obtained from the Los Angeles Rams. The Giants switched their home games from the Polo Grounds to Yankee Stadium. A 47-7 rout of the Chicago Bears produced New York's first NFL championship since 1938. Linebacker Sam Huff, who was originally drafted as an offensive lineman but was switched to MLB when Ray Beck went down with an injury, was voted Rookie of the Year. Frank Gifford was named NFL Player of the Year and tackle Rosie Brown was named the NFL's Lineman of the Year.

1957
The Giants were still in the running for the title in 1957 until they dropped their final three games. For the second straight season Frank Gifford finished in the top ten in both receiving (fourth) and rushing (tenth), with 588 yards receiving and 528 yards rushing. Gifford also completed four of six passes for 143 yards and two touchdowns.

1958
After completing the season at 9-3, the Giants faced a Cleveland Browns team led by running back Jim Brown in the Eastern Conference playoff game. Brown, who had gained an NFL-record 1,527 yards rushing, was held to just eight yards by the stingy New York defense as the Giants prevailed, 10-0. Advancing to the title game, the Giants lost to the Baltimore Colts, 23-17, in the first sudden death overtime in an NFL championship game. That game has been referred to as, "The Greatest Game Ever Played."

1959

On February 4, assistant offensive coach Vince Lombardi left to join the Green Bay Packers as their new head coach. On February 17, Giants co-founder Tim Mara died. The Baltimore Colts exploded for 24 points in the fourth quarter to defeat New York in the NFL title game for the second straight year.

1960

Y.A. TITTLE

1961

The NY logo was added to the helmets for the 1961 season. Allie Sherman replaced the retired Jim Lee Howell as head coach. The Giants obtained quarterback Y.A. Tittle (San Francisco) and end Del Shofner (Los Angeles) in trades. Back Alex Webster gained 928 yards to help the Giants reach the NFL title game. With the league championship on the line, the Giants were no match for the Green Bay Packers, losing 37-0.

1962

Back Frank Gifford, who returned to the team from retirement, quarterback Y.A. Tittle, end Del Shofner and back Alex Webster led the Giants into the NFL title game against the Green Bay Packers. Held in Yankee Stadium, 64,892 fans watched as Green Bay prevailed, 16-7. Defensive end Andy Robustelli was named the NFL's top player.

1963

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle threw 36 touchdown passes and kicker Don Chandler led the league with 106 points (52-pat, 18-fg) in scoring as the Giants romped to their third straight conference title. Halfback Dick Lynch tied for the league lead with nine interceptions for 251 return yards and a record-setting three touchdowns. With Tittle injured in the second quarter, New York lost yet another bid for the league championship, dropping a 14-10 decision to the Chicago Bears.

1964

Defensive end Andy Robustelli ended his long playing career with the Giants and became a full-time defensive coach. For the first time in 17 years, the Giants finished in last place in their conference with a 2-10-2 record. Backs Alex Webster and Frank Gifford announced their retirement at the end of the season.

1965

Quarterback Y.A. Tittle announced his retirement on January 22 at Mamma Leone's restaurant in New York City. Offensive lineman Jack Stroud also retired. On June 15, Jack Mara died after serving as team president for thirty-one years. The Giants rebounded with a 7-7 record, good enough for second place in the Eastern Conference.

1966

Before the season began, tackle Rosie Brown retired after 13 years of service to the team. The Giants had their worst season to date, finishing with a 1-12-1 record. They allowed a then NFL-record 501 points. Kicker Pete Gogolak became the first American Football League player to cross to the NFL.

1967

On March 7, the Giants announced the acquisition of quarterback Fran Tarkenton from the Minnesota Vikings. To get Tarkenton, the Giants gave up their first and second-round picks in 1967, number one pick in 1968, and second-round pick in 1969. Tarkenton's 29 touchdown passes led the Giants to a 7-7 record and a second place finish in the newly named Century Division of the Eastern Conference.

1968

Opening the season with four straight wins and concluding it with four consecutive losses, the Giants finished with a 7-7 record in Allie Sherman's last season as head coach. End Homer Jones became only the second Giant, behind end Del Shofner, to record 1,000 receiving yards or more in three successive seasons.

1969

The Giants lost, 37-14, to the New York Jets in the first of the annual preseason meetings. Former back Alex Webster replaced Allie Sherman as head coach. After losing seven games in a row, the Giants finished with three straight victories to capture second place in the Century Division with a 6-8 record.

1970

After losing their first three games, the Giants won six in a row, including an upset win over the first place Dallas Cowboys, 23-20. Heading into the final game of the season, the Giants were still in a position to make the playoffs, but they lost a home game against the Los Angeles Rams, 31-3, and were left out of the postseason with a 9-5 record. Running back Ron Johnson became the Giants first 1,000-yard rusher, totaling 1,027 yards.

After a disappointing 4-10 finish in 1971, quarterback Fran Tarkenton asked for a trade. The Giants obliged and traded him back to the Minnesota Vikings for quarterback Norm Snead, two additional players and draft choices. Bob Tucker became the first tight end in Giants history to lead the league in receptions with 59 catches.

1972

Quarterback Norm Snead, obtained in the Fran Tarkenton trade, led the league in passing and the Giants finished above .500 for only the second time in nine years with an 8-6 record. On November 26, the Giants offense scored eight touchdowns against the Philadelphia Eagles, setting a Giants all time one-game scoring record. Kicker Pete Gogolak added a pair of field goals to bring the final score to 62-10.

1973

Prior to the final game of the season, head coach Alex Webster announced his retirement. New York lost the game 31-7 to the Minnesota Vikings to close out the year at 2-11-1. After two games at Yankee Stadium, the Giants played the rest of their home games at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

1974

Bill Arnsparger was named the Giants ninth head coach. Quarterback Norm Snead was traded to the San Francisco 49ers. In addition, quarterback Craig Morton was obtained from the Dallas Cowboys. For the second straight season, the Giants won only two games and finished in fifth place in the NFC East with a 2-12 record.

1975

The Giants finished in fourth place in the NFC East with a 5-9 record. The team played all of its home games at Shea Stadium while they waited for Giants Stadium to open. DE George Martin made the team as an 11th round draft choice out of Oregon.

1976

Larry Csonka, the former Miami running back who had played in the World Football League, signed as a free agent. Snead was reacquired from San Francisco. The Giants moved to Giants Stadium in East Rutherford, New Jersey. Arnsparger was fired in midseason and replaced by assistant coach John McVay, who signed a long-term contract following the 3-11 season.

1977

Morton was traded to Denver. The Giants improved to a 5-9 record. McVay went with Joe Pisarcik and Jerry Golsteyn at quarterback. Csonka rushed for 100 yards on the last day of the season and finished the year with 464 yards.

1978

The Giants had a 5-3 record at the halfway point of the season but lost seven of its final eight games and finished 6-10. Punter Dave Jennings and linebackers Harry Carson and Brad Van Pelt were named to the NFC Pro Bowl team. McVay was fired in late December. Robustelli, who had been the Giants' director of operations since 1974, resigned. George Young was named general manager in January, 1979. He announced the appointment of San Diego Chargers assistant Ray Perkins as head coach.

1979

Before the season began, tragedy struck as defensive tackle Troy Archer was killed in a traffic accident on June 22. Rookie Phil Simms, a first round choice, took over at quarterback. But the Giants had another 6-10 record. Dave Jennings led the NFC with a 42.7-yard punting average.

1980

A porous defense allowed opponents to score 425 points, the second-highest total in the NFL. The Giants fell to 4-12. A highlight was a 38-35 defeat of Dallas that ended an eight-game losing streak. Dave Jennings led NFL punters with a 44.8-yard average.

1981

With the second selection in the draft. New York chose Lawrence Taylor, a linebacker from North Carolina. The Giants started slowly, going 2-3, before obtaining running back Rob Carpenter from Houston. Carpenter sparked a three-game winning streak. The Giants lost three straight to drop to 5-6. Second-year quarterback Scott Brunner replaced an injured Phil Simms and the team responded with four victories in the final five weeks, including a 13-10 overtime defeat of Dallas in the season finale that sent them into the playoffs. On December 27, the Giants defeated the Eagles 27-21 in the NFC wild card game. The season ended for New York on January 3 when it was defeated by the 49ers 38-24 in a divisional playoff game.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR

A wild and turbulent year in which the NFL players' strike shortened the season to just nine games. The final game played before the strike pitted the Giants and Packers on a Monday night from Giants Stadium in which a power failure caused a blackout during the game. Rob Carpenter was a holdout until late November, returning to play in just the final five games. On December 15, head coach Ray Perkins resigned to accept the head coaching job at Alabama, with defensive coordinator Bill Parcells being named to replace him in 1983. The Giants then lost two straight after the Perkins' announcement, and missed the playoffs on the final day of the season with a 4-5 record. Despite the adversity, four Giants – Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and Dave Jennings – were named to the Pro Bowl.

1983

After breaking even in their first four games for a 2-2 record, the Giants were decimated by injuries during the rest of the year, with a total of 25 players appearing on the injured reserve list at one time or another. With players such as Harry Carson, Phil Simms and Rob Carpenter missing most of the season, and with the club leading the entire NFL in turnovers with 58 on 31 interceptions and 27 lost fumbles, the record tumbled to 3-12-1. The year was also marred by the tragic deaths of assistant coach Bob Ledbetter and former star running back Doug Kotar. Four players were nonetheless named to the Pro Bowl again—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Mark Haynes and rookie placekicker Ali Haji-Sheikh who set an NFL record with 35 field goals.

1984

With Phil Simms enjoying his first full season at quarterback, the Giants earned the NFC wild card playoff berth, finishing with a 9-7 mark and second place in the NFC East. Simms set three single-season club records with 286 completions in 533 attempts for 4,044 yards. The Giants knocked off the Los Angeles Rams 16-13 in that wild card game, then bowed to the eventual Super Bowl champion San Francisco 49ers 21-10 in the divisional playoff. Taylor, Carson and Haynes were again named to the Pro Bowl, while head coach Bill Parcells was named NFC East Coach of the Year and five rookies—Karl Nelson, Gary Reasons, Carl Banks, Perry Williams and Bobby Johnson–were named to the All-NFL Rookie team.

1985

With a final 10-6 mark, the Giants put back-to-back winning seasons on the board for the first time in 22 years, won another trip to the playoffs and had their first home playoff game since 1962, winning 17-3 over the defending Super Bowl champion 49ers. Again, the club lost in the divisional playoffs to the eventual Super Bowl champion team, the Chicago Bears, 21-0. Five players—Lawrence Taylor, Harry Carson, Phil Simms, Joe Morris and Leonard Marshall-were named to the Pro Bowl. There were 12 team records set by this club, and 16 individual club records. Morris set a team records with 1,336 rushing yards and 21 touchdowns. Simms set club marks with 40 completions and 513 passing yards in a game. Marshall added another club mark with 15 1/2 QB sacks in a season, while rookie TE Mark Bavaro, an All-NFL Rookie team choice set a club mark with 12 receptions in one game.

The club's first Super Bowl championship, an all-time final record of 17-2, as well as a club record 12 straight victories, made this year the greatest in team history. The Giants also set a record for all-time composite margin of victory in the playoffs, outscoring three opponents 105-23, for an 82-point domination, the most ever in NFL playoff history. Phil Simms was the MVP of the 39-20 Super Bowl victory over Denver after completing a playoff record 88% of his passes (22-25). Lawrence Taylor was named the league's MVP, Joe Morris broke his own club rushing record with 1,516 yards, and eight players—Taylor, Morris, Harry Carson, Leonard Marshall, Jim Burt, Brad Benson, Mark Bavaro and Sean Landeta, were named to the Pro Bowl. Coach Bill Parcells was a unanimous NFL Coach of the Year in all the national polls, the Giants were 10-0 at home, including regular season and the two playoff games, and the team set attendance records at home and on the road.

After winning the Super Bowl, the Giants dropped to a 6-9 record, thanks to an 0-5 start in a season that included a players strike and three games with replacement players. In addition, injuries sidelined 11 starters. While the Giants finished with six wins in its final ten games, it was a case of too little, too late. Despite the final record, four players—Lawrence Taylor, Carl Banks, Harry Carson and Mark Bavaro—were selected to the Pro Bowl and all four also were named to various All-NFL teams.

OTTIS ANDERSON IN SUPER BOWL XXV

The Giants bounced back and after splitting the first six games, engineered a 7-2 run which had them all alone in first-place in the NFC East with a 10-5 record heading into the final weekend of the season. But an upset loss to the Jets not only knocked the Giants out of first-place, but also cost them a playoff berth. The Giants 10-6 record gave them a five-year mark of 54-32 (.628), including postseason play. Those 54 victories were the most in club history for any five-year span. Joe Morris set a club record with his third 1,000-plus rushing season and Lionel Manuel had his first 1,000-yard receiving year. Morris also surpassed Alex Webster as the Giants' career rushing leader, moving past the 5,000-yard plateau. Lawrence Taylor was named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl and All-NFL designation and safety Terry Kinard was selected for his first Pro Bowl appearance.

1989

Despite the loss of several starters due to injuries, the Giants won their second NFC East championship in four years with a 12-4 record. Ottis Anderson rushed for 1,023 yards at the age of 32 as the replacement for the injured Joe Morris and rookie David Meggett set club marks with 582 punt return yards and a 12.7 average, while also accounting for 1,807 all-purpose yards. Linebacker Lawrence Taylor equaled an NFL record by being named to his ninth consecutive Pro Bowl, and also ran his league record sack total to 104. Meggett also went to the Pro Bowl and scored a TD.

1990

The Giants started the season by winning its first ten games, and eventually won the division with a 13-3 record despite losing Phil Simms late in the year. With Jeff Hostetler at the helm, the club surged through the playoffs to win their second Super Bowl title with a stirring 20-19 win over the Buffalo Bills. Seven Giant players were named to the Pro Bowl, including Lawrence Taylor for a record-setting 10th straight year. Veteran running back Ottis Anderson won Super Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 102 yards. At season's end, the Mara family's sole ownership ended when Tim Mara sold his 50% share of the club to Preston Robert Tisch, who became Chairman and Co-Chief Executive Officer. In May, 1991, head coach Bill Parcells resigned after a career mark of 85-52-1 and was succeeded by offensive coordinator Ray Handley.

1991

In Ray Handley's first year as head coach, the Giants were in contention for another playoff spot late in the year with a 7-5 record, then dropped three straight to finish at 8-8 and out of the playoffs. Jeff Hostetler became the starting quarterback, but was injured late in the season and Phil Simms finished the campaign. Simms added his 15th club record when he passed Charlie Conerly for career TD passes with 179. Rodney Hampton became the fourth back in club history to rush for 1,000 yards when he finished the year with 1,059. Center Bart Oates was named to his second consecutive Pro Bowl.

1992

Ray Handley's team struggled through a 6–10 season as injuries to key players hurt the team. Phil Simms regained his starting quarterback spot, but was limited to starting the first four games before an elbow injury forced him to miss the rest of the season. Before his injury, Simms became just the 14th player in NFL history to surpass 30,000 passing yards. Jeff Hostetler started the next nine games before being forced to the sidelines with a concussion. In the ninth game of the season against Green Bay, Lawrence Taylor injured his Achilles tendon that placed his career in jeopardy. After announcing plans to retire following the season, Taylor re-considered and decided to re-join the Giants.

PHIL SIMMS IN SUPER BOWL XXI

RB Rodney Hampton turned in another outstanding season, rushing for 1,141 yards and earning his first trip to the Pro Bowl. After dismissing Handley, George Young hired former Denver Broncos head coach Dan Reeves to lead the team in 1993.

1993

Dan Reeves and a rejuvenated Phil Simms led the Giants to an 11-5 regular season record. The Giants finished second to Dallas in the NFC East race, a race that was decided on the final Sunday of the regular season when Dallas defeated the Giants, 16-13, in overtime at Giants Stadium. Reeves became the first Giants head coach to lead his team to the playoffs in his initial campaign since Allie Sherman in 1963. Reeves was selected as NFL Coach of the Year by several organizations, including the Associated Press, which bases its honor on voting by coaches around the league. The Giants earned a wild card berth in the playoffs and defeated the Minnesota Vikings at Giants Stadium, 17-10, in the Wild Card game. San Francisco defeated the Giants, 44-3, at Candlestick Park in an NFC divisional playoff game. Following the San Francisco game, LB Lawrence Taylor announced his retirement, capping a 13-year career that altered the nature of the game. Taylor was elected into the Pro Football Hall of Fame at the conclusion of the 1998 season.

After a 3-7 start, the Giants climbed back into playoff contention with a six-game winning streak that resulted in a 9-7 record. The Giants came into Week 16 needing a victory over the World Champion Dallas Cowboys, combined with a Tampa Bay Buccaneers victory over the Green Bay Packers, to win a wild card berth. The Giants defeated Dallas, 15-10, but the season ended when the Bucs lost to the Packers, 34-19. Dave Brown won the starting quarterback job in training camp and responded by leading the team to a 9-6 record in games that he started. Rodney Hampton finished the season with 1,075 yards to become the first Giant in history to record four career 1,000-yard seasons. The 1994 season was the first in many years that the Giants roster did not include Lawrence Taylor or Phil Simms. Taylor's jersey number 56 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Minnesota Monday Night game on Oct. 10. Simms was released on June 15, prior to the start of training camp.

The Giants concluded the 1995 season with a 5-11 record, their worst mark since 1983 when they were 3-12-1. The Giants lost seven games that were decided on the final drive of the game. In six of those games, the Giants were either tied or leading at some point in the fourth quarter. A highlight of the 1995 season was the play of Rodney Hampton, who turned in the best season of his six-year career with 1,182 yards rushing on 306 carries. Hampton became the Giants all-time leading rusher (5,989) on 10-29 at Washington on his third carry of the game, a workmanlike two-yard run for a first down. Phil Simms jersey number 11 was officially retired at halftime of the Giants-Dallas Monday Night game on Sept. 4, 1995.

1996

For the first time since 1982-83, the Giants finished with a losing record in consecutive seasons as they closed out the 1996 campaign with a 6-10 record. Following the 23-22 defeat to New England in the season finale, the Giants dismissed head coach Dan Reeves. On January 15, the Giants hired Jim Fassel as the 15th head coach in the team's history. The Giants stood at 5-7 on December 1 after a 20-6 upset of the defending world champion Dallas Cowboys and headed into a game against the Philadelphia Eagles with a chance at the NFC playoff field. In one of the lowest moments of the year, the Giants were officially eliminated from playoff contention with a 24-0 loss to the Eagles. The Giants improved to 6-8 but dropped two consecutive home contests and secured a last place finish in the NFC East for the first time in a non-strike season since 1983. The Giants defense played solid all season, but the offense struggled, finishing last in the National Football League. The Giants ground game failed to generate a 100-yard rushing performer and averaged just 100.3 yards per game, the lowest non-strike total since the Giants had 100.3 in 1964. The Giants defense held the opposition to 10 points or less in six games and had a streak of 7.5 straight games (30 quarters) without allowing the opponent's offense a touchdown pass.

In his first season as head coach of the Giants, Jim Fassel led his team to a 10-5-1 record and the team's first NFC East Championship since the 1990 Super Bowl season. The Giants started the year with a 1-3 record before rebounding to become the 15th team in NFL history to finish in first place in their division the season after finishing in last place. The Giants finished the 1997 season with a 7-0-1 Division record to become the first team ever to go undefeated in NFC East Division play. Second-year QB Danny Kanell filled in for an injured Dave Brown and led the Giants to a victory over the Dallas Cowboys in Week Six. Kanell was eventually named the new starting quarterback and finished with a 7-2-1 record. His season was highlighted by a three-touchdown performance at Philadelphia in a key NFC East victory on December 7. The Giants defense blossomed into one of the NFL's strongest, finishing first in the league with a franchise-record 44 takeaways. The Giants defense led the league in interceptions with 27 and finished third in the NFL with 54 sacks. The season ended when the Minnesota Vikings overcame a 19-3 second half deficit to pull out a 23-22 victory at Giants Stadium in a Wild Card game. Fassel was named NFL Coach of the Year by numerous publications, including The Sporting News, which is determined by a vote of NFL coaches. Jessie Armstead set a team-record with 134 total tackles and was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl squad. DE Michael Strahan set a career-mark in sacks, finishing tied for third in the NFL with 14. Strahan was also named a starter for the NFC Pro Bowl squad. At the end of the season, George Young announced that he was leaving the Giants to become Vice President of Football Operations in the National Football League office. Ernie Accorsi was named the team's new General Manager.

After overcoming a 3-7 start, the Giants remained in the hunt for a playoff berth until the final week and finished with an 8-8 record. The Giants won five out of their last six games, including a 20-16 victory over the previously undefeated (13-0) and eventual Super Bowl Champion Denver Broncos. Entering the final game, the Giants needed a victory over Philadelphia, combined with a Tampa Bay loss and an Arizona loss, to qualify as the third wild card participant in the NFC playoff field. The Giants beat the Eagles at Veterans Stadium, but the Buccaneers and Cardinals were victorious to spoil the Giants playoff hopes. Kent Graham replaced Danny Kanell at quarterback after the team fell to 3-7 and finished with a 5-1 record in the starting role. Gary Brown emerged as the Giants top running back, reaching the 1,000-yard mark with a career-best 1,063 yards that included six 100-yard games. Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season. Armstead eclipsed the 100-tackle mark for the third straight year with 101 tackles (75 solos). Strahan set a career-high with 15 sacks as he triggered a Giants defense that led the league with 54 sacks.

1999

For the second straight year, the Giants entered the final week of the regular season with a chance to make the NFL's postseason field. The difference between the two seasons is that in 1998 the Giants won five of their last six games. In 1999, victories over the Jets and at Buffalo raised the Giants' record to 7-6; however, the Giants dropped their last three games to finish 7-9. It was the team's first losing season in three years under head coach Jim Fassel. The final blow was a 26-18 loss at Dallas, a game that followed the Giants' elimination from the playoff race with Green Bay's victory over Arizona earlier in the day. In spite of the obvious disappointment, a few bright spots emerged for the Giants in 1999. The Giants set records on offense, led by Amani Toomer, who established a team single-season record with 79 receptions (breaking Earnest Gray's record of 78 receptions set in 1983). Toomer fell 26 yards shy of the team record of 1,209 receiving yards, set by Homer Jones in 1967. Also, for the first time in the 75-year history of the team, the Giants had four receivers record over 50 receptions in a season: Toomer (79), Ike Hilliard (72), Tiki Barber (66), and Pete Mitchell (58). Jessie Armstead and Michael Strahan were selected to represent the NFC in the Pro Bowl for the third consecutive season. Armstead surpassed the 100-tackle mark for the fourth straight year with 124 tackles (97 solos) and recorded a career-high 9.0 sacks. Strahan recorded 56 tackles (41 solos) and posted 5.5 sacks. QB Kerry Collins started the final six games of the season after replacing Kent Graham in the lineup following the 10th game.

2000

The Giants enjoyed their finest season in a decade, winning the NFC East and home-field advantage in the playoffs with a 12-4 record before defeating Philadelphia and Minnesota to advance to Super Bowl XXXV. The highlight of the season was a 41-0 victory over Minnesota in the NFC Championship game at Giants Stadium. In their first Super Bowl appearance in 10 years, the Giants lost to Baltimore, 34-7. The Giants took a seven-game winning streak into the Super Bowl, a surge that began after Jim Fassel issued his now-famous playoff guarantee on November 22. The Giants finished 7-1 in the division and 7-1 away from Giants Stadium. The seven road victories tied a franchise record set in 1930 (when three of the road games were in Newark, Staten Island and Brooklyn) and marked the first time since 1963 that the Giants lost just one game as visitors. The Giants averaged 125.6 rushing yards a game, a robust 37.5-yard gain over the 1999 average. Quarterback Kerry Collins was sacked 28 times; in 1999 Giants quarterbacks were sacked 42 times. Collins had the best season of his career, setting career highs in passes (529), completions (311), completion percentage (58.8) and touchdown passes (22). Halfback Tiki Barber set a Giants record of 2,085 all-purpose yards (1,006 rushing, 719 receiving, 332 punt returns and 28 on kickoff returns). Amani Toomer caught 78 passes (one less than the franchise record he set in 1999. Ike Hilliard led the team with a 14.3-yard average and eight touchdown catches. The defense was second in the NFL against the run (72.3 yards a game) and fifth in points allowed (15.4 per game). In 359 rushing attempts, opponents had an NFL-best two runs of longer than 20 yards. Jessie Armstead led the team with 102 tackles – his fifth consecutive season with more than a hundred tackles – and was selected to his fourth straight Pro Bowl. Defensive tackle Keith Hamilton had the best season of his nine-year career. He was a dominating run-stopper and he led the Giants with 10 sacks, an impressive feat for a tackle. Defensive end Michael Strahan had perhaps his finest all-around season and raised his sack total from 5.5 in 1999 to 9.5.

After a strong 3-1 start, the Giants lost eight of their last 12 games and finished 7-9 and in third place in the NFC East, the third time in as many tries they failed to make the playoffs a season after reaching the Super Bowl. The terrorist attacks in New York and Washington on Sept. 11 – the day after the Giants lost their Monday night opener in Denver – made the rest of season a minor footnote by comparison. After the attacks, many players reached out to victims' families, firefighters, police officers and other rescue workers and their children. Despite the disappointing record, the season included many highlights, notably Michael Strahan setting a new NFL single-season record with 22.5 sacks. Kerry Collins became the first quarterback in league history to throw every one of his team's passes in two consecutive seasons. Collins set team marks for passes (568) and completions (327). Tiki Barber accounted for 1,782 total yards, Mike Barrow set a team record with 135 tackles, Morten Andersen became the second-leading scorer in NFL history, Howard Cross set a new franchise record for games played (207), Amani in team history. Tiki Barber was 4th in the NFL and 1st in the NFC with 1,984 yards from scrimmage (1,387 rushing and 597 receiving). He rushed for 1,387 rushing yards, the second-highest total in team history after Joe Morris' 1,516 yards in 1986. Amani Toomer set team records with 82 receptions for 1,343 yards and established a career-high with eight touchdown catches. Pro Bowler Jeremy Shockey caught 74 passes, the fifth-highest total in Giants history, and a team record for both rookies (shattering the mark of 48 set by Bobby Johnson in 1984) and tight ends (eclipsing the 66 passes Mark Bavaro caught in 1986). Michael Strahan was selected to his 4th Pro Bowl in 5 years and from Sept. 22 through Dec. 1, he had at least a half-sack in 10 consecutive games, tying the NFL record set by Denver's Simon Fletcher in 1991 and tied by Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999.

Toomer caught more than 70 passes for the third season in a row, rookie Rodney Williams established a team record with a 90-yard punt against the Broncos and Jessie Armstead played in his fifth consecutive Pro Bowl (and was joined in Hawaii by Strahan and Ron Stone). Although they struggled with two three-game losing streaks, the Giants thrilled their fans with scintillating last-second victories over Dallas (in overtime), Arizona and Seattle. After the defeat in Denver – and a week off after the NFL's decision not to play the Sunday after the attacks – the Giants won three straight, against Kansas City, New Orleans and Washington. The winning streak was followed by consecutive heartbreaking 1-point losses to St. Louis and Philadelphia, and a defeat at Washington. The Giants then rebounded with victories over Dallas and Arizona before again dropping three straight, to Minnesota, Oakland and Dallas. They played their way back into playoff contention with dramatic triumphs over Arizona and Seattle, but closed the season with losses to Philadelphia and Green Bay.

An exciting and rewarding season concluded with the Giants winning their final four regular season games to finish 10-6 and in second place in the NFC East. More importantly, they earned a Wild Card berth in the NFC playoffs, where they lost a heartbreaking 39-38 game to the San Francisco 49ers. But the game did not diminish the season's many team and individual achievements. The Giants made their 26th appearance in the playoffs, tying them with the Dallas Cowboys for the most postseason appearances in NFL history. They finished the regular season ranked sixth in the NFL in total offense, with 364.1 yards a game. It was their highest ranking and most yards per game since the 1985 Giants finished fifth in total offense with 367.8 yards a game. The Giants improved to 19-5 in regular season December games under Jim Fassel. Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons. Kerry Collins completed 335 passes, a Giants record, and was 1st in the NFC and 4th in the NFL with 4,073 passing yards, breaking the previous team record of 4,044, set by Phil Simms in 1984. Collins completed 61.5 percent of his passes, a career-high and the third-best percentage

2003

The Giants endured one of their most unpleasant seasons in recent memory, losing their last eight games to finish 4-12. The Giants were 4-4 at midseason. In Game 9, they were tied at halftime with Atlanta, 7-7. But the Falcons scored 20 unanswered second-half points to send the Giants to a defeat from which they would never recover. The Giants finished the season 1-7 at home, the first time since 1983 they won a single home game. Despite their poor record, the Giants had several individual highlights. Michael Strahan led the NFL with 18.5 sacks, the second-highest total of his career, and became the first Giant to twice lead the league in sacks. For the second consecutive year, Strahan and tight end Jeremy Shockey were the only Giants selected to the Pro Bowl. Shockey became the first Giant to be selected to the Pro Bowl in each of his first two seasons since Taylor in 1981-82. Running back Tiki Barber had team-high totals of 1,216 rushing yards (the second-highest total of his career) and 69 receptions. He became the first Giant to lead the team in both rushing and receptions since Joe Dawkins in 1974. Barber finished the season as the franchise's all-time leader in total yards (10,746) and receptions (422) and is second in rushing (5,409 yards). Amani Toomer extended his own team record with his fifth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Quarterbacks Kerry Collins and Jesse Palmer combined to throw a franchise-record 616 passes in 2003. Right guard David Diehl became the first Giants rookie to start all 16 games since Mark Bavaro in 1985. He was one of 14 NFL rookies to start all 16 games in 2003. The team announced with two games remaining that Jim Fassel would not return as head coach. Fassel was replaced by Tom Coughlin on January 6, 2004.

A new era dawned in Giants Stadium in 2004 with the arrival of Tom Coughlin as the 16th head coach in franchise history. With Coughlin at the helm, the Giants revamped their roster and started the season 5-2. But the Giants couldn't sustain the momentum and lost eight consecutive games before winning the season finale against the Dallas Cowboys. The Giants finished in second place in the NFC East with a 6-10 record, a two-game improvement over their 2003 mark. Running back Tiki Barber set four significant team records and was selected to his first Pro Bowl. He finished first in the NFL with a Giants-record 2,096 yards from scrimmage. Barber was fifth in the league and second in the conference with a team-record 1,518 rushing yards, two more than Joe Morris' total in 1986. He set the record on a game-winning three-yard run with 11 seconds remaining in the finale against Dallas. Barber tied a career high by averaging 4.7 yards a carry. Barber rushed for at least 100 yards in nine games, breaking the team's previous single-season record of eight, set by Morris in 1986. Barber finished the season with 6,927 career rushing yards, eclipsing Hampton's former team record of 6,897. The Giants had other standout performers. Willie Ponder's averaged an NFL-best 26.9 yards on kickoff returns, the highest average by a Giant since Leon McQuay averaged 27.6 yards in 1974. The Giants finished first in the NFL with a 25.1-yard kickoff return average, the first time since 1953 they led the NFL in that statistical category. Ponder was the first Giant to lead the NFL in average kickoff return yardage since Clarence Childs in 1964. Jeremy Shockey led the Giants with 61 receptions to become the first tight end to top the team since Mark Bavaro had 55 catches in 1987. Bavaro had 55 catches that season. Shockey's team-leading six touchdown receptions were two more than he had in his first two seasons combined. Amani Toomer led the team's wide receivers with 51 catches for 747 yards. It was the sixth consecutive season Toomer had more than 50 receptions and 700 yards. Eli Manning, selected with the top pick in the 2004 draft and then acquired by the Giants in a trade, started the last seven games and finished the season with 95 completions in 197 attempts for 1,043 yards, six touchdowns and nine interceptions. Osi Umenyiora, a second-year defensive end, led the Giants with 7.0 sacks, six more than he had as a rookie. Linebacker Carlos Emmons led the team with 97 tackles (62 solo) and David Tyree had a team-high 23 special teams tackles.

The 2005 season was marked by soaring success and searing tragedy. The Giants finished 11-5 and earned their first playoff berth since 2002 and their first NFC East championship since 2000 before losing an NFC Wild Card Game to Carolina, 23-0. But the Giants' beloved owners, Wellington Mara and Bob Tisch, passed away within three weeks of each other, both from cancer. Mara, an NFL patriarch who was one of the most respected and influential figures in league history, and who had been with the Giants for their entire 81-year history, died on Oct. 25. Tisch, who purchased 50 percent of the franchise in 1991, was a business titan, renowned philanthropist and nonpareil New York City mover and shaker, died on Nov. 15. The Giants were only the fifth team in NFL history to have five different players score at least seven touchdowns. Tiki Barber scored 11, and Jeremy Shockey, Plaxico Burress, Amani Toomer and Brandon Jacobs scored seven apiece. The Giants had five players selected to the Pro Bowl, their largest contingent since the 1990 Super Bowl champions sent seven players to Hawaii. The Pro Bowlers were Barber, Shockey, Osi Umenyiora, Michael Strahan and David Tyree.

Barber had the greatest season by a running back in Giants history and was selected NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated and a first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was second in the NFL with a team-record 1,860 rushing yards, shattering the franchise mark of 1,518 he set in 2004. Barber also had 530 receiving yards to become the only player in NFL history with at least 1,800 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in the same season. His 2,390 total yards were second-most in NFL history. St. Louis' Marshall Faulk had 2,429 yards in 1999 (1,381 rushing, 1,048 receiving). Barber led the NFL in runs of 20 or more yards (16), 40 or more yards (seven) and 50 or more yards (five). His 263 scrimmage yards at Oakland, 220 rushing yards against Kansas City and 95-yard run against the Raiders were all NFL single-game highs in 2005. Barber's 95-yard run at Oakland was the longest in Giants history and broke a record that stood for 75 years – Hap Moran's 91-yard run vs. Green Bay on Nov. 23, 1930.

Eli Manning threw 557 passes this season, the second-highest total in team history. His 294 completions place him fourth on the Giants' career list and his 24 touchdown passes were the most by a Giant since Fran Tarkenton had 29 in 1967.

Jacobs was the first Giants rookie to score seven touchdowns since Bobby Johnson in 1984 and the first to rush for seven touchdowns since Bill Paschal ran for 10 scores in 1943.

Umenyiora was selected to his first Pro Bowl and was named first-team All-Pro by both the Associated Press and Pro Football Weekly. He was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 14.5 sacks, the highest total by a Giants player other than Strahan since Hall of Famer Lawrence Taylor had 15 in 1989.

Strahan was third in the NFC with 11.5 sacks. He and Umenyiora combined for 26 sacks, the most by any pair of NFL teammates.

Jay Feely led all NFL kickers with a team-record and career-high 148 points, the first Giants kicker to hold the top spot since Dan Chandler in 1963 (106 points). Jeff Feagles played in all 16 games for the 18th consecutive season (third with the Giants). On Nov. 27 in Seattle, Feagles played in his 283rd consecutive game, a new NFL record. Former Minnesota defensive end Jim Marshall had held the old mark of 282 since retiring in 1979.

Tyree was selected to his first Pro Bowl despite missing three games with an elbow injury, the Giants' first special teams player chosen since Reyna Thompson in 1990.

2006

The Giants finished 8-8 and earned their second consecutive postseason berth, the first time they accomplished that feat since 1989-90. The record was incongruously fashioned with a 3-5 home record and a 5-3 mark away from Giants Stadium.

Tiki Barber ended his record-setting career by rushing for 1,662 yards and catching 58 passes. Eli Manning was tied for fourth in the NFL with 24 touchdown passes. Tight end Jeremy Shockey led the team with 66 receptions and was voted to the Pro Bowl for the fourth time in his five-year career. Plaxico Burress caught 10 touchdown passes, the most by a Giant in 26 years, and was right behind Shockey with 63 catches. Linemen Chris Snee, David Diehl, Shaun O'Hara and Kareem McKenzie played solidly while missing just two games among them.

Defensively, middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 159 tackles (38 more than anyone else on the team), including 93 solo. He was selected to play in his first Pro Bowl as an injury replacement for Brian Urlacher. Safeties Gibril Wilson and Will Demps had 121 and 116 tackles, respectively, Osi Umenyiora led the team in sacks for the third consecutive year (despite missing five games) and tackle Fred Robbins had a solid all-around season.

On the debit side, the Giants were never at full strength in the second half of the season because several key players suffered injuries that forced them to go on injured reserve. The group included wide receiver Amani Toomer (knee), seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (Lisfranc foot sprain), left tackle Luke Petitgout, three-time Pro Bowl linebacker LaVar Arrington, reserve defensive end Justin Tuck and, late in the year, return specialist Chad Morton.

The 2007 season was one of the most successful, rewarding and memorable in franchise history.

The Giants stumbled to a 0-2 start – then fell behind by two touchdowns at halftime of their third game – before beginning a remarkable turnaround. They rallied to win that game, 14 of their next 18 and concluded the season with an exhilarating and unforgettable 17-14 victory over the New England Patriots in Super Bowl XLII. It was one of the greatest upsets and most exciting championship games in the long history of the National Football League.

Eli Manning threw the game-winning 13-yard touchdown pass to Plaxico Burress with just 35 seconds remaining, giving the Giants a victory over a New England team that entered the game with an 18-0 record, including a three-point win over the Giants in the regular season finale. After New England had taken a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining in the fourth quarter, Manning completed five passes on an 83-yard drive – including a 32-yarder on the greatest play in Super Bowl history, when he slipped the clutches of the Patriots' pass rusher and threw down field to David Tyree, who somehow secured the ball against his helmet and away from safety Rodney Harrison.

Two days after bringing the Vince Lombardi Trophy back to the metropolitan area, the Giants were lauded by more than a million fans at a ticker tape parade up Manhattan's famed Canyon of Heroes, and later at a rally in Giants Stadium.

The Giants triumphed for the third time in four Super Bowl appearances, won their sixth title game and seventh overall championship. They won Super Bowls following the 1986, 1990 and 2007 seasons, NFL Championship Games in 1934, 1938 and 1956 and the league title in 1927, before the advent of championship games.

But this title was the most improbable of all. The Giants were just the fourth team to start a season 0-2 and reach the Super Bowl (and the third to win it). They finished the regular season at 10-6 and became the first six-loss team to win the Super Bowl since the 1988 San Francisco 49ers. The Giants won just three home games – none after October 21 – to become the first team with a losing home record to ever make the Super Bowl. The Giants were the fifth wild card team – and first from the NFC – to win the Super Bowl. They were the third team to reach the Super Bowl by winning three road playoff games, the second such team to win the Super Bowl and the first from the NFC. The Giants sent an NFL single-season record with 11 consecutive victories away from home (seven regular season, four postseason, including the Super Bowl). Many individuals enjoyed outstanding seasons, games or moments. Eli Manning started every game and threw for 3,336 yards and 23 touchdowns to become the first Giants quarterback since Phil Simms (1984-86) to top 3,000 yards and 20 touchdown passes in each of three consecutive seasons. Brandon Jacobs rushed for 1,009 yards despite missing five games and most of a sixth with injuries. Burress was unable to practice virtually the entire season because of an ankle injury, but led the team with 70 receptions for 1,025 yards and 12 touchdowns, the highest total by a Giants receiver since Homer Jones had 13 in 1967. Amani Toomer caught 59 passes and became the franchise's all-time leader in receptions with 620. The offensive line – and fullback Madison Hedgecock, acquired off waivers after he was cut by St. Louis - played well throughout the year, a big reason the Giants finished fourth in the NFL in rushing yards, averaging 134.3 a game.

Under new coordinator Steve Spagnuolo, the defense ranked seventh in the NFL, allowing 305.0 yards a game. The Giants led the NFL with 53.0 sacks and set a franchise record with 12 in a victory over Philadelphia on Sept. 30. Osi Umenyiora was third in the NFC and fifth in the NFL with 13.0 sacks and was the lone Giant voted to the Pro Bowl. Justin Tuck became a force on the defensive line and had 10.0 sacks. Michael Strahan, in the final season of his great career, added 9.0 sacks and moved to fifth on the NFL's career list with 141.5. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce led the Giants with 116 tackles (63 solo). Corey Webster stepped up to play superbly in the playoffs. R.W. McQuarters has intercepted a pass in each of the first three postseason games.

The special teams also played well. Punter Jeff Feagles was one of the NFL's most effective punters in the 20th season of his remarkable career. Kicker Lawrence Tynes, acquired in an offseason trade with Kansas City, succeeded on 23 of 27 field goal attempts and booted the game-winning 47-yarder in overtime in the NFC Championship Game. Domenik Hixon, acquired off waivers in October, became the primary kickoff returner late in the season and brought one back 74 yards for a touchdown in the regular season game against the Patriots.

When the 2008 NFL season began, the Giants had the Vince Lombardi Trophy on display in their lobby and legions of skeptics and doubters who were convinced they had won it more through luck and timing than skill. A popular refrain was that the Giants had simply become a hot team at the right time in the 2007 playoffs. For evidence, the disbelievers cited the Giants' stirring Super Bowl XLII victory over the previously-undefeated New England Patriots. When it was time to make predictions for the 2008 season, most prognosticators placed the Giants second or third in the NFC East.

But the Giants proved them all wrong. No, they didn't win another Super Bowl. But they did capture the division title and the No. 1 seed in the NFC playoffs. They started the season 11-1 and winning 12 regular season games, they became only the fifth defending Super Bowl champion to win more games the season following a championship than they did on their way to winning the title (not counting the strike-shortened 1982 season).

The Giants achieved their success despite losing several key players from the 2007 championship team, including seven-time Pro Bowl defensive end Michael Strahan (retirement), two-time Pro Bowl defensive end Osi Umenyiora (knee injury suffered in the preseason), four-time Pro Bowl tight end Jeremy Shockey (traded to New Orleans) and wide receiver Plaxico Burress, (who did not play in the season's final month after he was wounded in an accidental shooting).

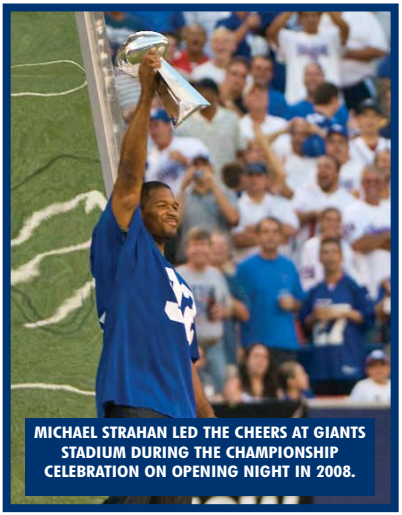
The day after the season ended with a loss to the Philadelphia Eagles in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game, Coach Tom Coughlin addressed many of the issues that had been raised in training camp.

"What I thought I would start with this morning is to think back to last spring and last summer when all of your questions concerned how this team would respond to winning the Super Bowl," Coughlin said. "Would they be, for lack of a better word, satisfied? Would they be as hungry coming into training camp and beyond training camp as they were in working our way to a Super Bowl championship? I think that our team responded and answered that question. I think we came out, we transitioned, we bridged from the Super Bowl year to the next season very well. Our competitiveness was there, our fire, our attempt to take the success of the Super Bowl season on into the next season was very successful. We were 11-1 and we did come out of camp and play very, very well for a very long time. We, of course, played well and the record stood for that. We didn't finish the season as well as we would have liked to, but I think we answered the questions of what this team was about."

"Twelve and five is not a bad season," general manager Jerry Reese said. "When you set the bar high like that and then all of sudden you get eliminated in the second round it stings. Overall, we had a real good season. It's not where we want it to be, but we said we wanted to be the organization that put our team in position to win the Super Bowl every year. For the last couple of years we have been able to put our team in position to do that. We fell short this time."

The loss to Philadelphia did not mitigate the achievements of a successful regular season. The Giants were one of only two teams to finish in the top nine in both the NFL's offensive and defensive rankings. They rushed for an NFL-leading and franchise record 2,518 yards and also topped the league with a Giants-best 5.0 yards per carry. The Giants were the first team since 1985 to have two running backs rush for 1,000 yards each (Brandon Jacobs and Derrick Ward).

Seven Giants were selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team:



MICHAEL STRAHAN LED THE CHEERS AT GIANTS STADIUM DURING THE CHAMPIONSHIP CELEBRATION ON OPENING NIGHT IN 2008.

Quarterback Eli Manning, center Shaun O'Hara, guard Chris Snee, defensive end Justin Tuck, punter Jeff Feagles and kicker John Carney. Two weeks before the game, long-snapper Zak DeOssie was added as the NFC's need player.

Snee and Tuck were named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and fullback Madison Hedgecock, O'Hara and Carney finished second in the voting at their positions. O'Hara, Hedgecock and defensive tackle Fred Robbins were named first-team All-Pro by Sports Illustrated and O'Hara and Snee were selected to The Sporting News' All-Pro first team.

The Giants opened their season at home against NFC East rival Washington in the traditional Thursday night opener showcasing the previous season's Super Bowl champions.

Before the game, the Giants' three Super Bowl championship teams were honored during an inspiring and exciting pre-game ceremony that featured a surprise appearance by Michael Strahan.

A huge inflatable replica of the Lombardi Trophy was wheeled out to midfield as the stadium video boards showed highlights from Super Bowls XXI and XXV. Bob Papa, the voice of the Giants, then introduced the players from those teams that were in attendance: Hall of Famer Harry Carson, Stacy Robinson, Karl Nelson, Brad Benson, Bill Ard, Howard Cross, Rodney Hampton, Ottis Anderson, Carl Banks and Mark Bavaro.

"Giants Stadium, you thought I was never coming back," said Strahan, who had announced his retirement three months previously after 15 stellar seasons with the team. "But I had to come back to celebrate the championship with the greatest fans in all of sports. And for one final time, salute my teammates for an incredible championship run. So what I want you to do is, I want you to get on your feet, I want you to make some noise and I want you to be ready to stomp somebody out and welcome the New York Giants Super Bowl champions."

With that, the 79,742 fans in attendance screamed in delight as the 2008 Giants took the field for the first time. At the other end of the stadium, a championship banner was raised.

When the Giants embarked on their 2009 season, the popular belief was that they could succeed because of the strength of a retooled defense, particularly the reinforced front, and a running game that had been the NFL's best in 2008. If a weakness, or at least a unit with multiple questions, existed, it was the untested group of wide receivers.

But someone shredded that script when the games began. The defense did not play as well as anticipated and the rushing attack wasn't as productive as it had been in previous seasons. But the passing game, with Eli Manning having the finest year of his career and record-setting Steve Smith leading a group of receives that exceeded expectations, was the strongest facet of the team.

The Giants' fortunes unfolded in a similarly unexpected fashion. Playing their 34th and final season in Giants Stadium, they hoped to win their second consecutive NFC East title and extended their franchise record with a fifth consecutive postseason berth. The journey began smoothly, as the Giants won their first five games. But they soon took a wrong turn, veered completely off course and ultimately hit a dead end. The Giants won just three times after that burst from the gate and finished with an 8-8 record and in third place in the division. They finished out of the playoffs for the first time since Tom Coughlin's inaugural season as head coach in 2004.

The Giants were hit by a debilitating series of injuries. Safety Kenny Phillips, their first round draft choice in 2008, played superbly in the first two games but missed the rest of the season because of an arthritic condition i nhis knee that required surgery. Middle linebacker Antonio Pierce, a team leader, captain and the top tackler, sat out the final seven games with a bulging disk in his neck. Two of the free agents acquired to strengthen the defense, Chris Canty and Michael Boley, missed significant chunks of the season with injuries. Defensive tackle Jay Alford missed the entire year with a knee injury. Gerris Wilkinson led the team in special teams tackles when he was placed on injured reserve with a wrist injury. Running backs Brandon Jacobs and Ahmad Bradshaw and defensive end Justin Tuck played hurt ,most of the year and offensive linemen Rich Seubert and Kareem McKenzie were sidelined at the end of the season with injuries.

Manning finished the season with 317 completions in 509 attempts (62.3 percent) for 4,021 yards, 27 touchdowns, 14 interceptions and a passer rating of 93.1. The completions, percentage, yards, touchdowns and rating were all career highs. Manning is the third quarterback in Giants history to throw for more than 4,000 yards in a season, joining Kerry Collins (4,073 in 2002) and Phil Simms (4,044 in 1984).

Smith was first in the NFC and second in the NFL with 107 receptions, 25 more than the franchise's previous single-season record-holder (Amani Toomer had 82 in 2002) and 50 more than this season's runner-up, Mario Manningham. Smith's

1,220 receiving yards were the second-highest total in franchise history. Toomer had 1,343 in 2002. Smith joined Toomer, Plaxico Burress (1,214 yards in 2005) and Homer Jones (1,209 yards in 1967) as the only Giants with 1,200-yard receiving seasons. Smith led the NFL with 38 receptions on third down.

Manningham had a break through season with 57 catches (in 14 games) and Hakeem Nicks had 47 receptions for 790 yards, both the third-highest total in history among Giants rookies. Nicks' six touchdown receptions were the most by a Giants rookie since Johnson had seven.

Center Shaun O'Hara and guard Chris Snee were selected to their second consecutive Pro Bowls and tackle David Diehl to his first. Tight end Kevin Boss had a solid season with 42 catches and five touchdowns. Cornerback Terrell Thomas started every game and led the team with 101 tackles (67 solo). Defensive end Osi Umenyiora returned from the knee surgery that cost him the 2008 season to record a team-high 7.0 sacks, the fifth time in six seasons he has led the team. Kicker Lawrence Tynes scored a career-high 126 points and Chase Blackburn and Bryan Kehl tied for the team lead with 16 special teams tackles.

The Giants finished with a record of 155-117 in regular season games in Giants Stadium, including 4-4 in 2009. They were 7-4 in postseason games for a total record of 162-121.

Giants Stadium hosted 477 NFL regular season game played in Giants Stadium, easily the most in league history. Chicago's Wrigley Field is second with 365.

STADIUMS OF THE NEW YORK GIANTS

The Giants shared the Polo Grounds with the New York Baseball Giants from the time they entered the league in 1925 until they moved to the larger Yankee Stadium for the start of the 1956 season.

In 1973, the Giants announced plans to move to a new stadium in New Jersey for the 1976 season, and the city of New York announced that Yankee Stadium was planning a two-year renovation after the 1973 baseball season. The Giants were allowed to play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium before moving to a new location.

The Giants spent the offseason searching for a place to play their games. The Giants' first choice was the Yale Bowl, but the Yale Bowl representatives turned down the team's first request because it would have meant a blackout for the local schedule due to the blackout rule. The Giants' next choice was to play at Princeton University, but they also turned down the Giants. Things were so bad that when the league announced the 1973 schedule, it didn't even say where the games would be played. In light of the Giants' problems, Commissioner Pete Rozelle, with the help from national politicians, modified the blackout rule so that the rule was only in effect if the game was not sold out in advance. With the rule change came a change of heart by the Yale Bowl representatives. It was official. The Giants would play their first two games of the 1973 season at Yankee Stadium and would play the rest of the schedule and the 1974 season at the Yale Bowl in New Haven, Connecticut.

After the 1974 season, it was announced that the Giants were going back to New York City to play at Shea Stadium until the opening of Giants Stadium in 1976. The Giants played the first four games of the 1976 season on the road just in case there were any delays with the opening of the new stadium. The Giants made their debut at Giants Stadium on October 10, 1976 against the Dallas Cowboys before a sellout crowd.

In 2010, the Giants moved into a beautiful, new, state-of-the-art stadium built just a few yards from where Giants Stadium sat for more than three decades. The nation's finest football stadium, it seats 82,500 fans. It is one of the NFL's most technologically advanced stadiums and took more than four million man-hours and $1.6 billion to build. The stadium features 10,000 club seats, 222 suites and 130,000 square feet of state-of-the-art club lounges. The first row of seats is just 46 feet from the sidelines and the sightlines are superb. The site of Super Bowl XLVIII, Giants' new home is 2.1 million square feet, compared to Giants Stadium's 900,000 square feet. It has four 30' by 118' high definition video screens, a 350,000 square foot outdoor plaza filled with interactive activities for fans of all ages.

COMMEMORATIVE PATCHES

The Giants have celerated two major anniversaries by wearing uniform patches on its jerseys. The first was in 1999 for its 75th season, the second coming in 2004 commemorating 80 years.

Over the years, the team has honored deceased players and administrators by wearing memorial patches. In 1986, the team wore a patch in rememberance of Carl "Spider" Lockhart. In 2001, a "GBY" patch honored longtime general manager George Bernard Young. Most recently, Wellington T. Mara was remembered during the 2005 season with a "WTM" patch after his passing, and a few weeks later, Preston Robert Tisch was added to a patch with Wellington Mara separated by the NY logo.

The Giants honored Hall of Famer, player and coach, Rosie Brown with a "79" decal on the back of their helmets in after his passing in 2004.

In addition, the team has also worn patches in Super Bowls XXV and XLII. Those patches were representations of the NFL's Super Bowl logos for those years.

WELLINGTON MARA

CO-OWNER
FORDHAM
ENSHRINED IN 1997

Wellington Mara, along with CB Mike Haynes, Coach Don Shula and C Mike Webster, was a member of the four-man 1997 class of the Pro Football Hall of Fame. Mara and his father Tim, who was the founder of the Giants and a charter member of the Hall of Fame, were the first father and son to be accorded pro football's highest honor. Mara was one of the most influential and beloved figures in American sports history. His entire working lifetime was dedicated to the Giants and the NFL and he helped the Giants produce 21 NFL/NFC first place finishes, 27 postseason appearances and six NFL championships during a 68-season tenure that began with his graduation from Fordham in 1937. Mara passed away on Oct. 25, 2005.

TIM MARA

FOUNDER
CHARTER ENSHRINEE IN 1963

Tim Mara introduced the city of New York to pro football when he purchased the franchise for a reported $500 in 1925, thus giving the National Football League a vital showcase in the nation's largest city. Mara withstood heavy financial losses his first year until the Giants were saved in the last home game of the season. Mara needed a good showing at the gate to keep the team alive. The Chicago Bears arrived at the Polo Grounds with the most heralded college player of the era, Red Grange, who helped draw a crowd of more than 70,000 people. After seeing so many people attend a Giants game, Mara decided that professional football could be a big success under the right circumstances. Mara bore the brunt of the fight against the rival American Football League in 1926 and the All-American Football Conference from 1946-49. He helped build the Giants into a perennial powerhouse and was honored in 1963 as one of 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

MORRIS (RED) BADGRO

END
ENSHRINED IN 1981

Badgro joined the Giants in 1930 and played six seasons at end. He made a name for himself as a superior defender, excellent blocker and big-play receiver. Badgro helped lead the Giants to the NFL's inaugural championship game in 1933 and he scored the first touchdown in the league's championship game history on a 29-yard pass from Harry Newman in the second quarter. Badgro tied for the NFL receiving title in 1934 with 16 receptions for 206 yards, including one touchdown. He was named to the All-NFL team three times: 1931, 1933 and 1934. Before joining the Giants, Badgro played with the Red Grange-led New York Yankees in the American Football League (12 games in 1927 and one game in 1928). He played pro baseball for three season, the first with the Tulsa in the minor leagues and then with the St. Louis Browns for two seasons. Badgro has the distinction of being the oldest player ever to be elected into the Hall of Fame. He was 77 when he was enshrined in 1981.

ROOSEVELT BROWN

TACKLE
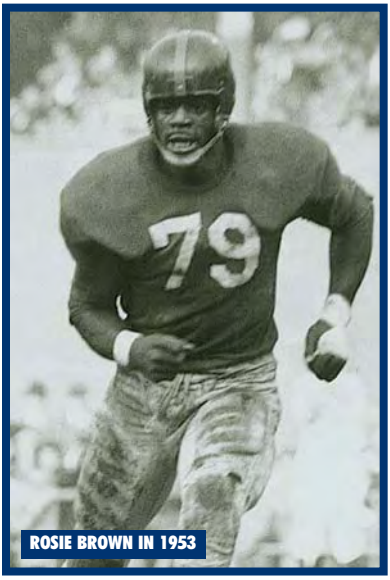
ENSHRINED IN 1975

Brown played for the Giants from 1953 through 1965 after joining the team as a 27th round draft choice, regarded as one of the greatest "sleeper" picks of all time. Brown held the starting tackle spot for 13 straight seasons. During that period, he was named to the Pro Bowl nine times and was selected All-NFL eight consecutive seasons. In 1956, when the Giants won the league title, Brown was named Lineman of the Year by the Associated Press. Brown was a big, strong blocker who had the speed to make a block downfield. He was also used along the defensive front on goal-line stands. Brown helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. After his playing career, Brown continued his Giants affiliation as a coach before being appointed as a scout, where he has served since the 1971 season. He was immediately named assistant line coach by the Giants after a phlebitis condition forced him to retire in 1966.



ROSIE BROWN IN 1953

HARRY CARSON

LINEBACKER
SOUTH CAROLINA STATE
ENSHRINED IN 2006

Carson played his entire 13-year NFL career with the Giants. An inside linebacker, he was selected to play in nine Pro Bowls, including seven in a row from 1982-88. Carson led the Giants in tackles six times, was a two-time All-NFL first team selection and was a leader throughout his career and the sole captain of the 1986 Super Bowl champions. Carson joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice in 1976 from South Carolina State, where he never missed a game in four seasons, was a two-year captain and a Little All-America selection by the Associated Press. A defensive end in college, Carson successfully moved to linebacker with the Giants so quickly and so successfully that he was voted to NFL All-Rookie team. Carson played 173 games in a Giants uniform – tying him with Keith Hamilton for seventh all-time – and he was a punishing run defender who also intercepted 11 passes. Carson had 17 sacks, 14 fumble recoveries and seven forced fumbles. He had 25 tackles (20 solo) in a Monday night game against Green Bay in 1982 and seven tackles in the Giants' 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. During his prime, Carson was the best run-stopping linebacker in the NFL. In the seven seasons from 1981 to 1987, Giants' opponents averaged only 3.59 yards per rushing attempt, a remarkable achievement for so long a period. During that period, Carson was credited with 856 tackles, including 627 unassisted tackles.

FRANK GIFFORD

HALFBACK, FLANKER
SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA
ENSHRINED IN 1977

Gifford played for the Giants from 1952-64, although he voluntarily retired in 1961 due to a serious injury suffered the previous season. He was known as one of the most versatile backs in NFL history. Gifford was the first choice in the draft by the Giants in 1952 after an All-America career at Southern California. He totaled 9,862 combined yards during his career. He rushed for 3,609 yards rushing, caught 367 passes and scored 484 points. Gifford was named to the Pro Bowl as a defensive back in 1953 and as an offensive back the following year - a first in NFL history. He played in seven Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four times and NFL Player of the Year in 1956. Gifford holds the Giants record with 78 touchdowns. A true triple-threat back, Gifford threw 14 touchdown passes in 60 attempts on the halfback option. He retired after the 1960 season and returned in 1962 at a new position, flanker. The Giants reached the NFL Championship game five times during his career, including their victory in 1956.

MEL HEIN

CENTER
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hein joined the Giants in 1931 and played 15 seasons, a team record matched only by Phil Simms and Michael Strahan. He was named All-NFL eight consecutive years from 1933-40. Following a successful college career at Washington State, Hein wrote to three NFL clubs offering his services. He joined the Giants after the team submitted the highest salary bid at $150 per game. Hein was a 60-minute regular for 15 years, playing in 170 games. He never missed a game in high school, college or the NFL. Hein took time out only in two games and was injured only once. He was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 1938 after anchoring a line that helped guide the Giants to the NFL Championship with a 23-17 victory over the Green Bay Packers in the Polo Grounds.

ENSHRINED IN 1963

Hubbard played for the Giants from 1927-28 and again in 1936. He was one of the 17 charter members of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Hubbard was named All-NFL six years in a row from 1928-33. He played for the Green Bay Packers from 1929-35 and the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1936 before returning to the Giants. He was acquired before the start of the 1927 season in order to help beef up the Giants defense. That season, the defense surrendered only 20 points as the Giants captured their first NFL championship. He went to Green Bay in 1929 in a move that would haunt the Giants, as Hubbard led the Packers to a 12-0-1 record to edge out the 13-1-1 Giants for the league title. The Packers handed the Giants their only loss of the season by a 20-6 score.

SAM HUFF

LINEBACKER
WEST VIRGINIA
ENSHRINED IN 1982

Huff became an immediate star at middle linebacker after he was drafted by the Giants in the third round in 1956 following an All-America career at West Virginia. He played in five Pro Bowls and was named All-NFL four years. Huff won recognition for his great individual efforts against the premier running backs of his era, including Jim Brown of Cleveland, Rick Casares of Chicago and Alan Ameche of Baltimore. He was named the NFL's Outstanding Lineman in 1959. Huff anchored a defense that helped the Giants reach the championship game in 1956, 1958, 1959, 1961, 1962 and 1963. He was traded to the Washington Redskins prior to the 1964 season and has been a color analyst on the Redskins radio broadcasts for many years.

TOM LANDRY

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1990

Landry was with the Giants as a defensive back from 1950-55 and an assistant coach from 1954-59. The Giants' 1956 championship team not only consisted of players that would eventually be elected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, but it also had one of history's greatest coaching staffs. Head coach Jim Lee Howell had Vince Lombardi coaching the offense and Landry coaching the defense. When the Dallas Cowboys entered the league in 1960, Wellington Mara recommended the Cowboys hire Landry as head coach. Landry coached the Cowboys from 1960 through 1988 and led Dallas to two Super Bowl victories and five NFC titles. Landry coached the Cowboys to 20 consecutive winning seasons.

ALPHONSE (TUFFY) LEEMANS

HALFBACK, FULLBACK
G. WASHINGTON/
OREGON
ENSHRINED IN 1978

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936-43. He was personally scouted by Wellington Mara and was a second-round draft choice in the inaugural NFL draft in 1936 out of George Washington. Mara sent a telegram setting up a meeting with Leemans to convince him to accept a career in the NFL with the Giants. Leemans was the 1936 College Football All-Star game MVP. He led NFL rushers as a rookie in 1936 with 830 yards on 206 attempts. Leemans was named All-NFL in 1936 and 1939. An aggressive, dedicated do-everything team leader, he totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 yards receiving and threw 16 touchdown passes during his career.

VINCE LOMBARDI

COACH

Lombardi was an offensive assistant coach with the Giants from 1954-58 and the head coach of the Green Bay Packers (1959-67) and Washington Redskins (1969). With Lombardi running the offense, the Giants captured the NFL championship in 1956. In 10 years as head coach, Lombardi had a 105-36-6 record. He directed the Packers to five NFL championships in seven years (1961-62 and 65-66-67) and victories in Super Bowls I and II, a feat without equal in pro football history. A guard, Lombardi played his collegiate football at Fordham, where he was one of the legendary "Seven Blocks of Granite."

ANDY ROBUSTELLI

DEFENSIVE END
ARNOLD COLLEGE
ENSHRINED IN 1971

Robustelli was drafted by the Los Angeles Rams in 1951 and played on two Rams championship teams. In 1956, Wellington traded for Robustelli, who provided a tremendous lift in the Giants' title drive that season. Robustelli, who stayed with the Giants through the 1964 season, played on a winning team in 13 of his 14 pro seasons. He played in eight NFL championship title games and seven Pro Bowls. Robustelli was named All-NFL seven times, two with the Rams and five with the Giants. Robustelli was a durable player who missed only one game in his 14-year career.

STEVE OWEN

COACH
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Owen was a four-time All-NFL tackle who played for the Giants from 1926-31, plus a one-game return in 1933. He captained the 1927 team that won the NFL title and held its foes to a record-low total of 20 points. But Owen made his greatest imprint on the sideline, where he coached the Giants for 23 years. He was a co-coach with Benny Friedman in 1930, then assumed the full head coaching responsibility in 1931, a position he kept until 1953. Owens had a coaching record of 153-100-17 and won eight division and two NFL titles. The 153 victories are a Giants record. Some of his coaching innovations include the A-formation offense, the umbrella defense and the two-platoon system.

KEN STRONG

HALFBACK
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY
ENSHRINED 1967

Strong played for the Giants from 1933-35, in 1939 and from 1944-47. He excelled in every phase of the game - blocking, running, passing, punting, placekicking and defense. At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants' career scoring leader with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points. He scored 17 points to pace the Giants to the 1934 championship game over the Chicago Bears in the famous "Sneakers Game." Strong scored a league-high 64 points in 1933 and was All-NFL in 1934. He began his career with the Staten Island Stapletons in 1932. After four seasons, he joined the Giants. In 1936, he began a two-year stint in the rival AFL. Strong served as a placekicking specialist only when he returned to the Giants from 1944 until 1947. He scored 479 points in his career.

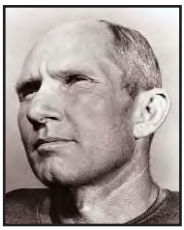
LINEBACKER
NORTH CAROLINA
ENSHRINED IN 1999

Taylor joined the Giants as the second overall selection of the 1981 NFL Draft and played his entire 13-year career for the team. When Taylor retired, he was the NFL's No. 2 all-time sack leader in the NFL with 132.5. That total does not include the 9.5 he accumulated as a rookie in 1981 before the sack was an official NFL statistic. Taylor established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-1990. He was named the NFL Rookie of the Year in 1981 and the NFC's Defensive Player of the Week nine times (the award was established in 1984), as well as the conference's Defensive Player of the Month twice, in October 1986 and September 1989. Taylor was a unanimous choice to the NFL's All-1980s team. He was a unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986, when he had a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles.



Y.A. TITTLE

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1971

The Giants engineered one of the best trades in their long history prior to the 1961 season when they sent guard Lou Cordileone to the San Francisco 49ers for Tittle. The then 35-year old Tittle promptly led the Giants to their 12th Eastern Division championship. Tittle played two seasons in the All-Ameircan Conference and 11 in the NFL before joining the Giants. In 1962, Tittle set an NFL record by throwing 33 touchdown passes and tied another mark with seven scoring throws in one game. Tittle had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, when he led the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards. His 36 touchdown passes broke his own league mark and set a Giants record that still stands. Tittle's career totals include 2,427 completions, 33,070 yards, 242 touchdowns and 13 games with more than 300 yards passing. He was the NFL Player of the Year in 1957, when he led the 49ers to a tie for the Western Division title, and won the honor again in 1961 and 1963, as he took the Giants to Eastern championships. Tittle was named All-NFL in 1957, 1962 and 1963, and also played in six Pro Bowls.

EMLEN TUNNELL

TOLEDO/IOWA
ENSHRINED 1967

Tunnell was signed by the Giants as a free agent out of Iowa in 1948 and played 11 seasons for the teams. Ignored in the NFL draft, Tunnell walked into the Giants office and asked Tim Mara for a tryout. Tunnell was the first African-American player signed by the Giants. He holds Giants records with 74 interceptions and 261 punt returns. In 1952, Tunnell gained more yards (923) on interceptions and kickoff returns than the NFL rushing leader did running the ball. He earned the nickname "offense on defense." Tunnell was named All-NFL four times and played in nine Pro Bowls.

ARNOLD WEINMEISTER

Weinmeister played for the Giants from 1950-53. He was one of the first defensive players to captivate the masses in the same manner a star running back or quarterback could. A big and extremely fast player with great ability to diagnose plays, Weinmeister began his pro career with the New York Yankees in the All-American Football Conference in 1950. He moved to the NFL during the 1950 merger. Weinmeister played two ways in the AAFC, but was used exclusively on defense in the NFL.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

LARRY CSONKA

FULLBACK
SYRACUSE
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Csonka played for the Giants from 1976-78. He was originally drafted by the Miami Dolphins in the first round in 1968. Csonka left the Dolphins following the 1974 season and played for the Memphis Southmen of the World Football League in 1975. He returned to the Dolphins to finish his career in 1979. A five-time Pro Bowl selection, Csonka put together three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons (1971-73) as Miami advanced to the Super Bowl each year. He excelled in those Super Bowls, averaging 6.3 yards a carry and rushing for more than 100 yards in two of them. Csonka finished his career with 8,081 yards, a 4.3-yard average and 64 touchdowns.

RAY FLAHERTY

END, COACH
GONZAGA
ENSHRINED IN 1976

Flaherty played for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to the NFL Championship Game in 1933, 1934 and 1935. He spent the 1930 season coaching at Gonzaga. Flaherty finished with an 80-37-5 record as a coach with the Boston Redskins, Washington Redskins, New York Yankees and Chicago Hornets. Flaherty introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game when the Washington Redskins scored a 28-21 victory over the Chicago Bears. He suggested to Coach Steve Owen that the Giants wear sneakers in the icy conditions at the Polo Grounds in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

BENNY FRIEDMAN

QUARTERBACK
MICHIGAN
ENSHRINED IN 2005

Friedman, a two-time All-America quarterback at Michigan, played with the Cleveland Bulldogs (1927), Detroit Wolverines (1928), Giants (1929-1931) and Brooklyn Dodgers (1932-1934). Following the 1928 season New York Giants owner Tim Mara purchased the Detroit franchise just to secure the services of Friedman. A versatile player, Friedman could run, kick and pass the ball better than any player who preceded him. From 1927-30, Friedman threw 11, nine, 20, and 13 touchdown passes, leading the league each year. In 1928, he topped the league in both rushing touchdowns and touchdown passes; no other player has ever accomplished that feat. His 20 touchdown passes in 1929, including four in one game, were both NFL records for years. Although very durable, a knee injury coupled with the rigors of serving as an assistant coach at Yale, Friedman's productivity dropped in 1931. Still the player-coach managed to earn third-team All-NFL honors that year and second-team All-NFL honors in 1933.

JOE GUYON

HALFBACK
CARLISLE
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Guyon played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. His career highlight was catching a touchdown pass that gave the Giants a win over the Bears for the 1927 NFL championship. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs in 1920, the Cleveland Indians in 1921, Oorang Indians from 1922-23, the Rock Island Independents in 1924 and the Kansas City Cowboys from 1924-25.

OTHER HALL OF FAMERS WITH GIANTS EXPERIENCE

TACKLE
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Henry played for the Giants during the championship season in 1927. He was the largest player of his time at 250 pounds. Henry was the bulwark of the Canton Bulldogs' championship lines in the 1920s. He played for the Canton Bulldogs and the Pottsville Maroons in addition to the Giants.

ARNIE HERBER

QUARTERBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1966

Herber played for the Giants in 1944 and 1945. Pro football's first great long passer, Herber was the NFL passing leader in 1932, 1934 and 1936. Herber came out of retirement in 1944 to lead the Giants to the NFL Eastern Division crown. He also played for the Green Bay Packers from 1930-40, and ranks fifth in Packers annals with 64 career touchdowns.

DON MAYNARD

WIDE RECEIVER
TEXAS WESTERN
ENSHRINED IN 1987

Maynard played for the Giants in 1958. He went on to play for the New York Titans from 1960-62, the New York Jets from 1963-72 and the St. Louis Cardinals in 1973. He caught 633 passes for 11,834 yards (18.7-yard average) and 88 touchdowns. He had at least 50 catches and 1,000 yards in five different seasons. Maynard caught eight passes for 118 yards, including the winning touchdown, against Oakland in the AFL Championship game to help the Jets advance to Super Bowl III.

HUGH McELHENNY

HALFBACK
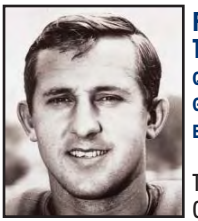
ENSHRINED IN 1970

McElhenny played for the Giants in 1963, when he helped them advance to the championship game. His career totals include 5,281 yards rushing and 360 points. On his first play as a professional, McElhenny scored on a 40-yard touchdown run. He also played with the San Francisco 49ers from 1952-60, the Minnesota Vikings from 1961-62 and the Detroit Lions in 1964.



FRAN TARKENTON

QUARTERBACK
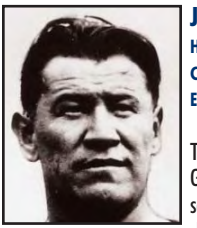
ENSHRINED IN 1986

Tarkenton played for the Giants from 1967-71. He began his career with the Minnesota Vikings in 1961 before moving to the Giants in 1967 and back to the Vikings in 1972 in blockbuster trades. He retired as the NFL's record holder for career passing yards with 47,003. An elusive scrambler, Tarkenton rushed for 3,674 yards and 32 touchdowns. A four-time All-NFL and nine-time Pro Bowl selection, he led the Vikings to Super Bowl appearances in 1973, 1974 and 1976.



JIM THORPE

HALFBACK
ENSHRINED IN 1963

Thorpe played for the Giants during their first season in 1925. He was a charter inductee into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1963. Thorpe was the biggest name in football at the time the Giants signed him at the age of 37. He also played for the Canton Bulldogs, Cleveland Indians, Oorang Indians, Toledo Maroons, Rock Island Independents and the Chicago Cardinals. He was the first president of the American Professional Football Association in 1920.

*Wellington Mara said no Giants would again wear No. 14 after Cuff retired. When Tittle was traded to the Giants in 1961, he requested and was given No. 14. The number is now retired in honor of both players.

1 RAY FLAHERTY

Flaherty was an end and an assistant coach for the Giants from 1928-29 and 1931-35 and helped the Giants advance to three NFL Championships…Introduced the screen pass in the 1937 title game…Suggested the Giants wear sneakers in the 1934 championship game, known as the "Sneakers Game."

4 TUFFY LEEMANS

Leemans played for the Giants from 1936 through 1943…Was personally scouted by Giants co-owner Wellington Mara…Totaled 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 yards passing, 442 receiving yards and threw 16 touchdowns.

7 MEL HEIN

Joined the Giants in 1931 and enjoyed a 15-year career…Was named All-NFL eight straight years from 1933-40…Never missed a game in in the NFL, college or high school…Named League MVP in 1938.

11 PHIL SIMMS

Owns 19 team records for the Giants, including all-time records with 2,576 completions in 4,647 attempts for 33,462 yards…Owns a .597 winning percentage (95-64, including 6-4 in postseason play) as a starter over his 15-year career…Named MVP of the Super Bowl after leading the Giants to a 39-20 victory over Denver in Super Bowl XXI.

14 WARD CUFF

Cuff joined the Giants as a fourth-round draft choice from Marquette in 1937 and excelled at several positions in a stint that ended in 1945. A wingback, fullback, halfback, defensive back and kicker, he rushed for 1,766 yards on 330 carries (a 5.3-yard average) and caught 101 passes for 1,477 yards. Cuff scored 18 touchdowns (six rushing, 12 receiving) and made 31 of 70 field goal attempts and 98 of 102 extra point tries. He also had a 12.1-yard punt return average and 13 interceptions.

AND Y.A. TITTLE

Tittle played for the Giants from 1961-64 season…In 1962, Tittle completed 200 passes in 375 attempts for 3,224 yards…His 33 touchdowns that season set an NFL record and his seven touchdown passes against Washington tied another mark…Had his greatest year as a pro in 1963, leading the league in passing with 221 completions in 367 attempts for 3,145 yards and 36 touchdowns.

16 FRANK GIFFORD

Played for the Giants from 1952-64, though he voluntarily retired in 1961 season because of an injury…Made the Pro Bowl as both an offensive back and defensive back…Seven-time Pro Bowler and 1956 NFL player of the year…Holds three Giants records: Touchdowns (78), highest average gain (500 attempts) rushing (4.3 yards) and most receiving yards (5,434)…Is fifth on team's all-time rushing list with 3,609 yards and second with 367 receptions…Totaled 9,753 yards in his career.

32 AL BLOZIS

Made an immediate impression on the Giants after arriving in 1942 and quickly earned a starting assignment at tackle…Played in the 1944 championship game with the Giants, he then was sent almost immediately overseas where as a lieutenant in the army he was killed in action in France a brief six weeks later.

40 JOE MORRISON

Was a back and an end for the Giants from 1959 through 1972…Was a dominant figure during his 14-year career with the Giants, accumulating 2,472 yards rushing with 18 touchdowns…A versatile player, Morrison played six different positions: fullback, halfback, flanker, tight end, split end and defensive back.

42 CHARLIE CONERLY

Played for the Giants from 1948 through 1961…Represented the Giants in three Pro Bowls (1951, 1952 and 1957) and was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1959…Ended his career with 1,418 completions and 19,488 yards, both Giants records at the time of his retirement.

50 KEN STRONG

Played for the Giants from 1933-35, 1939 and 1944-47…At the time of his retirement, Strong was the Giants all-time leading scorer with 324 points on 13 touchdowns, 35 field goals and 141 extra points...He scored 17 points to lead the Giants to victory in the 1934 Championship game against Chicago.

56 LAWRENCE TAYLOR

Finished his 13-year career (1981-93) as the No. 2 all-time quarterback sack leader in the NFL with 132.5…Established an NFL record by appearing in 10 consecutive Pro Bowls from 1981-90…Finest statistical season was in 1986 with a career-high 20.5 sacks, 105 total tackles, five passes defensed and two forced fumbles…Earned unanimous selection as the NFL's Most Valuable Player in 1986.

GIANTS ALL-TIME ROSTER

This list is comprised of players who have been on the Giants' game-day active roster for at least one game. It does not mean they actually played in a game, but only that they were on the active roster on the day of game, even if they were inactive for that particular game. It also includes players who were on injured reserve and the physically unable to perform list and did not appear in a game. This list was compiled with the assistance of John Berti.

GIANTS POSTSEASON CAPSULES

GIANTS 13, Chicago Bears 7

NFL CHAMPIONS

Led by Steve Owen, the Giants finished with an 11-1-1 record, then stunned Red Grange, John Driscoll and the Bears 13-7 at the Polo Grounds. "It was the toughest, roughest football game I ever played in," Owen would say later. With the score tied 7-7, the Bears drove to the Giants' one-yard line, but Owen and Cal Hubbard spearheaded a goal line defense which held the Bears out of the end zone. Hinkey Haines then faked a punt from his own end zone and completed a pass to Charlie Corgan for a 58-yard gain that set up the winning score and elation for Tim Mara and the Giants.

 Victory clinched the NFL Championship- there was no Championship game in 1927.

NFC Championship
Jan. 20, 1991 at Candlestick Park (65,750)

One of the most exciting championship games in Giants history as the Big Blue blunted the Niners quest for a third straight Super Bowl on Matt Bahr's 42-yard FG at the gun...Key plays included Erik Howard's jarring tackle on Roger Craig which produced a fumble, recovered by Lawrence Taylor with just 2:36 left to play, and a 30-yard run on a fake punt by LB Gary Reasons that set up a FG to close the gap to 13-12 midway through the final period... Bahr booted an NFC championship record five FGs in the fray and DE Leonard Marshall won Defensive Player of the Week honors with four tackles, two QB sacks and two forced fumbles, with one of the sacks a hellacious hit on Joe Montana that knocked him out of the game with multiple injuries.

As if the Giants' NFC title win over the 49ers was not exciting enough, this Super Bowl championship win over the Bills was every bit as thrilling and, in fact, has been called the best Super Bowl game ever...Gutsy Giants bounced back from a 12-3 deficit to take a 17-12 lead after a Super Bowl record 9:29 drive in the third period, gave up a go-ahead Bills' TD, and then won it when Matt Bahr drilled a 21-yard FG late in the game and when his counterpart, Scott Norwood of the Bills, misfired on a 47-yard attempt with four seconds left...Ottis Anderson rushed for 102 yards and won the MVP Award as the Giants also set an all-time Super Bowl record with 40:33 possession time.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 9, 1994 at Giants Stadium (75,089)

It was Giants football Dan Reeves' style, as the Giants won the toss and elected to defend the east goal, taking the wind (17 mph at kickoff) in the first quarter. The Giants scored on their first possession, a PK David Treadwell 26-yard FG, but the Vikings took a 10-3 halftime lead on a Jim McMahon-to-Cris Carter 40-yard TD pass and a PK Fuad Reveiz 36-yard FG. Giants RB Rodney Hampton exploded in the third quarter, scoring on runs of 51 and 2 yards. Hampton finished the day with 161 yards on 33 carries to tie the team postseason marks in each category. The Giants defense did not allow Minnesota to run a single play inside the Giants 20-yard line all day.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 15, 1994 at Candlestick Park (67,143)

The '49ers ended the Giants' season in dominant fashion as SF scored on its first three possessions for a 16-0 lead. The Giants only score of the day came on a PK David Treadwell 25-yard FG in the second quarter, but the Giants trailed at the half, 23-3. After allowing just seven rushing TDs the entire regular season, the Giants defense watched SF RB Ricky Watters set an NFL postseason single-game record as he scored five rushing TDs. Watters rushed for 118 yards on 24 carries, while Giants RB Rodney Hampton rushed for just 12 yards. The game marked the end of Giants LB Lawrence Taylor's 13-year career as he announced his retirement following the game. The 44 points were the most ever allowed by the Giants in a postseason game.

Dec. 27, 1997 at Giants Stadium (77,710)

In a stunning collapse, the Giants watched a nine-point lead evaporate in the final two minutes of the game as the season ended in a 23-22 loss to Minnesota. The Giants were in front, 22-13, at the two-minute warning, but the Vikings were at the Giants 49-yard line following a 26-yard punt by P Brad Maynard. Vikings QB Randall Cunningham completed a 19-yard pass to WR Cris Carter to get the Vikings to the Giants 30-yard line with 1:38 left to play, and then he completed a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jake Reed to close the gap to 22-20. Minnesota executed an onside kick on the ensuing kickoff that bounced off WR Chris Calloway and into the hands of Minnesota WR Chris Walsh at the Vikings 39. Faced with a third-and-four situation, Cunningham fired a slant pass to Carter, who turned the play into a 21-yard gain to the Giants 34-yard line. A pass interference call gave the Vikings a first down at the Giants 21 with 50 seconds left. Vikings RB Robert Smith ran up the middle for 16 yards to the Giants five to set up PK Eddie Murray's game-winning 24-yard field goal with 10 seconds remaining for a 23-22 Vikings lead.

The Giants won their ninth consecutive game against Philadelphia without scoring an offensive touchdown, thanks to a dominant defensive performance. Rookie Ron Dixon gave the Giants an instant lead when he returned the opening kickoff 97 yards for a touchdown. The Giants increased their lead to 10-0 on Brad Daluiso's 37-yard field goal on the first play of the second period. Jason Sehorn made it 17-0 when he scored on a spectacular 32-yard interception return in which he fell to the ground while tipping the ball in the air, then jumped up and grabbed the ball before racing to the end zone. Daluiso later added a 25-yard field goal. The Giants defense held Philadelphia to 186 total yards (46 on the ground) and 11 first downs.

In one of the most dominant performances ever in a championship game, the Giants raced to a 34-0 halftime lead and crushed the Vikings to advance to their first Super Bowl in 10 years. The Giants rolled up 518 total yards and 31 first downs, while the defense limited Minnesota's heralded attack to 114 yards and nine first downs. Quarterback Kerry Collins played the finest game of his career, completing 28 of 39 passes for 381 yards and five touchdowns. Ike Hilliard caught 10 passes for 155 yards and two scores. Collins' 46-yard pass to Hilliard gave the Giants a 7-0 lead just four plays into the game. After the Giants recovered a Minnesota fumble on the ensuing kickoff, Collins hit Greg Comella for another score and a 14-0 lead. In the second period, Joe Jurevicius and Hilliard caught touchdown passes and Brad Daluiso kicked a pair of field goals. Amani Toomer closed out the scoring with a 7-yard touchdown reception. For the first time in three Super Bowl appearances the Giants came up flat and lost to the Ravens. The Giants could not get untracked against Baltimore's highly-rated defense, gaining only 152 yards (66 on the ground) and picking up 11 first downs (2 rushing). Quarterback Kerry Collins struggled, completing only 15 of 39 passes for 112 yards and four interceptions. Brad Maynard punted a Super Bowl-record 11 times for a 38.4-yard average. The Giants defense played well, limiting the Ravens to 244 yards and 13 first downs. Baltimore took a 7-0 lead in the first period on a 38-yard pass from Trent Dilfer to Brandon Stokley. Matt Stover added a 47-yard field goal in the second period for a 10-0 halftime lead. The Ravens advantage grew to 17-0 when Duane Starks intercepted a Collins pass and returned it 49 yards for a touchdown early in the third period. The Giants responded with their only touchdown of the day, on Ron Dixon's 97-yard kickoff return. But Baltimore immediately scored on the next kickoff, as Jermaine Lewis returned it 84 yards for a score and a 31-7 lead. Jamal Lewis, who rushed for 102 yards, scored on a 3-yard run and Stover kicked a 34-yard field goal in the fourth period.

2002- 49ERS 39, GIANTS 38

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 5, 2003 at Candlestick Park (66,318)

The Giants' season ended with a shocking and heartbreaking defeat as they wasted a 38-14 third-quarter lead and fell to the 49ers. Four touchdown passes by Kerry Collins – three to Amani Toomer and one to Jeremy Shockey – a touchdown run by Tiki Barber and Matt Bryant's field goal gave the Giants what seemed to be a commanding 24-point lead with 4:27 left in the third quarter. But the 49ers mounted a quick and complete comeback. Terrell Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Jeff Garcia, who then ran 14 yards for another score. Jeff Chandler's 25-yard field goal pulled San Francisco to within 38-33. With 1:00 remaining, Garcia threw a 13-yard touchdown pass to Tai Streets. The 2-point conversion attempt failed, but the Niners had a 1-point lead. The Giants had a chance to pull the game out. After Delvin Joyce's 32-yard kickoff return, the Giants drove from their own 48-yard line to the San Francisco 23. Matt Bryant lined up for what could have been the game-winning 41-yard field goal. But Trey Junkin's snap was low and wide. Holder Matt Allen took off and threw a desperation pass toward Rich Seubert, a guard who was an eligible receiver on the play. Seubert was interfered with by Chike Okeafor, but the officials did not throw a flag and the game ended as a huge disappointment for the Giants.

2005- PANTHERS 23, GIANTS 0

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 8, 2006 at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants lost a playoff game in Giants Stadium for just the third time when they fell to the Carolina Panthers, 23-0. Carolina dominated the game, holding big advantages in offensive plays (71-35), time of possession (42:45-17:15), first downs (23-9), total yards (335-132) and rushing yards (223-41). The Giants hurt themselves with five turnovers, including three Eli Manning interceptions on consecutive possessions in the second half (two by Marlon McCree and one by Ken Lucas). Manning also fumbled late in the game. The Giants converted just one of seven third-down opportunities. Steve Smith caught a touchdown pass and ran in for another score and John Kasay kicked three field goals for the Panthers. DeShaun Foster rushed for 151 yards on 27 carries, a 5.6-yard average that was reflective of the Giants' tackling difficulties throughout the game. Jake Delhomme completed 15 of 22 passes for 140 yards. Smith had 10 of those receptions. For the Giants, Tiki Barber rushed for 41 yards, or 75 yards less than his regular season average. Manning completed 10 of 18 passes for 113 yards and was sacked four times. Jeremy Shockey, Amani Toomer and Barber had three catches apiece. Smith scored the game's first points on a 22-yard touchdown reception. Later in the second quarter, a Carolina punt bounced off Gibril Wilson's leg and was recovered by the Panthers, setting up Kasay's 21-yard field goal. Smith scored on a 12-yard reverse immediately following Manning's first interception and Kasay added two fourth-quarter field goals.

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 7, 2007 at Lincoln Financial Field (69,094)

David Akers' 38-yard field goal as time expired sent the Giants to a second Wild Card game defeat in as many seasons, 23-20, to the Eagles in Philadelphia. The Giants overcame a 10-point fourth-quarter deficit to tie the score, but couldn't prevent the Eagles from driving 46 yards in the final 5:04 for the game-winning score. Tiki Barber rushed for 137 yards in his final NFL game, Eli Manning completed 16 of 27 passes for 161 yards and Plaxico Burress had two touchdown receptions. The Giants also got a pair of field goals from Jay Feely. The Eagles scored on a 49-yard touchdown run by Brian Westbrook, Jeff Garcia's 28-yard touchdown pass to Donte Stallworth and three Akers field goals. Akers' 48-yard field goal – the longest in Philadelphia postseason history – increased the Eagles' advantage to 20-10 with 2:37 remaining in the third quarter. Feely's 24-yard field goal pulled the Giants to within 20-13 just 10 seconds into the fourth quarter. They tied the game at 20-20 when Eli Manning found Burress in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown pass with 5:04 remaining. Burress' second touchdown capped a 13-play, 80-yard drive in the rain that took 7:09 to complete. The Giants needed a stop so they could get the ball back and try to win a game. But they never owed the ball again. Westbrook's 13-yard run gave Philly a first down on the Giants' 19-yard line with 1:48 remaining. From there, the Eagles bled the clock until they called timeout with three seconds left. Akers then booted the game-winner.

2007- GIANTS 24, BUCCANEERS 14

NFC Wild Card Game
Jan. 6, 2008 at Raymond James Stadium (65,621)

Before the Giants opened postseason play in an NFC Wild Card Game at Tampa Bay, Tom Coughlin had a simple message for his players: "Let's keep playing." So they did. Carrying their season-long road success into the playoffs, the Giants prevailed, 24-14, over the NFC South champion Buccaneers. They broke a four-game postseason losing streak that began in Super Bowl XXXV – in Raymond James Stadium, the home of the Bucs. The Giants also won their first playoff road game since the 1990 NFC Championship Game in San Francisco. They defeated Bucs quarterback Jeff Garcia, who had beaten them in the playoffs with the 49ers in 2002 and Philadelphia in 2006. Brandon Jacobs scored two touchdowns for the Giants, one on a five-yard reception, the other on an eight-yard run. Jacobs became the first Giants player in history with a rushing and receiving touchdown in the same postseason game. Amani Toomer caught a touchdown pass and Lawrence Tynes kicked a 25-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning completed 20 of 27 passes for 185 yards, the two touchdowns and no interceptions as the Giants won a postseason game for the first time with him taking the snaps. The Giants entered the game with a minus-nine turnover differential, or minus-24 relative to the Bucs' plus-15. Yet they had three takeaways to none for the Bucs. The first, a fumble recovery by Corey Webster on the second-half kickoff, led to Tynes' field goal. The second, a Webster interception in the end zone, likely denied the Bucs points. The third, a pick by R.W. McQuarters with 1:53 remaining, sealed the deal. The Giants played without center Shaun O'Hara (knee) and cornerback Sam Madison (abdominal). But Grey Ruegamer and Webster filled in superbly (the corner holding Joey Galloway to one nine-yard reception). They were among a large cast of key contributors. Toomer had a game-high seven catches for 74 yards. Rookie Ahmad Bradshaw came off the bench to rush for a game-high 66 yards. Michael Strahan had a career postseason high of nine tackles (eight solo). Gerris Wilkinson, who started for Kawika Mitchell (knee) had seven tackles (five solo). Tank Daniels had two special teams tackles and forced the fumble that Webster recovered. Zak DeOssie also had two special teams tackles. The offensive line allowed only one sack. Tampa Bay took an early lead on Earnest Graham's one-yard run, but Jacobs' two touchdowns gave the Giants a 14-7 halftime advantage. The first score successfully concluded an eight-play, 53-yard drive that took 4:04 to complete. Manning completed five passes for 49 yards in the series. Toomer accounted for 40 yards on three catches. On their next series, the Giants drove 65 yards in seven plays. The biggest play of the series was Manning's 21-yard pass to Steve Smith on third-and-two. Tynes' field goal and Toomer's touchdown midway through the fourth quarter extended the Giants' lead to 24-7 before Tampa Bay added a late score. Toomer scored at the end of a 15-play, 92-yard drive that featured 38 yards rushing by Bradshaw and three Toomer receptions for 27 yards.

2007- GIANTS 21, COWBOYS 17

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
Jan. 13, 2008 at Texas Stadium (63,650)

The Giants avenged their only road defeat of the season, a 45-35 opening-night loss, with a 21-17 victory over the top-seeded Dallas Cowboys in an NFC Divisional Playoff Game in Texas Stadium. The Cowboys had defeated the Giants twice in the regular season. The Giants became the first team to beat the NFC's No. 1 seed in the divisional round since the current postseason format (six teams from each conference) was adopted in 1990. Amani Toomer scored a pair of touchdowns on receptions of 52 and four yards form Eli Manning. Brandon Jacobs' one-yard touchdown run with 13:29 remaining provided the Giants with the game-winning points. But the victory was not assured until R.W. McQuarters intercepted Tony Romo's pass for Terry Glenn in the end zone with nine seconds remaining. It was the game's only takeaway. Manning had a career-high 132.4 passer rating after completing 12 of 18 passes for 163 yards, the two scores to Toomer and no interceptions. The Giants played with a severely depleted secondary. Sam Madison (stomach) and Kevin Dockery (hip flexor) were inactive. A third cornerback, Aaron Ross, left the game for good in the third quarter with a shoulder injury. That left Corey Webster, McQuarters and Geoffrey Pope – who spent the entire regular season on the practice squad before joining on the active roster on Dec. 31 – as the only healthy corners. All played extensively in the second half. The secondary, aided by a relentless second-half pass rush, stayed strong throughout the game. The Cowboys scored on Tony Romo's five-yard touchdown pass to Terrell Owens and Marion Barber's one-yard run in the second quarter and Nick Folk's 34-yard field goal in the third. Romo completed 18 of 36 passes for 201 yards and his 64.7 rating was less than half of Manning's. Toomer turned a short Manning pass into a 52-yard touchdown on the Giants' fifth offensive play. After Dallas took a 14-7 lead, Manning led the Giants on a 71-yard drive in the final minute of the half that ended with a four-yard scoring pass to Toomer and a 14-14 halftime tie. Folk gave the Cowboys a 17-14 lead before Jacobs' touchdown on the third play of the fourth quarter gave the Giants the lead for good. But the Cowboys had one last chance when they took possession at the Giants' 48-yard line with 1:50 remaining. Dallas soon faced second-and-11 at the 23. Two incomplete passes left them staring at a fourth down with the seasons of both teams hanging in the balance. Owens was double covered, so Romo threw to the center of the end zone for Terry Glenn. But McQuarters stepped up and picked off the pass, sending the Giants to the NFC Championship Game.

2007- GIANTS 23, PACKERS 20 (OT)

NFC Championship Game
Jan. 20, 2008 at Lambeau Field (72,740)

The coldest game in Giants history was also one of the most memorable and satisfying the franchise has ever played. The Giants overcame the elements – and the Packers – to defeat Green Bay in overtime, 23-20, in the NFC Championship Game in frigid Lambeau Field. Lawrence Tynes provided the game-winning points when he kicked a 47-yard field goal with 2:35 elapsed in overtime. Tynes had missed his previous two attempts, including one on the final play of regulation. It was the first time in the history of Lambeau that a visiting player had kicked a field goal of more than 40 yards in a postseason game. The score was set up by Corey Webster's interception on the second play of overtime of Brett Favre's final career pass. The temperature at game time was minus-one degree with winds of 12 miles-an-hour – a numbing wind chill of minus-23. In terms of temperature alone, this was the third-coldest NFL game on record. At the famed Ice Bowl between the Packers and Dallas Cowboys in Lambeau on Dec. 31, 1967, it was 13 below zero at kickoff. In the 1981 Chargers-Bengals AFC Championship Game in Cincinnati, it was nine below. Brandon Jacobs (one-yard run) and Ahmad Bradshaw (four-yard run) scored touchdowns and Tynes added a 29-yard field goal for the Giants. Eli Manning set career postseason highs with 40 passes, 21 completions and 251 yards. Plaxico Burress established a franchise postseason record with 11 catches, for 151 yards. The old mark of 10 was set by Ike Hilliard in the 2000 NFC Championship Game victory over Minnesota. Defensively, the Giants held Green Bay to 28 rushing yards, forced Favre into two late interceptions and limited the Packers to one successful third down conversion on 10 tries. The Giants dominated the game statistically, outgaining Green Bay (380-264), rolling up 11 more first downs (24-13) and owning the ball for 40:01 to just 22:34 for the Packers. The Packers scored on Driver's 90-yard catch-and-run and Favre's 12-yard touchdown pass to Donald Lee, plus field goals by rookie Mason Crosby of 36 and 37 yards. Crosby's second field goal, with 11:46 remaining in the fourth quarter, tied the score at 20-20. The Giants had a chance to prevent the score when R.W. McQuarters intercepted a Favre pass at the eight-yard line. But McQuarters was hit by Ryan Grant and fumbled and the ball bounced right to Packers tackle Mark Tauscher, who plucked it out of the air at the 19. It was the Giants' first turnover of the postseason…In overtime, Favre threw a pass to Driver, but Webster stepped up and picked off the ball, returning it nine yards to the Green Bay 34-yard line. Ahmad Bradshaw gained five yards on two runs before Manning's pass for Steve Smith fell incomplete. Tynes then sent the Giants to the Super Bowl with one of the biggest field goals in franchise history.

Super Bowl XLII
Feb. 3, 2008
at University of Phoenix Stadium (71,101)

WORLD CHAMPIONS

Super Bowl XLII had a perfect ending, but the unexpected twist was that it belonged to the Giants. Eli Manning engineered a fourth quarter comeback drive for the ages and concluded perhaps the greatest postseason run in NFL history as the underdog Giants upset the previously undefeated New England Patriots, 17-14, in Super Bowl XLII in University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz. The Giants won their third championship of the Super Bowl era – the first in 17 years - and seventh overall in what will surely be remembered as one of the most exciting title games in NFL history. It was the first of 42 Super Bowls in which the lead changed hands three times in the fourth quarter. Plaxico Burress scored the game-winning points with only 35 seconds remaining on a 13-yard pass from Manning. The score concluded a 12-play, 83-yard drive that commenced immediately after New England had taken a 14-10 lead with less than three minutes remaining. Manning, voted the game's most valuable player, completed 19 of 34 passes for 255 yards, two touchdowns and an interception, which deflected off Steve Smith's hands. David Tyree scored the Giants' first touchdown and made an unbelievable catch on the game-winning drive. Ahmad Bradshaw and Brandon Jacobs combined for 87 rushing yards. Amani Toomer caught six passes for 84 yards and Smith added five for 50 yards. Lawrence Tynes kicked a 32-yard field goal, which ultimately proved to be the deciding points. The Giants' defense was magnificent. New England averaged almost 37 points a game in the regular season. The Giants held them to 14. The Patriots averaged 411.3 yards a game, but totaled only 274 in the Super Bowl. The Patriots rushed for only 45 yards and did not have a run longer than nine yards. Tom Brady was sacked five times. Brady's six-yard touchdown pass to Randy Moss gave the Pats a 14-10 lead with just 2:42 remaining. Cornerback Corey Webster slipped on the play and New England reached the end zone at the end of a 12-play, 80-yard drive. Manning responded by completing five of nine passes for 77 yards on the game-winning drive. The one everyone will long remember came on a third-and-five from the Giants' 44. Manning, seemingly about to be sacked, escaped, steadied himself and fired a pass down the middle of the field for Tyree, who was closely covered by safety Rodney Harrison. Both players jumped for the ball, which somehow landed on top of Tyree's helmet. But the receiver wrestled the ball away from Harrison for what may well be the greatest catch in Super Bowl history. The 32-yard gain gave the Giants a first down at the New England 24. Three players later, Smith picked up a huge first down and Manning followed with the game-winning throw to Burress.

NFC Divisional Playoff Game
January 11, 2009
at Giants Stadium (80,242)

The Giants picked a bad day to have a bad day and saw their championship reign has come to an end in a 23-11 home loss to the Philadelphia Eagles. The Giants lost just two home games in the 2008 season - both to Philadelphia. They outgained the Eagles, 307-276, including 138-59 on the ground, but were doomed by an inability to take advantage of opportunities in close. The Giants advanced as far as Philadelphia's 17-yard line three times - and had a first down on the 11 on their initial possession - but settled for field goals each time. The Giants converted only three of 13 third down opportunities. Their last five possessions ended, in order, with a missed field goal, twice on downs, an interception and a fumble. The Giants scored on John Carney field goals of 22, 34 and 36 yards and a safety when Donovan McNabb was penalized for intentional grounding in the end zone. Carney also missed field goal attempts of 46 and 47 yards. Philadelphia got a one-yard touchdown run from McNabb, a one-yard scoring pass to tight end Brent Celek and David Akers field goals of 25, 35 yards and 20 yards. Brian Westbrook was held to 36 rushing yards and 10 receiving yards (on two catches).
